Racism After Race Relations:

Racism After 'race Relations' Robert Miles,1993 Discusses the shifting definitions of racism and challenges the common conception that racism is experienced exclusively by black people The book aims to occupy the centre of debate on the sociology of racism and ethnic studies After Race Antonia Darder,Rodolfo D. Torres,2004-08 Further investigations of what race and racism mean in America Race, Class, and the State in Contemporary Sociology Jack Niemonen,2002 Situating Wilson s work on race and class in the overall contexts of sociology and radical politics this book considers the contribution of and the debate surrounding each of his major works including The Declining Significance of Race The Truly Disadvantaged and When Work Disappears The crucial place of segregation in the critiques of Wilson s theory is emphasized and the role of the state is considered Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Racists Beware George J. Sefa Dei,2008-01-01 With admirable clarity and directness George Dei exposes the tendency towards the racial re feudalization of the contemporary public sphere in Canada and by association other post industrial societies He points to the enormous opportunity costs imposed on racial minorities in the new millennium as a consequence In RACISTS BEWARE UNCOVERING RACIAL POLITICS IN THE POSTMODERN SOCIETY Dei identifies and subjects to close scrutiny the new race bending logics of what he calls postmodern societies in which the dwellers of the suburbs and members of the itinerant white professional middle class the great beneficiaries of late capitalism and neoliberalization of the economy now have become the new social plaintiff turning the complaint of racial inequality and discrimination on the heads of those most oppressed If Gayatri Spivak asks Can the subaltern speak then Dei brilliantly poses the question When will Anglo dominant groups even critical ones ever listen This book is likely to provoke and influence discussion on racial antagonism for a long long time to come Protecting Multiculturalism John S. McCoy,2018-06-14 In a post 9 11 sea of social and political discord one state stands apart As an increasingly powerful anti Islamic social movement rises in the West Canada alone remains a viable multicultural state Employing survey and statistical data as well as a series of interviews conducted with religious leaders and policy officials Protecting Multiculturalism explores public safety and security concerns while pointing out the successes pitfalls and sometimes countervailing effects of government measures on Muslims in Canada Engaging with debates surrounding the cultural accommodation of diverse communities John McCoy focuses on two inter related themes at the heart of the crisis of multiculturalism social integration and national security Even in Canada McCoy argues Muslims can face acute xenophobia and racism problematic national security practices inimical politicians and other troubling warning signs Yet despite these challenges these diverse communities continue to display remarkable resilience An open minded and substantive reflection on the day to day realities for Muslim communities Protecting Multiculturalism seeks a way forward for the Canadian multicultural experiment a future that is marked by dignity and diversity in an increasingly fraught era Colorblindness, Post-raciality, and Whiteness in the United States Sherrow O. Pinder,2015-12-27 This book problematizes

the ways in which the discourses of colorblindness and post raciality are articulated in the age of Obama Pinder debunks the myth that race does not matter and reconsiders the presumptive hegemony of whiteness through the dialectics of visibility and invisibility of race

New Racial Landscapes Malcolm James, Helen Kim, Victoria Redclift, 2016-03-17 The chapters in this volume examine the racial and ethnic landscape of Britain in a contemporary era of neoliberalism and financial crisis A key aspect of neoliberal thought is the belief that we live in a post racial in which the problems of racism and xenophobia have been overcome However cultural retrenchment and coded xenophobia have been sweeping the political terrain accompanied by new racisms and new racial subjects that only close contextual analysis can unpick The scholarship contained in this collection challenges those who suggest that we live in a post racial time By focusing on particular locations in Britain at a particular moment the volume explores local stories of race and racism across changing sociopolitical ground This book is essential reading for scholars and students of race racism diaspora multiculturalism post colonialism transnationalism and post race This book was originally published as a special issue of Ethnic and Racial Studies

Ethnic Identity and Power Yali Zou, Enrique T. Trueba, Henry T. Trueba, 1998-04-02 A stimulating comparative examination of the educational ramifications of cultural identity with implications for public policy

