Reading Rhetorical Texts James Robertson Andrews, Michael C. Leff, Robert Terrill, 1997 This book is designed to orient the beginning student to the nature and function of rhetorical criticism to acquaint the student with those elements in the rhetorical situation that warrant serious attention and to teach the student a useful strategy with which to begin to practice criticism The focus of this book is clearly on public speeches Along with mastering basic concepts the beginning critic will also be given the opportunity to begin grappling with fundamental and enduring critical issues The authors have included in this book texts and examples of how critics have studied those texts They also offer two historical texts along with their own critical readings of those texts The book then presents two texts and illustrations of the various critical responses to these texts The first text is Richard Nixon s Address on the Vietnam War and the second is Jesse Jackson s Common Ground and Common Sense Finally several examples of critical readings by rhetorical scholars illustrate different ways to approach texts Pref Reading Between Texts Danna Nolan Fewell, 1992-01-01 Intertextuality the reading of one text in terms of another is a diverse practice It is a central and prevalent subject in poststructuralist literary theory Reading between Texts is the first book to address intertextuality as it relates specifically to interpretation of the Hebrew Bible The contributors bring together lucid theoretical discussion and sophisticated interpretations from a variety of backgrounds offering biblical scholars and students a helpful and thorough introduction to the issues and possibilities of intertextuality The Literary Currents in Biblical Interpretation series explores current trends within the discipline of biblical interpretation by dealing with the literary qualities of the Bible the play of its language the coherence of its final form and the relationships between text and readers Biblical interpreters are being challenged to take responsibility for the theological social and ethical implications of their readings This series encourages original readings that breach the confines of traditional biblical criticism Rhetoric's Questions, Reading and Interpretation Peter Mack, 2017-08-20 This book aims to help readers interpret and reflect on their reading more effectively It presents doctrines of ancient and renaissance rhetoric an education in how to write well as questions or categories for interpreting one's reading The first chapter presents the questions Later chapters use rhetorical theory to bring out the implications of and suggest possible answers to the questions about occasion and audience chapter 2 structure and disposition 3 narrative 4 argument 5 further elements of content such as descriptions comparisons proverbs and moral axioms dialogue and examples 6 and style 7 Chapter eight describes ways of gathering material formulating arguments and writing about the texts one reads The conclusion considers the wider implications of taking a rhetorical approach to reading The investigation of rhetoric s questions is interspersed with analyses of texts by Chaucer Sidney Shakespeare Fielding and Rushdie using the guestions The text is intended for university students of literature especially English literature and rhetoric and their teachers Readings in Rhetorical Fieldwork Samantha Senda-Cook, Aaron Hess, Michael Middleton, Danielle Endres, 2018-09-05 Readings in Rhetorical Fieldwork compiles foundational articles highlighting the development of fieldwork in rhetorical criticism Presenting a wide variety of approaches the volume begins with a section establishing the starting points for the development of fieldwork in rhetorical criticism and then examines five topics Space Public Memory Publics and Counterpublics Advocacy and Activism and Science Technology and Medicine Within these sections readers evaluate a full spectrum of methods from interviews to oral histories to participant observation This volume is invaluable for advanced undergraduate and graduate students of rhetorical criticism rhetorical fieldwork and qualitative methods looking for a comprehensive overview of the development of rhetorical fieldwork Reading Memory and Identity in the Texts of Medieval European Holy Women M. Cotter-Lynch, B. Herzog, 2012-03-14 Examines a range of texts commemorating European holy women from the ninth through fifteenth centuries Explores the relationship between memorial practices and identity formation Draws upon much of the recent scholarly interest in the nature and uses of The ^AOxford Handbook of Rhetorical Studies Michael J. and an audience s intentions is complex but need not preclude mutual engagement This philosophical investigation challenges existing literary and rhetorical perspectives on intention and offers a new framework for understanding the negotiation of meaning It describes how an audience s intentions affect their interpretations shows how audiences negotiate meaning when faced with a writer s undecipherable intentions and defines the scope of understanding within rhetorical situations Introducing a concept of intention into literary analysis that supersedes existing rhetorical theory Arabella Lyon shows how the rhetorics of I A Richards Wayne Booth and Stanley Fish as well as the hermeneutics of Hans Georg Gadamer fail to account for the complex interactions of author and audience Using Kenneth Burke's concepts of form motive and purpose she builds a more complex notion of intention than those usually found in literary studies then employs her theory to describe how philosophers read Wittgenstein's narratives metaphors and reversals in argument Lyon argues that our differences in intention prevent consistency in interpretations but do not stop our discussions deliberations and actions She seeks to acknowledge difference and the communicative problems it creates while demonstrating that difference is normal and does not end our engagement with each other Intentions combines recent work in philosophy literary criticism hermeneutics and rhetoric in a highly imaginative way to construct a theory of intention for a postmodern rhetoric It recovers and renovates central concepts in rhetorical theory not only intention but also deliberation politics and judgment

