Race Traitor 11:

Race Struggles Theodore Koditschek, Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua, Helen A. Neville, 2009 The essays in this collection start with the premise that although race like class and gender is socially constructed all three categories have been shaped profoundly by their context in a capitalist society Race in other words is a historical category that develops not only in dialectical relation to class and gender but also in relation to the material conditions in which all three are forged In addition to discussing and analyzing various dimensions of the African American experience contributors also consider the ways in which race plays itself out in the experience of Asian Americans and in the very different geopolitical environments of the British Empire and postcolonial Africa Contributors are Pedro Caban Sundiata Keita Cha Jua David Crockett Theodore Koditschek Scott Kurashige Clarence Lang Minkah Makalani Helen A Neville Ibitola O Pearce David Roediger Monica M White and Jeffrey Williams A Nation Divided: The Conflicting Personalities, Visions, and Values of Liberals and Conservatives Anthony Walsh, 2019-10-02 Activists have long claimed that the personal is political but this book posits the converse that the political is personal The United States today is bitterly divided It is less an aspirational melting pot of immigrants and more a salad bowl made up of distinct often clashing flavors The successive elections of two divisive presidents one committed to the perennial leftist dream of fundamental change and the other to a conservative vision of Making America Great Again have exacerbated what is arguably the greatest rift in politics since the election of Abraham Lincoln Taking inspiration from Coleridge s belief that all humans are temperamentally destined to follow the path of Plato the Idealist or Aristotle the Realist this book examines the political divide in terms of these temperamental differences Liberals and conservatives views of human nature have a large bearing on the political policies they espouse but their temperaments and personalities have the most significant impact This book analyses the personality traits of liberals and conservatives in terms of the Big Five model openness to experience conscientiousness extraversion agreeableness and neuroticism Conservatives are found in almost all studies to be more conscientious agreeable and extroverted while liberals are found to be more open to new experience and neurotic The political divisions I explore in this book are all essentially fueled by personality differences There is a deepening divide between liberals and conservatives in the battle for America s soul one side seeks to steer the nation sharply to the left into socialist selfdom whereas the other side desires a wealthy and free America under the watchful eye of God s providence A preponderance of academic texts belongs to the liberal tradition Conservatives have long lacked a comparable intellectual tradition of their own although an incipient one is now beginning to form This book while maintaining a measure of scholarly distance is unashamedly written from a conservative point of view White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility Eva Boodman, 2022-01-10 White ignorance is a form of collective denial that aggressively resists acknowledging the role of race and racism It dominates our political landscape warps white moral frameworks and affective responses intervenes in white self conceptions and organizes white identities In this way white ignorance poses a problem for conceptions of responsibility that rely on individuals intentions causal contributions or knowledge of the facts As Eva Boodman shows our moral concepts for responding to racism are implicated in the process of racialization when they understand responsibility as the attribution of blame or absolution innocence or guilt White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility challenges these binary punitive moralities arguing that they reproduce racial harm by encouraging white people to seek innocence and the purification of moral taint instead of addressing the material conditions of racial harm Instead Boodman claims the space of complicity as a place of anti racist possibility Linking the construction of whiteness to a racist punishment paradigm this book makes the case for a different way of responding to harm as necessary for dismantling the moral racial political and affective constructs that keep racial capitalism in place

Sisters in Hate Seyward Darby, 2020-07-21 WITH A NEW FOREWORD Journalist Seyward Darby s masterfully reported and incisive Nell Irvin Painter expos pulls back the curtain on modern racial and political extremism in America telling the eye opening and unforgettable Ibram X Kendi account of three women immersed in the white nationalist movement After the election of Donald J Trump journalist Seyward Darby went looking for the women of the so called alt right really just white nationalism with a new label The mainstream media depicted the alt right as a bastion of angry white men but was it As women headlined resistance to the Trump administration s bigotry and sexism most notably at the Women s Marches Darby wanted to know why others were joining a movement espousing racism and anti feminism Who were these women and what did their activism reveal about America s past present and future Darby researched dozens of women across the country before settling on three Corinna Olsen Ayla Stewart and Lana Lokteff Each was born in 1979 and became a white nationalist