Handbook of Cultural Geography Kay Anderson, 2003 The editors of this genuinely brilliant book seem to dare the reader to argue with them from the first page I would encourage everyone interested in cultural geography or in the cultural turn within a whole set of human geographies to do likewise ANNALS OF THE ASSOCIATION OF AMERICAN GEOGRAPHERS A richly plural and impassioned representation of cultural geography that eschews everything in the way of boundary drawing and fixity A re visioning of the field as a set of engagements with the world it contains a vibrant atlas of ever shifting possibilities Throbbing with commitment and undisciplined in the most positive sense of that term it is exactly what a handbook ought to be Professor Allan Pred Department of Geography University of California at Berkeley Ten sections with a detailed editorial introduction the Handbook of Cultural Geography presents a comprehensive statement of the relation between the cultural imagination and the geographical imagination Emphasising the intellectual diversity of the discipline the Handbook is a textured overview that presents a state of the art assessment of the key questions informing cultural geography while also looking at resonances between cultural geography and other disciplines

Citizenship, Identity and the Politics of Multiculturalism N. Meer, 2015-12-04 This book provides a fresh perspective on the emergence of public Muslim identities traversing issues of Muslim state engagement across government initiatives and church state relations across equalities agendas and the education system the courts and the media

Theater and Cultural Politics for a New World Chinua Thelwell, 2016-10-14 Theater and Cultural Politics for a New World presents a radical re examination of the ways in which demographic shifts will impact theater and performance culture in the twenty first century Editor Chinua Thelwell brings together the revealing insights of artists scholars and organizers to produce a unique intersectional conversation about the transformative potential of theater Opening with a case study of the New WORLD Theater and moving on to a fascinating range of essays the book looks at five main themes Changing demographics Future aesthetics Making institutional space Critical multiculturalism Polyculturalism

Xenophobia in South Africa Hashi Kenneth Tafira, 2017-10-18 This book is a vivid history of racism in post apartheid South Africa focusing on how colonialism still haunts black intraracial relationships In 2008 sixty four people died in a wave of anti immigrant violence in the Alexandra township of Johannesburg in the aftermath Hashi Kenneth Tafira went to Alexandra and undertook an ethnographic study of why this violence occurred Presented here his findings reframe xenophobia as a form of black on black racism unraveling the long history of colonial dehumanization and self abnegation that continues to shape South African black subjectivities Studying vernacular popular stereotypes gender and sexual politics Tafira investigates the dynamics of love relationships between black South African women and black immigrant men and pervasive myths about male sexuality economic competition and immigrants Pioneering and timely this book presents a cohesive picture of the new face of racism in the twenty first century From Farms to Foundries Kevin Searle, 2009 Yemenis constitute the oldest group of Muslim settlers in Britain This book explores the intersections of the themes of racism class and resistance in the life stories of Yemeni former steelworkers in Sheffield Britain s major steel producing city

Negotiating Racialised Identities Carol Reid, 2003 Drawing on a comparative socio historical overview of racialisation in the Australian and Canadian contexts and interviews with staff students and administrators in the AREP and NORTEP the author reveals how the tensions and contradictions of Indigenous teacher education can be productive Politics of Anti-Racism Education: In Search of Strategies for Transformative Learning George J. Sefa Dei, Mairi McDermott, 2013-12-02 This collection of essays invites readers to think through critical questions concerning anti racism education such as How does anti racism education centre race as an analytic and simultaneously work with multiple sites of oppression without reifying hierarchies of difference How can anti racism education be engaged to speak to historical questions of power and privilege within conventional schooling practices How do we recognize anti racism education in its many iterations In this book the authors explore the knowledge that constitutes anti racism education and the ways in which knowledge constitutive of anti racism education becomes embodied through particular pedagogues The authors are anti racism educators with experiences in diverse settings the chapters cover various fields and socio historic geographies address contemporary educational issues and are situated within personal political historical and philosophical conversations Anti racism education is a discursive stance and steeped in politics that shape and are shaped by everyday conversations theories and practices The essays in this collection work through many of the possibilities and limitations of engaging in counter hegemonic education for transformative learning Readers will discover lived experiences theory practice and critical reflexivity Diverse Millennial Students in College Fred A. Bonner II, aretha f. marbley, Mary F.