Remaking Transitional Justice in the United States James Edward Beitler III,2012-11-09 Remaking Transitional Justice in the United States The Rhetoric of the Greensboro Truth and Reconciliation Commission explores rhetorical attempts to authorize the Greensboro Truth and Reconciliation Commission a grassroots U S based truth commission created in 2004 toredress past injustices in the city Through detailed rhetorical analyses the book demonstrates that the development of the field of transitional justice has given rise to a transnational rhetorical tradition that provides those working in the field with series of enabling constraints The book then shows how Greensboro stakeholders attempted to reaccentuate this rhetorical tradition in their rhetorical performances to construct authority and bring about justice even as the tradition shaped their discourse in ways that limited the scope of their responses Calling attention to the rhetorical interdependence among practitioners of transitional justice this study offers insights into the development of transitional justice in the United States and in grassroots contexts in other liberal democracies The volume is a relevant guide to scholars and practitioners of transitional justice as it brings into relief mechanisms of transitional justice that are frequently overlooked namely rhetorical mechanisms It also speaks to any readers who may be interested in the communicative strategies tactics that may be employed by grassroots transitional justice initiatives Films as Rhetorical Texts Janice D. Cunningham, 2020-01-01 Understanding Rhetoric A Guide to Critical Reading and Argumentation is a composition textbook that outlines three essential skills rhetoric argument and source based writing geared towards newcomers and advanced students alike Though comprehensive in its coverage the book s focus is a simple one how to move beyond a gut reaction while reading to an articulation of what is effective and what is not while explicitly answering the most important question of Why This text gets at this central concern in two fundamental ways First the text teaches composition as a cumulative process coaching you how to guestion challenge and expand on not just the readings you hold in your hands but also how to interrogate the internal processes of writing and thinking The book s blend of composition methods detail the cross point of product and process to turn reading and writing from a matter of coming up with answers to questions to learning what type of questions need to be asked in the first place The right questions the text argues are fundamentally rhetorical in nature Second the content of the practice based chapters is framed into a larger mesh of intellectual history to show how the writing and thinking you are doing today is continuous with a long history of writing instruction that goes back to the ancient world This book provides equal representation from classical and contemporary theory with the recognition that theory cannot be fully grasped without practice and practice cannot be fully understood without its theoretical antecedent After all you can t write outside the box until you know where the box is and what it looks like Reading Rhetorical Theory Barry Brummett, 2000 An anthology of original readings Reading Rhetorical Theory uses selections from primary sources to track the history of thinking Two features of this book enable it to stand apart from other texts on rhetorical theory First its unique mix of readings blends traditional authors such as Aristotle Plato and Kenneth Burke with popular modern authors such as Karlyn Kohrs Campbell Second the editorial introductions develop a consistent and unified perspective that allows for differing interpretations of rhetorical theory at the same time that it ties together the history of the subject Reading Rhetorical Theory is appropriate in graduate or undergraduate courses that cover the history of rhetorical theory by using primary sources to track the history of thinking about human symbolic influence CliffsTestPrep Praxis II: English Subject Area Assessments (0041, 0042, 0043, 0048, 0049) Diane E Kern, 2011-11-30 A veteran hockey writer takes on hockey culture and the NHL addressing the games most controversial issue Whether its on ice fist fights or head shots into the glass hockey has become a nightly news spectacle with players pummeling and bashing each other across the ice like drunken gladiators And while the NHL may actually condone on ice violence as a ticket draw diehard hockey fan and expert Adam Proteau argues against hockeys transformation into a thuggish blood sport In Fighting the Good Fight Proteau sheds light on the many perspectives of those in and around the game with interviews of current and former NHL stars coaches general managers and league executives as well as medical experts One of the most well known media figures on the hockey scene today famous for his funny feisty observations as a writer for the Toronto Star and The Hockey News and commentator on CBC radio and TV Adam Proteau is also one of the few mainstream media voices who is vehemently anti fighting in hockey Not only is his book a plea to the games gatekeepers to finally clamp down on the runaway violence that permeates the sport even at its highest level he offers realistic suggestions on ways to finally clean the game up Includes interviews with medical experts on head injuries and concussions as well as with other members of the media The author not only wages an attack on the value of fighting in hockey but also on the establishment hockey culture Covering the most polarizing issue in hockey today Fighting the Good Fight gives hockey fans and sports lovers everywhere a reason to stamp their feet and whistle at a rare display of eloquence and common sense WebCatUpdater Profile 5 1326742169646