in the post 9 11 era Their respective stories of radicalization upend much of what we assume about women politics and political extremism Corinna a professional embalmer who was once a body builder found community in white nationalism before it was the alt right while she was grieving the death of her brother and the end of her marriage For Corinna hate was more than just personal animus it could also bring people together Eventually she decided to leave the movement and served as an informant for the FBI Ayla a devoutly Christian mother of six underwent a personal transformation from self professed feminist to far right online personality Her identification with the burgeoning tradwife movement reveals how white nationalism traffics in society s preferred retrograde ways of seeing women Lana who runs a right wing media company with her husband enjoys greater fame and notoriety than many of her sisters in hate Her work disseminating and monetizing far right dogma is a testament to the power of disinformation With acute psychological insight and eye opening reporting Darby steps inside the contemporary hate movement and draws connections to precursors like the Ku Klux Klan Far more than mere helpmeets women like Corinna Ayla and Lana have been sustaining features of white nationalism Sisters in Hate shows how the work women do to normalize and propagate racist extremism has consequences well beyond the hate movement

Race, Whiteness, and Education Zeus Leonardo, 2009-05-12 In the colorblind era of Post Civil Rights America race is often wrongly thought to be irrelevant or at best a problem of racist individuals rather than a systemic condition to be confronted Race Whiteness and Education interrupts this dangerous assumption by reaffirming a critical appreciation of the central role that race and racism still play in schools and society Author Zeus Leonardo s conceptual engagement of race and whiteness asks questions about its origins its maintenance and envisages its future This book does not simply rehearse exhausted ideas on the relationship among race class and education but instead offers new ways of understanding how multiple social relations interact with one another and of their impact in thinking about a more genuine sense of multiculturalism By asking fundamental questions about whiteness in schools and society Race Whiteness and Education goes to the heart of race relations and the common sense understandings that sustain it thus painting a clearer picture of the changing face of racism

Making #Charlottesville Aniko Bodroghkozy, 2023-05-22 The 2017 Summer of Hate in Charlottesville became a worldwide media event putting at center stage the resurgence of emboldened and empowered white supremacy and alt right extremism as well as the antiracist movement opposing it Aniko Bodroghkozy s trenchant study examines this formative moment in recent U S history by juxtaposing it against two other epochal moments that put American racism and the struggle against it on worldwide display the 1963 Birmingham and 1965 Selma campaigns of the civil rights movement Making Charlottesville investigates the historical rhymes in the mass media s treatment of these events separated by half a century along with the ways that activists on both sides made use of the new media environment of their day to organize and amplify their respective messages Bodroghkozy teases out the connections similarities and resonances among these events from the ways all three places were consciously chosen as stage sets for media campaigns to the similarly iconic and heavily circulated images they produced to the sustained cultural purchase they continue to hold in the United States and around the world Casting Gender John T. Warren, Laura B. Lengel, 2005 Casting Gender puts forward a vision of theatre storytelling and the performance of the everyday function within the lived spaces of its performers and audiences asking how women artists scholars embody meaning carry social value and constitute possible identities Drawing on scholarship in intercultural communication performance studies women s studies and cultural studies this collection of new critically informed research advances our understanding of how theater works as intercultural communication and as a vehicle for change Casting Gender offers varied locations and sites of research highlighting the rich diversity of women s cultural identities roles and societal positions This book moves beyond the western centered nature of intercultural performance and intercultural communication theory and practice by creating a forum for nonwestern voices

The Other Side of Terror Erica R. Edwards, 2021-08-10 WINNER 2022 John Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association HONORABLE MENTION 2022 Gloria E Anzald a Book Prize given by the National Women s Studies Association Reveals the troubling intimacy between Black women and the making of US global power The year 1968 marked both the height of the worldwide Black liberation struggle and a turning point for the global reach of American power which was built on the counterinsurgency honed on Black and other oppressed populations at home The next five decades saw the consolidation of the culture of the American empire through what Erica R Edwards calls the imperial grammars of blackness This is a story of state power at its most devious and most absurd and at the same time a literary history of Black feminist radicalism at its most trenchant Edwards reveals how the long war on terror beginning with the late Cold War campaign against organizations like the