Race Ethnicity And Sexuality Intimate Intersections Forbidden Frontiers:

Race, Ethnicity, and Sexuality Joane Nagel, 2003 What do race ethnicity and nationalism have to do with sex and vice versa This title uses examples to examine how sex shapes ideas and feelings about race ethnicity and national identity and how sexual images fears and desires shape racial ethnic and national stereotypes and conflicts Race and Sexuality Salvador Vidal-Ortiz, Brandon Andrew Robinson, Cristina Khan, 2018-04-27 The connections between race and sexuality are constant in our lives yet they are not often linked together in productive analytical ways This illuminating book delves into the interrelation of race and sexuality as inseparable elements of our identities and social lives The authors approach the topic through an interdisciplinary lens focusing on power social arrangements and hierarchies and the production of social difference Their analysis maps the historical discursive and structural manifestations of race and sexuality noting the everyday effects that the intersections of these categories have on people's lived experiences Considering both US based and transnational cases this book presents an empirical grounding for understanding how race and sexuality are mutually constitutive categories Providing a comprehensive overview of racialized sexualities this book is an essential text for any advanced course on race sexuality and intersectionality Frontier Intimacies Paola Canova, 2020-10-20 Until the 1960s the Ayoreo people of Paraguay's Chaco region had remained uncontacted by the world But as development encroached on their territory the Ayoreo began to experience rapid cultural change Paola Canova looks at one aspect of this change in Frontier Intimacies the sexual practices of Ayoreo women specifically the curajodie or single women who exchange sex for money or material goods with non Ayoreo men often Mennonite settlers Weaving personal anecdotes into her extensive research Canova shows how the advancement of economic and missionary frontiers has reconfigured gender roles sexual ethics and notions of desire in the region Ayoreo women she shows have reappropriated their sexual practices approaching intimate liaisons on their own terms and seeing the involvement of money not as morally problematic but as constitutive of sexual encounters By using their sexuality to construct an intimate frontier operating according to their own logics Canova reveals Ayoreo women expose the fractured workings of frontier capitalism in spaces of rapid transformation Inviting broader examination of the ways in which contemporary frontier economies are constructed and experienced Frontier Intimacies brings a captivating new perspective to the economic development of the Chaco region The Sexual History of the Global South Saskia Wieringa, Horacio Sívori, 2013-04-11 The Sexual History of the Global South explores the gap between sexuality studies and post colonial cultural critique Featuring twelve case studies based on original historical and ethnographic research from countries in Africa Asia and Latin America the book examines the sexual investments underlying the colonial project and the construction of modern nation states Covering issues of heteronormativity post colonial amnesia regarding non normative sexualities women's sexual agency the policing of the boundaries between the public and the private realm sexual citizenship the connections between LGBTQ activism and processes of state formation and the emergence of sexuality studies in the global South this collection is of great geographical historical and topical significance

Respect Yourself, Protect Yourself Lorena Garcia, 2012-10-22 Exploring young Latina youth's sexual agency education and expression While Latina girls have high teen birth rates and are at increasing risk for contracting sexually transmitted infections their sexual lives are much more complex than the negative stereotypes of them as helpless or risky or worse suggest In Respect Yourself Protect Yourself Lorena Garcia examines how Latina girls negotiate their emerging sexual identities and attempt to create positive sexual experiences for themselves Through a focus on their sexual agency Garcia demonstrates that Latina girls' experiences with sexism racism homophobia and socioeconomic marginality inform how they engage and begin to rework their meanings and processes of gender and sexuality emphasizing how Latina youth themselves understand their sexuality particularly how they conceptualize and approach sexual safety and pleasure At a time of controversy over the appropriate role of sex education in schools Respect Yourself Protect Yourself provides a rare look and an important understanding of the sexual lives of a traditionally marginalized group

Sex and Nation in Transatlantic Literatures Agata Szczeszak-Brewer, 2025-06-12 Nationalist and tribal cohesion in Ireland South Africa the US and elsewhere often relies on an absence of female and gender nonconforming bodies in the public life Staging a vital counter narrative to global nationalist discourses this book explores how 20th and 21st century postcolonial literatures criticize hetero normative definitions of nationhood across different geopolitical and cultural contexts Szczeszak Brewer delves into the metaphorical currency of male impotence and sexual aggression in nationalist narratives She examines the place of gender nonconforming characters in literature from Ireland the US Poland France Britain South Africa and Senegal in the work of writers including James Joyce Witold Gombrowicz Jean Toomer Bessie Head Zo Wicomb J M Coetzee Andrea Levy Patrick McCabe and David Diop Aligning queer and gender perspectives with discussions of white supremacy this book examines the urgency for contemporary geopolitics to imagine new discourses of community against the backdrop of a rise in neo nationalisms steeped in homophobic and misogynistic rhetoric

