transcendence Wojciech Tworek reveals the importance of time and history in his teachings Tworek argues that the worldly dimensions of Shneur Zalman's thought were largely responsible for the rapid growth of Habad at the turn of the nineteenth century and fostered its transformation from an elitist circle into a mass movement Tworek's readings of Hebrew and Yiddish sources demonstrate the implications of these ideas not only for male scholars but also for non scholars Jewish women and even non Jews Philosophical and kabbalistic thought joined together to form a model of religious experience attractive to a broad audience laying an ideological foundation for the missionary messianism that was to become a hallmark of Habad in the twentieth century
