Speaking to the Soul Vicki K. Black, 2009-09 The flourishing website EpiscopalCafe.org produced by the Diocese of Washington attracts several thousand visitors a day. Its popular column Speaking to the Soul which contains a concise well developed spiritual reflection for every day of the year draws from many different sources including scripture church history saints biographies books of prayers liturgies and ancient and contemporary theologians and spiritual writers. This daily reader grew out of that column. It follows the Episcopal Church's liturgical seasons and includes observation of major feast days as well as saints days. The reading for a particular saint's day might be taken from the saint's writings prayers or biography or might develop a theme such as martyrdom or growth in the spirit. Other readings focus on particular emphases of the seasons the Incarnation during Advent and Christmas spiritual disciplines during Lent or speak more generally to the Christian life prayer discipleship ministry the sacraments conflict and reconciliation and so on. Readings are taken from every century of the church's life with particular attention to how the writings and experiences of earlier Christians can shed light on the difficulties joys and concerns of the church today. How do African Christians culturally understand issues of theodicy and the nature of evil? What role does the devil play in African Pentecostalism? How does the biblical lament empower faith and foster hope for people living with HIV/AIDS? In what way does a theology of eschatological hope inform the spirituality and prayers of ordinary African believers in the midst of suffering? Inside the Whirlwind offers insight on these fascinating questions.
