Reading Freire And Habermas Critical Pedagogy And Transformative Social Change:

Reading Freire and Habermas Raymond Allen Morrow, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2002-04-27 In this book two well known scholars of critical educational studies provide a compelling introduction to the thoughts of Brazilian educator Paulo Freire and German critical theorist Jurgen Habermas The book compares their theories in depth and situates their thinking in relation to other social theories and philosophies of education The authors demonstrate that despite their differences these philosophers share crucial views on science society critical social psychology and educational praxis that are mutually illuminating and offer a new point of departure for a critical theory of education Critical Pedagogy in the Twenty-First Century Curry Malott, Brad J. Porfilio, 2011-03-01 This book simultaneously provides multiple analyses of critical pedagogy in the twenty first century while showcasing the scholarship of this new generation of critical scholar educators Needless to say the writers herein represent just a small subset of a much larger movement for critical transformation and a more humane less Eurocentric less paternalistic less homophobic less patriarchal less exploitative and less violent world This volume highlights the finding that rigorous critical pedagogical approaches to education while still marginalized in many contexts are being used in increasingly more classrooms for the benefit of student learning contributing however indirectly to the larger struggle against the barbarism of industrial neoliberal militarized destructiveness The challenge for critical pedagogy in the twenty first century from this point of view includes contributing to the manifestation of a truly global critical pedagogy that is epistemologically democratic and against human suffering and capitalist exploitation These rigorous democratic critical standards for measuring the value of our scholarship including this volume of essays should be the same that we use to critique and transform the larger society in which we live and work Freire and Critical Theorists Crystal Green, 2023-05-18 This book draws connections between Paulo Freire and some of the most influential critical scholars of the 20th century Each chapter pairs Freire with one of eleven critical scholars giving a biographical summary and expanding the shared themes in their work The critical theorists covered are Mikhail Bakhtin Pierre Bourdieu Enrique Dussel Frantz Fanon Michel Foucault Nancy Fraser Erich Fromm Antonio Gramsci Jurgen Habermas bell hooks and Iris Young The book takes up Freire s invitation to use his perspective as a lens into different contexts and offers an expanded look at Freire s contribution to critical theory While introducing the connections between Freire and other critical scholars the book reveals the importance of Freire s work to political sociology critical race theory decolonial theory feminist theories and critical linguistics Philosophy, Dialogue, and Education Alexandre Guilherme, W. John Morgan, 2017-10-19 Philosophy Dialogue and Education is an advanced introduction to nine key European social philosophers Martin Buber Mikhail Bakhtin Lev Vygotsky Hannah Arendt Emmanuel Levinas Maurice Merleau Ponty Simone Weil Michael Oakeshott and Jurgen Habermas This detailed yet highly readable work positions the socio political views of each philosopher within a European tradition of dialogical philosophy and reflects on the continuing theoretical relevance of the work of each to education generally and to critical pedagogy The discussion in each chapter is informed by materials drawn from various scholarly sources in English and is enriched by materials from other languages particularly French German and Russian This enhances the comparative European cultural perspective of the book and connects the work of each philosopher to wider intellectual political and social debates The book will appeal to academics postgraduates and researchers working in philosophy philosophy of education and in educational cultural and social studies more generally Advanced undergraduate students would also benefit from the book s discussion of primary sources and the authors suggestions for further reading

Lifelong Learning Jim Crowther, Peter Sutherland, 2008-03-25 This guide to lifelong learning brings together new writing from leading thinkers in the field to provide a critical summary of current developments in understanding adult learning and the societal context in which they are located

Socially-critical Environmental Education in Primary Classrooms Jane Edwards, 2015-10-26 The effectiveness of Education for Sustainable Development depends on the ability of schools and teachers to embrace pedagogies that reduce the gap between the rhetoric of education for the environment and the reality of classroom practices This book responds to the need to better understand the nature of the relationships between agency and structure that contribute to the development of educational rhetoric reality gaps in order to inform processes that most effectively facilitate pedagogical change This book explores the issues of pedagogical change through the experiences of Australian primary school teachers faced with the challenge of implementing an environmental education program in which young students were positioned as active participants in the social processes from which environmentally sustainable practices could be developed These teachers were required to adopt pedagogies that often represented the antithesis of their well established teacher directed approaches Through the use of Anthony Giddens Theory of Structuration this book provides unique perspectives of the teacher mediated manner in which certain elements of structure and agency interrelate to enable and constrain classroom practices essential understandings for school principals and educational policy developers who aim to effectively implement pedagogical change This book also demonstrates that the Theory of Structuration provides a valuable ontological research framework and provides social researchers with practical guidance for how to relate this theory to specific research issues