Black Panther Party for Self Defense and the Black Liberation Army has relied on the labor and the fantasies of Black women to justify the imperial spread of capitalism Black feminist writers not only understood that this would demand a shift in racial gendered power but crafted ways of surviving it The Other Side of Terror offers an interdisciplinary Black feminist analysis of militarism security policing diversity representation intersectionality and resistance while discussing a wide array of literary and cultural texts from the unpublished work of Black radical feminist June Jordan to the memoirs of Condoleezza Rice to the television series Scandal With clear moving prose Edwards chronicles Black feminist organizing and writing on the other side of terror which tracked changes in racial power transformed African American literature and Black studies and predicted the crises of our current era with unsettling accuracy Racing to Justice John A. Powell, 2024-11-19 In Racing to Justice renowned social justice advocate John A. Powell persuasively argues that we have yet to achieve a truly post racial society and that there is much work to be done to redeem the American promise of inclusive democracy Gathered from a decade of writing about social justice and spirituality these meditations on race identity and social policy provide an outline for laying claim to our shared humanity and a way toward healing ourselves and securing our future With an updated foreword and a new chapter on polarization this new edition continues to challenge us to replace the attitudes and institutions that promote and perpetuate social suffering with those that foster relationships and a way of being that transcends disconnection and separation Racing to Justice is a thought provoking book that offers readers a look into the issues that continue to plague our society It is reminder that we have yet to address and reckon with the challenges we face in providing equal opportunities for all people in this country and the world Disability, Intersectional Agency, and Latinx Identity Alexis Padilla, 2021-07-28 This interdisciplinary volume links disability and agency by exploring LatDisCrit's theory and activist emancipatory practice It uses the author's experiential and analytical views as a blind brown Latinx engaged scholar and activist from the global south living and struggling in the highly racialized global north context of the United States LatDisCrit integrates critically LatCrit and DisCrit which look at the interplay of race ethnicity diasporic cultures historical sociopolitics and disability within multiple Latinx identities in mostly global north contexts while incorporating global south epistemologies Using intersectional analysis of key concepts through critical counterstories following critical race theory methodological traditions and engaging possible decoloniality treatments of material precarity and agency this book emphasizes intersectionality's complex underpinnings within and beyond Latinidades Through a careful interplay of disability identity and disability rights empowerment the volume opens avenues for intersectional solidarity and spaces for radical transformational learning This book will be of interest to all scholars and students working in disability studies intersectional disability justice activists critical Latinx Chicanx studies critical geographies intersectional political philosophy and political and public sociology Unlikely Allies in the Academy Karen L. Dace, 2012-05-23 A CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title 2012 Unlikely Allies in the Academy brings the voices of women of Color and White women together for much overdue conversations about race These well known contributors use narrative to expose their stories which are at times messy and always candid However the contributors work through the discomfort confusion and frustration in order to have honest conversations about race and racism The narratives from Chicanas Indigenous Asian American African American and White women academicians explore our past present and future what separates us and how to communicate honestly in an effort to become allies Chapters discuss the need to interrupt and disrupt the norms of interaction and engagement by allowing for the messiness of discomfort in frank discussion The dialogues model how to engage in difficult dialogues about race and begin to illuminate the unspoken misunderstandings about how White women and women of Color engage one another This valuable book offers strategies ideas and the hope for moving toward true alliances in the academy and to improve race relations This important resource is for Higher Education administrators faculty and scholars grappling with the intersectionality of race and gender as they work to understand study and create more inclusive climates Undoing Privilege Professor Bob Pease, 2013-04-04 For every group that is oppressed another group is privileged In Undoing Privilege Bob Pease argues that privilege as the other side of oppression has received insufficient attention in both critical theories and in the practices of social change As a result dominant groups have been allowed to reinforce their dominance Undoing Privilege explores the main sites of privilege from Western dominance class elitism and white and patriarchal privilege to the less examined sites of heterosexual and able bodied privilege Pease points out that while the vast majority of people may be oppressed on one level many are also privileged on another He also demonstrates how members of privileged groups can