Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development Polly

Stupples, Katerina Teaiwa, 2016-10-26 Visual artists craftspeople musicians and performers have been supported by the development community for at least twenty years yet there has been little grounded and critical research into the practices and politics of that support This new Routledge book remedies that omission and brings together varied perspectives from artists policy makers and researchers working in the Pacific Africa Latin America and Europe to explore the challenges and opportunities of supporting the arts in the development context The book offers a series of grounded analyses which cover strategies for the sustainability of arts enterprises innovative evaluation methods theoretical engagements with questions of art agency and social change artists entanglements with legal and structural frameworks processes of cultural mapping and the artist donor interface The creative economy is increasingly recognized as a driver of development and this book also investigates the contribution made by the arts to the processes of international development and considers how those processes can best be supported by development agencies Contemporary Perspectives on Art and International Development gives scholars of Development Studies Social and Cultural Geography Anthropology Cultural Policy Cultural Studies and Global Studies a contextually and thematically diverse range of insights into this emerging research field

Race-ing Art

History Kymberly N. Pinder, 2013-04-15 Race ing Art History is the first comprehensive anthology to place issues of racial representation squarely on the canvas Art produced by non Europeans has naturally been compared to Western art and its study which refers to a binary way of viewing both Each essay in this collection is a response to this vision to the distant mirror of looking at the other

Contemporary Art from Nigeria in the Global Markets Jonathan Adeyemi, 2022-12-07 This book brings together from four years of study on Nigerian contemporary art s internationalization The monograph integrates voices of African Nigerian artists and art market players into the growing discourse on the emerging art markets in the global South It explores the logic of competition and dynamics of power relations in the global markets focusing on the internationalization of contemporary art forms from peripheral regions The book confirms that the internationalization of contemporary art form from Nigeria is limited due to systematic marginalization in the artistic field which in this case based on postcolonialism and debilitating socio economic factors such as outmoded art education unstructured support system and weak mechanism for local validation and an inefficient political framework for art governance It will therefore be useful to students and researchers in the sociology of art art market studies art history and culture polity