Comparative Education Robert F. Arnove, Carlos Alberto Torres, 2003 Bringing together some of the leading names in comparative and international education this second edition provides new perspectives on the dynamic interplay of global national and local forces as they shape education systems in specific contexts

Learning and Social Difference Peter Mayo, Carmel Borg, 2015-11-17 Exploring how global changes affect education today in the classroom and in local national and international contexts this book explores the future of education s capacity for effectiveness in multicultural and multilingual contexts The chapters deal with lifelong learning a critique immigration antiracist education parental involvement in schools national curricula Paulo Freire s legacy insights from the work of Lorenzo Milani and the School of Barbiana and Gramsci s writings on the school There are both theoretical and empirically grounded chapters in this volume Intergroup Dialogue in Higher Education: Meaningful Learning About Social Justice Ximena Zuniga, Biren (Ratnesh) A. Nagda, Mark Chesler, Adena Cytron-Walker, 2011-10-13 Intergroup dialogue promotes student engagement across cultural and social divides on college campuses through a face to face interactive and facilitated learning experience that brings together twelve to eighteen students from two or more social identity groups over a sustained period of time Students in intergroup dialogue explore commonalities and differences examine the nature and impact of discrimination power and privilege and find ways of working together toward greater inclusion equality and social justice Intergroup dialogue is offered as a cocurricular activity on some campuses and as a course or part of a course on others The practice of intergroup dialogue is considered a substantive and meaningful avenue for preparing college graduates with the knowledge commitment and skills essential for living and working in a diverse yet socially stratified society The research evidence supports the promise of intergroup dialogues to meet its educational goals consciousness raising building relationships across differences and conflicts and strengthening individual and collective capacities to promote social justice This volume outlines the theory practice and research on intergroup dialogue It also offers educational resources to support the practice of intergroup dialogue Addressing faculty administrators student affairs personnel students and practitioners this volume is a useful resource for anyone implementing intergroup dialogues in higher education This is the 4th issue of the 32nd volume of the Jossey Bass report series ASHE Higher Education Report Series Each monograph in the series is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education problem based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication

