Photography as Concept.4th International Triennial of Photography 1998 Renate Wiehager, Subject Guide to Books in Print, 1991 Artbibliographies Modern, 2005 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.). Library, 2001 俄罗斯:俄罗斯 Petrus Nedoma, Susan Acret, 2003 Gemälde 1957-2008 Renate Petzinger, Emilia Kabakov, 2008 Ilya Kabakov is currently one of the world's most important and influential artists from the former Soviet Union. Following the publication of a two-volume catalogue raisonné of Kabakov's installations in 2003, a complete overview of Kabakov's paintings is now being made available for the first time. The focus of this two-volume catalogue raisonné in a slipcase is on 130 works produced by the artist in Moscow between 1957 and 1987 when Kabakov created imaginary characters in his pictures to portray the banality of everyday life in the Soviet Union, a downright sardonic commentary on the system's promises and utopias that were never delivered upon, but also a parable on humankind. English and German text Photography, History, Difference Tanya Sheehan, 2014-12-02 Over the past decade, historical studies of photography have embraced a variety of cultural and disciplinary approaches to the medium while shedding light on non-Western vernacular and other photographic practices outside the Euro-American canon. Photography History Difference brings together an international group of scholars to reflect on contemporary efforts to take a different approach to photography and its histories. What are the benefits and challenges of writing a consolidated global history of photography? How do they compare with those of producing more circumscribed regional or thematic histories? In what ways does the recent emphasis on geographic and national specificity encourage or exclude attention to other forms of difference, such as race, class, gender, and sexuality? Do studies of other photographs ultimately necessitate the adoption of nontraditional methodologies, or are there contexts in which such differentiation can be intellectually unproductive and politically suspect? The contributors to the volume explore these and other questions through historical case studies, interpretive surveys of recent historiography, criticism, and museum practices, and creative proposals to rethink the connections between photography, history, and difference. A thought-provoking collection of essays that represents new ways of thinking about photography and its histories. It will appeal to a broad readership among those interested in art history, visual culture, media studies, and social history. Ilya Kabakov: Installations 1994-2000 Il'ia Iosifovich Kabakov, 2003 4th Austrian Triennial on Photography Werner Fenz, 2003 The Austrian Triennale on Photography held in Graz in 2003. Europe's current cultural metropolis is organized every three years around a specific theme. International artists are then invited to each produce a new piece of work that builds on that theme. At the 4th triennale, entitled Sight Seeing, picture postcards of the city are produced and placed at various points throughout the Graz. The idea is to reproduce urban space within urban space via the sight-seeing process as well as via virtual space and printed media. Curated by Werner Fenz. Hua jia di, 2004 俄罗斯, 2005 Access, 2004 Other Planes of There Renée Green, 2014-11-10 For more than two decades, the artist Renée
