From boyhood in Antrim to Hell on the Somme David Truesdale,2012-08-19 For almost 43 years three school notebooks lay in obscurity in the County Armagh home of sixty two year old James McRoberts The closely filled pages recorded just over two years in his life in uniform as he played his part in what was then known as the Great War During the Home Rule crisis of 1914 one of several in Ireland s history James McRoberts like many other men joined the Young Citizen Volunteers an organization that eventually became the 14th Royal Irish Rifles a battalion of the 36th Ulster Division These notebooks written at the time and with footnotes added some forty years later record his Army service between 8 January 1915 and 3 April 1917 They tell with remarkable immediacy of his time at Randalstown County Antrim and the move to Seaford in East Sussex From here after further training James moved with his Battalion to the trenches of the Western Front Written with a degree of humor and some detail his story covers the mundane routine of camp life recreation behind the lines the horrors of enemy shelling the deaths of good friends and the momentous events of 1 July 1916 on the Somme when his unit was in the thick of the action On 1 November 1917 while acting as a scout for a night patrol at Messines Ridge James was seriously wounded and evacuated to hospital for him the War was over Nevertheless he continued to record what was happening around him both with humour and in detail Classed as 80% disabled he was eventually discharged and returned home to enjoy a postwar career as a surveyor in County Armagh This is a remarkable memoir that is by turns lively candid humorous poignant and above all a window into the world of an Ulsterman who found himself both witness and participant to a series of remarkable events His descriptions of army life both daily routine and the inferno on the Somme in July 1916 add greatly to our knowledge of this most climactic period of history David Truesdale opted for early retirement in 1998 and since then has written for films and television and produced two battlefield guides on behalf of the Royal Irish Fusiliers Museum The First Eagle the 87th Foot at the Battle of Barrosa and Regulars by God The 89th Foot at the Battle of Lundy s Lane He is the author of Brotherhood of the Cauldron Irishmen in the 1st Airborne Division at Arnhem Angels and Heroes the story of a machine gunner with the Royal Irish Fusiliers August 1914 to April 1915 with Amanda Moreno Irish Winners of the Victoria Cross with Richard Doherty Leading The Way To Arnhem a history of the 21st Independent Parachute Company with Peter Gijbels Arnhem Their Final Battle the 11th Parachute Battalion 1943 44 with Gerrit Pijpers With David Orr he has written The Rifles are There 1st The Royal Ulster Rifles in Korea They are currently in collaboration on a history of the Ulster Volunteer Force and 36th Ulster Division 1913 1919 For relaxation he paints in watercolours following the Kelly school of innovation photographs wildlife listens to good music drinks red wine and finds that Tomaso Albinoni 1671 1751 and his Oboe Concerto in D Minor Op 9 No2 has been an inspiration during difficult times in any manuscript Army Reserve Magazine ,2001 Snow Country ,1992-10 In the 87 issues of Snow Country published between 1988 and 1999 the reader can find the defining coverage of mountain resorts ski technique and equipment racing cross country touring and the growing sport of snowboarding during a period of radical change The award winning magazine of mountain sports and living tracks the environmental impact of ski area development and people moving to the mountains to work and live Overland Monthly ,1913 *Catalog of Copyright Entries. history of each home Lewis discusses photographic techniques Tebbs used in his alternating panoramic and detail views A precise documentarian Tebbs also reveals a poetic sensibility in the plantation photos His frequent emphasis on aspects of decay neglect incompleteness and loss lends a wistful aura to many of the images an effect compounded by the fact that many of the homes no longer exist This noticeable vacillation between objectivity and sentiment Lewis shows suggests unfamiliarity and even discomfort with the legacy of slavery Poised on the brink of social and political reforms Louisiana in the mid 1920s had made significant strides away from the slave based agricultural economy that the plantation house often symbolized Tebbs s Louisiana plantation photographs capture a literal and cultural past reflecting a burgeoning national awareness of historic preservation and presenting plantations to us anew Select plantations included Ashland Belle Helene Avery Island Belle Chasse Belmont Butler Greenwood L Hermitage Oak Alley Parlange Ren Beauregard House Rosedown Seven Oaks Shadows on the Teche The Shades and Waverly Scientific Canadian Mechanics' Magazine and Patent Office Record Canada.