Globalization Hector Cuadra-Montiel, 2012-08-17 The book Globalization Education and Management Agendas takes the ambitious undertaking of presenting multidimensional approaches to those global issues It consists of 13 chapters divided into three sections Globalization and Education Globalization and Management Globalization and the Firm Its authors embody a global research culture One that is plural growing and dynamic as it is evidenced in their respective agendas and methodological approaches The value of this book lies in its diversity and its merit will be appreciated by a global community of scholars Decolonizing Foreign Language Education Donaldo Macedo, 2019-01-10 Decolonizing Foreign Language Education interrogates current foreign language and second language education approaches that prioritize white western thought Edited by acclaimed critical theorist and linguist Donaldo Macedo this volume includes cutting edge work by a select group of critical language scholars working to rigorously challenge the marginalization of foreign language education and the displacement of indigenous and non standard language varieties through the reification of colonial languages Each chapter confronts the hold of colonialism and imperialism that inform and shape the relationship between foreign language education and literary studies by asserting that a critical approach to applied linguistics is just as important a tool for FL ESL EFL educators as literature or linguistic theory Teaching across Cultures Perry Shaw, César Lopes, Joanna Feliciano-Soberano, Bob Heaton, 2021-11-05 The growth of the church around the world has led to an increased need for qualified theological educators both locally and from the global community Yet teaching cross culturally is fraught with overlooked challenges and lack of cultural sensitivity can undermine educators credibility distort their message and threaten the fruit of their ministry Teaching across Cultures is a deeply practical guidebook for teaching theology beyond one's own cultural context The first section of the book provides a rich theoretical framework for cross cultural engagement exploring the intersections of theology anthropology and pedagogy It is followed by over thirty country specific reflections as local contributors provide practical guidelines for living teaching and ministering within their contexts The only resource of its kind this book is straightforward and easy to use while providing a powerful reminder that transformative teaching has humility and careful listening at its core It is a must read for anyone embarking on the joyful journey of cross cultural ministry Simming Scott Magelssen, 2014-05-12 How simulated experiences from living history to emergency preparedness drills create meaning in performance International Practice Development in Health and Social Care Kim Manley, Valerie J. Rodriguez, William F. Pinar, 2007 Much of the focus of anti homophobic anti heterosexist educational theory curriculum and pedagogy has examined the impact of homophobia and heterosexism on gay lesbian bisexual and transgender GLBT students and teachers Such a focus has provided numerous theoretical and pedagogical insights and has informed important changes in educational policy Queering Straight Teachers Discourse and Identity in Education remains deeply committed to the social justice project of improving the lives of GLBT students and teachers However in contrast with much of the previous scholarship Queering Straight Teachers shifts the focus from an analysis of the GLBT Other to a critical examination of what it might mean in theory and in practice to queer straight teachers and the implications this has for challenging institutionalized heteronormativity in education This book will be useful in courses on educational foundations curriculum studies multicultural education queer theory gay and lesbian studies and critical theory Epistemologies of Ignorance in Education Erik Malewski,Nathalia Jaramillo,2011-03-01 Epistemologies of Ignorance provide educators a distinct epistemological view on questions of marginalization oppression relations of power and dominance difference philosophy and even death among our youth The authors of this edited collection challenge the ambivalence ignorance found in the construction of curriculum teaching practices research guidelines and policy mandates in our schools Further ignorance is also considered a necessary by product of knowledge production In this sense the authors explore not only issues of complicity but also issues of oppression in spite of educators liberatory intentions While this is the first systematic effort to transfer epistemologies of ignorance to the educational scene this movement has its roots in race class gender and sexuality studies particularly the work of Charles Mills Eve Kosofsky Sedgwick Shannon Sullivan and Nancy Tuana It is our unequivocal belief that while this is transformative and powerful scholarship the study of ignorance remains understudied and under theorized in education scholarship from curriculum studies and cultural foundations to science education and educational psychology This collection highlights without apology why this dangerous state of affairs cannot continue Theories Bridging Ethnography and Evaluation Melissa Rae Goodnight,Rodney Hopson,2024-11-29 Theories Bridging Ethnography and Evaluation the first of two volumes examines connections between ethnography and evaluation in educational spaces wrestling with pressing justice issues while elucidating three themes transformative intersectional and comparative for guiding contemporary inquiry committed to realizing equity International Handbook of Teaching and Learning in Health Promotion Marco Akerman,Ana Claudia Camargo Gonçalves Germani,2022-06-22 This international handbook brings together researchers and teachers from 25 countries of the five continents to share their experiences of teaching health promotion in undergraduate and graduate courses related to different health professions Chapter authors share teaching methodologies used in classes discuss the competencies students need to learn and indicate research opportunities Readers will be provided with real world examples of empowering participatory holistic intersectoral equitable and sustainable teaching learning strategies that aim to improve health and reduce health inequities This handbook was edited by an editorial board formed by 12 members of the International Union for Health Promotion and Education IUHPE from seven countries Brazil Belgium Canada Israel New Zealand Taiwan and UK and includes 45 chapters organized in seven thematic sections each one dedicated to a different aspect of the process of teaching and learning health promotion The health promotion curriculum Making health promotion relevant to practice Pedagogies for health promotion Special topics for health promotion Health promotion assessment and quality assurance Health promotion as a transformational practice Students reflections The International Handbook of Teaching and Learning in Health Promotion Practices and Reflections from Around the World aims to encourage a dialogue between teaching and learning practices carried out locally and the possibilities of replicating these experiences globally recognizing cultural differences and similarities This handbook is intended for a wide range of readers including education and training providers health professionals and health care students Due to its intersectoral and interdisciplinary approach it will also be of interest to teachers and students in other fields of the Social Sciences such as Urban Planning Social Work Public Policy International Relations and Population Studies
