Photos And Phantasms Harry Johnstons Photographs Of The Caribbean:

Photos and Phantasms Harry Johnston, Sir Harry Hamilton Johnston, 1998 In 1908 and 1909 the geographer explorer and colonial officer Sir Harry Johnston produced a remarkable series of photographs of everyday life in the Caribbean for inclusion in his book Negro in the New World Until now the bulk of these images have remained largely unknown languishing as fragile glass plate negatives within the vast archives of the Royal Geographical Society London In this the first publication devoted to the life and work of Johnston in the Caribbean Dr Petrine Archer Straw presents a lively and provocative account of the background of Johnston s mission highlighting the social and political context in which he operated Drawing on recent developments in Caribbean scholarship Dr Petrine Archer Straw examines Johnston s questionable anthropological theories and colonial views whilst also acknowledging his considerable skills as a photographer environmentalist and linguist In a region where photographic archives from the period hardly exist this publication provides an invaluable record of the Caribbean during the post emancipation period providing new visual evidence of the social and political situation in Jamaica Trinidad Barbados Cuba and Haiti at the beginning of this century Photos & Phantasms Petrine Archer-Straw, Royal Geographical Society, 1998 Visualizing Haiti in U.S. Culture, 1910-1950 Lindsay J Twa, 2014-05-28 From the 1910s until the 1950s the Caribbean nation of Haiti drew the attention of many U S literary and artistic luminaries yet while significant studies have been published on Haiti s history none analyze visual representations with any depth This book argues that choosing Haiti as subject matter was a highly charged decision by American artists to use their artwork to engage racial social and political issues Twa scrutinizes photographs illustrations paintings and theatre as well as textual and archival sources Caribbean Art Veerle Poupeye, 2022-04-07 Caribbean Art presents and discusses the diverse fascinating and highly accomplished work of Caribbean artists whether indigenous or from the diaspora popular or high culture rural or urban based politically radical or religious This expanded edition has a new preface and has been updated to reflect on recent challenges to the ideological premises and institutions of conventional art historical practice and their connections to histories of colonialism Eurocentricity and race Two new chapters focus on public monuments linked to the history of the Caribbean and the intersections between art and tourism raising important questions about cultural representation Featuring the work of internationally recognized artists such as Sonia Boyce Christopher Cozier Wifredo Lam Ana Mendieta Ebony G Patterson Herv T l maque and more than 100 others working across a variety of media this new edition makes an important contribution to the understanding of Caribbean art and its context in ways that invite and encourage further explorations on the subject Strolling in the Ruins Faith Smith, 2023-02-20 In Strolling in the Ruins Faith Smith engages with a period in the history of the Anglophone Caribbean often overlooked as nondescript quiet and embarrassingly pro imperial within the larger narrative of Jamaican and Trinidadian nationalism Between the 1865 Morant Bay Rebellion and World War I British imperialism was taken for granted among both elites and ordinary people while nationalist discourses would not begin to shape political imagination in the West Indies for decades Smith argues that this moment far from being uneventful disrupts the inevitability of nationhood in the mid twentieth century and anticipates the Caribbean's present day relationship to global power Smith assembles and analyzes a diverse set of texts from Carnival songs poems and novels to newspapers photographs and gardens to examine theoretical and literary historiographic questions concerning time and temporality empire and diaspora immigration and indigeneity gender and the politics of desire Africa's place within Caribbeanist discourse and the idea of the Caribbean itself Closely examining these cultural expressions of apparent quiescence Smith locates the quiet violence of colonial rule and the insistence of colonial subjects on making meaningful lives

Monsters of Our Own Making Marina Warner, 2007-02-23 In Monsters of Our Own Making Marina Warner explores the dark realm where ogres devour children and bogeymen haunt the night She considers the enduring presence and popularity of male figures of terror establishing their origins in mythology and their current relation to ideas about sexuality and power youth and age

Ramaswamy, 2014-03-14 Empires of Vision brings together pieces by some of the most influential scholars working at the intersection of visual culture studies and the history of European imperialism The essays and excerpts focus on the paintings maps geographical surveys postcards photographs and other media that comprise the visual milieu of colonization struggles for decolonization and the lingering effects of empire Taken together they demonstrate that an appreciation of the role of visual experience is necessary for understanding the functioning of hegemonic imperial power and the ways that the colonized subjects spoke and looked back at their imperial rulers Empires of Vision also makes a vital point about the complexity of image culture in the modern world We must comprehend how regimes of visibility emerged globally not only in the metropole but also in relation to the putative margins of a world that increasingly came to question the very distinction between center and periphery Contributors Jordanna Bailkin Roger Benjamin Daniela Bleichmar Zeynep elik David Ciarlo Natasha Eaton Simon Gikandi Serge Gruzinski James L Hevia Martin Jay Brian Larkin Olu Oguibe Ricardo Padr n Christopher Pinney Sumathi Ramaswamy Benjamin Schmidt Terry Smith Robert Stam Eric A Stein Nicholas Thomas Krista A Thompson

Cr ol t  and Creolization Okwui Enwezor, 2003 Documenta 11 consisted of five platforms The first four platforms addressed specific issues at different venues in cooperation with various partners The exhibition in Kassel was the fifth platform The publications for Documenta11 are published by Hatje Cantz Publishers They are comprised of four volumes of the collected platform lectures a commissioned study of urban conditions in Latin America edited by Armando Silva the exhibition catalog a photo documentation of the exhibition and a short guide to the exhibition The Oxford History of Western Art Martin Kemp,2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students Artbibliographies Modern ,1999 Encyclopedia of Exploration, 1850 to 1940 Raymond John Howgego,2008 The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,1999 The British Journal of Photography ,1998 Surviving the Lens Michael Stevenson,Michael Graham-Stewart,2001 Annual Bibliography of Modern Art Museum of Modern Art (New York, N.Y.).