Economies of Gender Julia H. Meszaros, 2025-10-14 Economies of Gender Masculinity Mail Order Brides and Women's Labor offers a provocative exploration of the international dating industry challenging simplistic narratives of human trafficking and scams while shedding light on the economic dynamics of gender Through twelve years of fieldwork the book delves into the motivations and experiences of men who seek relationships abroad driven by dissatisfaction with Western women who they believe no longer embody traditional femininity By examining romantic tourism hotspots such as Ukraine Colombia and the Philippines Economies of Gender reveals how these international settings serve as intimate frontiers where men seek to extract femininity capital and bolster their status It illuminates the often unseen economic underpinnings of relationships and questions how global gender dynamics shape desires fantasies and intimate markets Through its compelling analysis the book broadens the conversation on gender power and the commodification of intimacy in a globalized world

Worlds of Racism Philomena Essed, Karen Farquharson, Kathryn Pillay, Elisa Joy White, 2018-08-20 This international edited collection examines how racism trajectories and manifestations in different locations relate and influence each other The book unmask and foregrounds the ways in which notions of European Whiteness have found form in a variety of global contexts that continue to sustain racism as an operational norm resulting in exclusion violence human rights violations isolation and limited full citizenship for individuals who are not racialised as White The chapters in this book specifically implicate European Whiteness whether attempting to reflect negate or obtain it in social structures that facilitate and normalise racism The authors interrogate the dehumanisation of Blackness arguing that dehumanisation enables the continuation of racism in White dominated societies As such the book explores instances of dehumanisation across different contexts highlighting that although the forms may be locally specific the outcomes are continually negative for those racialised as Black The volume is refreshingly extensive in its analyses of racism beyond Europe and the United States including contributions from Africa South America and Australia and illuminates previously unexplored manifestations of racism across the globe

Exploring Black Sexuality Robert Staples, 2006 In this pioneering nonobjective study a distinguished Black sexologist tackles one of the most controversial aspects of American race relations The subject of Black sexuality has been widely discussed in every possible popular format for the past four hundred years yet serious scholarship in the area is lacking While Black sexuality has been a pervasive force in American life it has been too sensitive a topic for Black or white authors to write about in a serious non polemical format Robert Staples explores same sex attitudes and behavior interracial sexual relations rape prostitution pornography and the stereotypes of Black sexual superiority in this scholarly yet accessible collection Staples shows how vaunted and feared sexual differences were the raison d'être of Southern school segregation race based laws white flight from the inner cities the double sexual standard lynchings and race riots This groundbreaking study concludes with a speculation on the future of Black sexuality in the 21st century based on our knowledge of current demographic and economic forces

Sexual Predation and TEFL Vaughan Rapatahana, 2024-12-16 Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL enables sexual predation across the wide range of activities and locales it encompasses beyond schools and inclusive of voluntourist and aid programmes where EFL is taught This predation is carried out not only by male Native speaking English Teachers NETs on their students peers and members of local communities but also carried out on female NETs and EFL students by locals Is TEFL inherently sexist utilising gender biased texts This book is the first to examine in considerable detail such English language sexual imperialism and to suggest ways to curtail it

Media, Erotics, and Transnational Asia Purnima Mankekar, Louisa Schein, 2013-02-11 This collection of essays examines how mediated eroticism and sexuality circulate across Asia and its diasporas both reflecting and shaping the social practices of producers and consumers

Questioning Gender Robyn Ryle, 2016-12-08 A one of a kind text designed to launch readers into a thoughtful encounter with gender issues Questioning Gender A Sociological

Exploration Third Edition serves as a point of departure for productive conversations about gender and as a resource for exploring answers to many of those questions Rather than providing definitive answers this unique book exposes readers to some of the best scholarship in the field that will lead them to question many of their assumptions about what is normal and abnormal The author uses both historical and cross cultural approaches as well as a focus on intersectionality and transgender issues to help students understand the socially constructed nature of gender Black Sexualities Juan Battle,Sandra L. Barnes,2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge and how is it manifested How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism Contributors seek resolution to Blacks understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance Embodying Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sarah-Jane Page,Katy Pilcher,2020-12-27 Taking the notion of embodiment as a starting point this volume maps the interconnecting relationships between religion gender and sexuality The chapters highlight how the body its location the narratives that surround it its movement and negotiations is central to understanding these multifaceted relationships The contributors recognise the ways in which gender and sexuality are crucial to how we embody religion and encourage a more complex and nuanced understanding of embodied religion The material is organised according to three central themes 1 the relationship between the religious and the secular 2 power regulation and resistance and 3 the symbolism of gendered bodies Cutting across a range of disciplinary perspectives Embodying Religion Gender and Sexuality will be relevant to students of sociology anthropology gender and sexuality studies theology and religious studies Elgar Encyclopedia of Global Migration Laura Oso,Natalia Ribas-Mateos,Melissa Moralli,2025-01-09 In recent decades emerging challenges such as increased digitalization of social lives and the ongoing processes of border externalization and internalization have prompted scholars and civil societies to question the ways in which people view frame and experience migration and draw attention to emerging forms of resistance and mobility justice This timely Encyclopedia engages with critical epistemologies and practices to provide a comprehensive examination of the field of global migration activism and cultural production