engage critically with their own dominant position and explores the potential and limitations of them becoming allies against oppression and their own unearned privilege This is an essential book for all who are concerned about developing theories and practices for a socially just world Colored White David R. Roediger,2003-11 In this splendid book David Roediger shows the need for political activism aimed at transforming the social and political meaning of race No other writer on whiteness can match Roediger s historical breadth and depth his grasp of the formative role played by race in the making of the nineteenth century working class in defining the contours of twentieth century U S citizenship and social membership and in shaping the meaning of emerging social identities and cultural practices in the twenty first century George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness David Roediger has been showing us all for years how whiteness is a marked and not a neutral color in the history of the United States Colored White with its synthetic sweep and new historical investigations marks yet another advance In the burgeoning literature on whiteness this book stands out for its lucid unjargonridden lively prose its groundedness its analytic clarity and its scope Michael Rogin author of Blackface White Noise Race Traitor ,2000 Rethinking Rachel Doležal and Transracial Theory Molly Littlewood McKibbin,2021-11-23 Using real life examples this book asks readers to reflect on how we as an academic community think and talk about race and racial identity in twenty first century America One of these examples Rachel Dole al provides a springboard for an examination of the state of our discourse around changeable racial identity and the potential for transracialism An analysis of how we are theorizing transracial identity as opposed to an argument for against it this study detects some omissions and problems that are becoming evident as we establish transracial theory and suggests ways to further develop our thinking and avoid missteps Intended for academics and thinkers familiar with conversations about identity and or race Rethinking Rachel Dole al and Transracial Theory helps shape the theorization of transracialism in its formative stages Class Struggles Dennis L. Dworkin,2014-05-22 In the 1960s and 1970s the study of history and sociology was heavily influenced by Marxism and theories of class But the collapse of Communism and significant changes in culture and society threw the study of class into crisis Its most basic premises were called into question More recently accelerating globalisation proliferating multinational corporations and unbridled free market capitalism have given the study of class a new significance and caused historians and sociologists to revisit the debate This book looks at the changes that caused the crisis in the study of class and shows how new vibrant theories have appeared that will drive forward our understanding of history and sociology Multiculturalism, Postcoloniality, and Transnational Media Ella Shohat,Robert Stam,2003 Reflecting academic interests in nation race gender sexuality and other axes of identity this text gathers these concerns under the same umbrella contending that these issues must be discussed in relation to each other

because communities societies and nations do not exist autonomously From Slave Cabins to the White House Koritha Mitchell, 2020-08-31 Koritha Mitchell analyzes canonical texts by and about African American women to lay bare the hostility these women face as they invest in traditional domesticity Instead of the respectability and safety granted white homemakers black women endure pejorative labels racist governmental policies attacks on their citizenship and aggression meant to keep them in their place Tracing how African Americans define and redefine success in a nation determined to deprive them of it Mitchell plumbs the works of Frances Harper Zora Neale Hurston Lorraine Hansberry Toni Morrison Michelle Obama and others These artists honor black homes from slavery and post emancipation through the Civil Rights era to post racial America Mitchell follows black families asserting their citizenship in domestic settings while the larger society and culture marginalize and attack them not because they are deviants or failures but because they meet American standards Powerful and provocative From Slave Cabins to the White House illuminates the links between African American women s homemaking and citizenship in history and across literature Whiteness at the Abyss Derek Hook, 2025-01-29 Whiteness is an omnipresent term within research on race and racism This book differs from existing conceptualizations by adopting a psychoanalytic line of approach and by directing its attention to a particular socio historical instantiation of whiteness the investments fantasies and fears apparent within post apartheid South African contexts It foregrounds the notion of white anxiety which is conceptualized not only via notions of psychical temporality but with reference to the dystopian visions of the future ideas of inter generational guilt and fantasies of demise To posit an imagined end to whiteness is not of course an uncontroversial gesture the closing section of the book surveys the key themes antisemitism white Nationalism the trope of the race traitor in online attacks the author was subjected to This compelling work will appeal to all those with an interest in psychoanalytic approaches to race and racism and to anyone working in the areas of critical race and whiteness studies
