Photographs From Magnum Photos Deluxe Address:

Istanbul (Deluxe Edition) Orhan Pamuk, 2017-10-24 From the Nobel Prize winning author of My Name Is Red and Snow a large format deluxe collectible edition of his beloved memoir about life in Istanbul with more than 200 added illustrations and a new introduction Orhan Pamuk was born in Istanbul and still lives in the family apartment building where his mother first held him in her arms His portrait of his city is thus also a self portrait refracted by memory and the melancholy or hüzün that all Istanbulis share the sadness that comes of living amid the ruins of a lost empire With cinematic fluidity Pamuk moves from the lives of his glamorous unhappy parents to the gorgeous decrepit mansions overlooking the Bosphorus from the dawning of his self consciousness to the writers and painters both Turkish and foreign who would shape his consciousness of his city Like Joyce's Dublin and Borges' Buenos Aires Pamuk's Istanbul is a triumphant encounter of place and sensibility beautifully written and immensely moving

Understanding Human Motivation Donald Laming, 2003-08-29

Understanding Human Motivation is a lively presentation of how factors such as biological nature instinct past experience and society determine what we do Draws on many different domains of human behavior and links together many motivational factors such as fear sex consciousness and rage Illustrates the theoretical bases of motivation through real life examples and case studies Written in accessible manner for use in courses

The Decisive Network Nadya Bair, 2020 Since its founding in 1947 the legendary Magnum Photos agency has been telling its own story Its photographers were concerned witnesses to history and artists on the hunt for decisive moments their pictures were humanist documents of the postwar world Based in unprecedented archival research The Decisive Network peels back layers of the Magnum mythology to offer a new history of what it meant to shoot edit and sell news images after World War II Between the 1940s and 1960s Magnum expanded the human interest story about the everyday life of ordinary people to global dimensions while bringing the aesthetic of news pictures into new markets Its best known work started as humanitarian aid promotion travel campaigns corporate publicity and advertising Working with this range of clients Magnum made photojournalism integral to visual culture Yet Magnum's photographers could not have done this alone This book unpacks the collaborative nature of photojournalism as it transpired on a daily basis focusing on how picture editors sales agents spouses and publishers helped Magnum photographers succeed in their assignments and achieve fame The Decisive Network concludes in the late 1960s and early 1970s when amidst the decline of magazine publishing and the rise of an art market for photography Magnum turned to photo books and exhibitions to manage its growing picture archives and consolidate its brand In that moment Magnum's photojournalists became artists and their assignments turned into oeuvres Such ideas were necessary publicity and they also managed to shape discussions about photography for decades Bridging art history media studies cultural history and the history of communication this book transforms our understanding of the photographic profession and the global circulation of images in the pre digital world

The Cult of the Luxury Brand Paul Husband, 2010-12-07 In today's Asia you are what you wear The Cult of the Luxury

Brand is the first book to explore how and why an amazing luxeplosion is rocking Asia sweeping up not just the glitzy upper crust but secretaries toting their Burberry bags junior executives sporting Rolex watches and university students in Ferragamo shoes Hong Kong boasts more Gucci and Hermes stores than New York or Paris China's luxury market is growing with such gusto that it will single handedly be the biggest by 2014 Even India the new kid on the luxury block has three month waiting lists for hot items while in Tokyo the epicenter of the cult 94 percent of women in their 20s own a Louis Vuitton bag The cult of the luxury brand is so powerful that Asian consumers account for as much as half of the 80 billion global luxe industry Radha Chadha and Paul Husband explain the paradox of simultaneously pumping up your product's status while pumping it out to the masses They crack the code of the cult offering a tried and tested approach to creating an explosive following for your brand They outline a powerful model that explains the spread of luxury in developed markets such as Japan and Hong Kong while predicting the future course for emerging markets such as China and India They also examine the phenomenon of genuine fakes impossible to tell from the real thing but detracting from its sales Written by world leading experts in a highly accessible style the book draws on over 150 interviews with industry experts market studies in 10 countries and the authors collective experience across Asia It offers a glimpse of the thriving retail scene from glorious flagship stores in Tokyo to bustling local markets in Seoul and compares the various consumer segments to understand the inner motives for their obsession It demonstrates how the continent's massive economic and social transformation is dismantling centuries old ways of defining your place in society and how your spot on today's social totem pole is marked by your Chanel suit and your Cartier watch Whether you are a business professional targeting the Asian consumer a marketer interested in trend spotting or a shopper fascinated by luxury brands this book opens the door to success Photography

Popular Photography ,1988-01 Popular Photography ,1999-02 Popular Photography ,1995-12 The Family of Man Revisited Gerd Hurm,Anke Reitz,Shamoon Zamir,2020-08-09 The Family of Man is the most widely seen exhibition in the history of photography The book of the exhibition still in print is also the most commercially successful photobook ever published First shown at the Museum of Modern Art in New York in 1955 the exhibition travelled throughout the United States and to forty six countries and was seen by over nine million people Edward Steichen conceived curated and designed the exhibition He explained its subject as the everydayness of life and the essential oneness of mankind throughout the world The exhibition was a statement against war and the conflicts and divisions that threatened a common future for humanity after 1945 The popular international response was overwhelmingly enthusiastic Many critics however have dismissed the exhibition as a form of sentimental humanism unable to address the challenges of history politics and cultural difference This book revises the critical debate about The Family of Man challenging in particular the legacy of Roland Barthes s influential account of the exhibition The expert contributors explore new contexts for understanding Steichen s work and they undertake radically new analyses of the formal dynamics of the exhibition Also presented are documents about the exhibition never before available in English Commentaries by critical theorist Max Horkheimer and novelist Wolfgang Koeppen letters from photographer August Sander and a poetic sequence on the images by Polish poet Witold Wirpsza enable and encourage new critical reflections A detailed survey of audience responses in Munich from 1955 allows a rare glimpse of what visitors thought about the exhibition Today when armed conflict environmental catastrophe and economic inequality continue to threaten our future it seems timely to revisit The Family of Man Popular Photography ,1996-02
