Writings on Literature, Music and the Visual Arts, 2021-08-26 This book is made up of a collection of texts unavailable in one volume until now including six previously untranslated essays from a major theologian of the twentieth century Rahner's numerous writings focused on the revelation of God as mystery in the world and on the human being who has an essential openness towards the transcendent His articles reveal an empathy and a depth of insight into the relationship between theology faith and the arts which are remarkable and may take the reader by surprise More recently Rahner's contribution to the growing field of theology and the arts has been recognised by leading theologians on this subject He asserts that theology must integrate the verbal and non verbal arts as they are authentic means of human self expression of religious experience and of God's self communication and therefore they are essential sources of theology Rahner argues that theology understood as a person's reflexive self expression about him or herself in the light of divine revelation cannot be regarded as complete until the arts become an intrinsic moment of theology itself White Property, Black Trespass Andrew Krinks, 2024-08-20 White Property Black Trespass traces the eurochristian settler colonial racial capitalist history and present of police power re narrating the mass criminalization of Black and economically dispossessed peoples as a religious project that saves the pseudo sacred order of whiteness and property by exiling those who trespass against it to carceral hell

The Productions of Time Michael Dolzani, 2021-02-18 Myth criticism flourished in the mid twentieth century under the powerful influence of Canadian thinker Northrop Frye It asserted the need to identify common unifying patterns in literature arts and religion Although it was eclipsed by postmodern theories that asserted difference and conflict those theories proved incapable of inspiring solidarity or guiding social action The Productions of Time argues for a return to myth criticism in order to refine and extend its vision With the aim of rehabilitating myth criticism for our time Michael Dolzani sketches an anatomy of the imagination as demonstrated in the total body of its productions including literature mythology the arts popular culture and religious and political texts Dolzani situates a vast panoply of images character types plot structures themes and genres to better understand their purposes their recurrences across broad spans of history and their interrelations Illustrating the relationship between mythology and history The Productions of Time proposes a symbolic language as a way of enabling dialogue across ideological and individual differences Arguing for the ethical and intellectual necessity of conceiving a unifying pattern that transcends differences The Productions of Time demonstrates that imagination is part of the human inheritance common to all not just to poets and mystics

Buddhist Architecture in America Robert Gordon, 2022-11-18 This book is the first comprehensive overview of Buddhist architecture in North America and provides an analysis of Buddhist architecture and communities Exploring the arrival of Buddhist architecture in America the book lays out how Buddhists have expressed their spiritual beliefs in structural form in the United States The story follows the parallel history of the religion's emergence in the United States since the California Gold Rush to the present day Conceived of as a general history the book investigates Buddhist structures with respect to the humanistic qualities associated with Buddhist doctrine and how Buddhist groups promote their faith and values in an American setting The author s point of view starts from the ground floor of the buildings to move deeper into the space of Buddhist practice the mind that seeks enlightenment and the structures that help one to do so It discusses Buddhist architecture in the United States in a manner consistent with the intensely human context of its use A unique and ground breaking analysis this book adds to the study of Buddhist architecture in America while also addressing the topic of how and why Buddhists use architecture in general It will be of interest to scholars of religion architecture space and place U S history Asian Studies and Buddhist Studies It will also be a valuable addition to the libraries of Buddhist communities across the United States and the world since many of the observations about Buddhist architecture in the United States may also apply to structures in Europe and Asia Science of Religion. Studies in Methodology Lauri Honko,2011-12-07 Since its founding by Jacques Waardenburg in 1971 Religion and Reason has been a leading forum for contributions on theories theoretical issues and agendas related to the phenomenon and the study of religion Topics include among others category formation comparison ethnophilosophy hermeneutics methodology myth phenomenology philosophy of science scientific atheism structuralism and theories of religion From time to time the series publishes volumes that map the state of the art and the history of the discipline The Faces of the Gods Leslie G rard Desmangles,1992 Vodou the folk religion of Haiti is a by product of the contact between Roman Catholicism and African and Amerindian traditional religions In this book Leslie Desmangles analyzes the mythology and rituals of Vodou focusing particularly on the inclusion of West African and European elements in Vodouisants beliefs and practices Desmangles sees Vodou not simply as a grafting of European religious traditions onto African stock but as a true creole phenomenon born out of the oppressive conditions of slavery and the necessary adaptation of slaves to a New World environment Desmangles uses Haitian history to explain this phenomenon paying particular attention to the role of the seventeenth and eighteenth century maroon communities in preserving African traditions and the attempts by the Catholic educated elite to suppress African based superstitions The result is a society in which one religion Catholicism is visible and official the other Vodou is unofficial and largely secretive