Howard-Hamilton,2023-07-03 While many institutions have developed policies to address the myriad needs of Millennial college students and their parents inherent in many of these initiatives is the underlying assumption that this student population is a homogeneous group This book is significant because it addresses and explores the characteristics and experiences of Millennials from an array of perspectives taking into account not only racial and ethnic identity but also cultural background sexual orientation and socioeconomic status differences all factors contributing to how these students interface with academe In providing a voice to voiceless populations of African American Asian American Bi Multi Racial Latino Native American and LGBT millennial college students this book engages with such questions as Does the term Millennial apply to these under represented students What role does technology pop culture sexual orientation and race politics play in the identity development for these populations Do our current minority development theories apply to these groups And ultimately are higher education institutions prepared to meet both the cultural and developmental needs of diverse minority groups of Millennial college students This book is addressed primarily to college and university administrators and faculty members who seek greater depth and understanding of the issues associated with diverse Millennial college student populations This book informs readers about the ways in which this cohort differs from their majority counterparts to open a dialogue about how faculty members and administrators can meet their needs effectively both inside and outside the classroom It will also be of value to student affairs personnel students enrolled in graduate level courses in higher education and other social science courses that explore issues of college student development and diversity particularly students planning to work with diverse Millennial college students in both clinical or practical work settings

The Racialisation of Disorder in Twentieth Century Britain Michael Rowe,2017-07-05 This book develops the concept of racialisation It argues that a full understanding of racialized discourse must pay attention to both the particular local circumstances in which they appear and well established themes which have unfolded over time An important aspect of the study is the examination of other discourses with which racialized ideas have co joined reflecting the way in which notions of race are socially constructed The final part of the thesis returns to debates of the 1980 s and argues that the racialisation of unrest in that decade was closely intertwined with conservative perspectives which sought to deny socio economic causes in favour of explanations based upon the supposed cultural or personal proclivities of those involved

Afterlife of Empire Jordanna Bailkin,2012-11-15 This book investigates how decolonization transformed British society in the 1950s and 1960s and examines the relationship between the postwar and the postimperial The

Zoroastrian Diaspora John R. Hinnells, 2005-04-28 What is the distinctive Zoroastrian experience and what is the common diasporic experience The Zoroastrian Diaspora is the outcome of twenty years of research and of archival and fieldwork in eleven countries involving approximately 250 000 miles of travel It has also involved a survey questionnaire in eight countries yielding over 1 840 responses This is the first book to attempt a global comparison of Diaspora groups in six continents Little has been written about Zoroastrian communities as far apart as China East Africa Europe America and Australia or on Parsis in Mumbai post Independence Each chapter is based on unused original sources ranging from nineteenth century archives to contemporary newsletters The book also includes studies of Zoroastrians on the Internet audio visual resources and the modern development of Parsinovels in English As well as studying the Zoroastrians for their own inherent importance this book contextualizes the Zoroastrian migrations within contemporary debates on Diaspora studies John R Hinnells examines what it is like to be a religious Asian in Los Angeles or London Sydney or Hong Kong Moreover he explores not only how experience differs from one country to another but also the differences between cities in the same country for example Chicago and Houston The survey data is used firstly to consider the distinguishing demographic features of the Zoroastrian communities in various countries and secondly to analyse different patterns of assimilation between different groups men and women and according to the level and type of education Comparisons are also drawn between people from rural and urban backgrounds and between generations in religious beliefs and practices including the preservation of secular culture
