The Oxford History of Life Writing: Volume 2. Early Modern Alan Stewart, 2018-05-10 The Oxford History of Life Writing Volume 2 Early Modern explores life writing in England between 1500 and 1700 and argues that this was a period which saw remarkable innovations in biography autobiography and diary keeping that laid the foundations for our modern life writing The challenges wrought by the upheavals and the sixteenth century English Reformation and seventeenth century Civil Wars moulded British and early American life writing in unique and lasting ways While classical and medieval models continued to exercise considerable influence new forms began to challenge them The English Reformation banished the saints lives that dominated the writings of medieval Catholicism only to replace them with new lives of Protestant martyrs Novel forms of self accounting came into existence from the daily moral self accounting dictated by strands of Calvinism to the daily financial self accounting modelled on the new double entry book keeping This volume shows how the most ostensibly private journals were circulated to build godly communities how women found new modes of recording and understanding their disrupted lives how men started to compartmentalize their lives for public and private consumption The volume doesn t intend to present a strict chronological progression from the medieval to the modern nor to suggest the triumphant rise of the fact based historical biography Instead it portrays early modern England as a site of multiple sometimes conflicting possibilities for life writing all of which have something to teach us about how the period understood both the concept of a life and what it mean to write a life

Bernstein, 2020-05-04 This book is Volume II of a three volume book plus accompanying website www.bookaboutbooks.com which adds to subjects already in the book or presents some books and subjects not contained in the books The other volumes are available from the same booksellers as this volume Note this 2024 publication date is a corrected version of the original version of this volume published in 2020 A Book about Books discusses what nonfiction books and subjects the author believes are important to know about This book tries to point to problems in how we live and to see if books have any answers Even though the books are complete the author will update the website periodically in the future E H Bernstein is a former librarian turned author The subtitle of the book describes the author's objective A handbook in three volumes to a choice of essential books writers and subjects in order to understand the world we live in about big questions and possible answers about books and writers that may improve people's lives about neglected writers and other books and subjects A Book about Books attempts to share what the author has learned from nearly 50 years of nonfiction reading and to provide the reader with samples of the most important authors and subjects from that reading While the book is based on research it is intended to be a handbook or guide by trying to make that research understandable to the general reader and to students and for teachers by pointing to what the author believes is missing from today's education A curriculum proposal for college teachers is on the author's website Note about how the volumes are related each chapter is on a separate subject So the chapters can be read individually but the full message requires reading all the volumes Volume I is important but preliminary to the more important Volumes II and III Note also that the book is not just about books since other sources are also mentioned Note that the author believes we should listen to many voices so the book draws on many types of writers from different times and countries The author says A contemporary writer once said that one of the purposes of writing is that books should be useful I hope that my book will be of use

Reading Vasari Anne B. Barriault, 2005-12-10 Giorgio Vasari chronicled the story of Renaissance art in Italy as it unfolded during the 14th century This book looks at recent disputes over what is fact or fiction or who may have read Vasari's editions when they were first published It covers all aspects of Vasari's criticism from architecture and art to biography and travelogue

Gendered Violence in Biblical Narrative Esther Brownsmith, 2024-04-15 This book uses three examples of violent biblical stories about women explored through the lens of conceptual metaphor theory in relation to culinary language used within these texts to examine wider issues of gender and sexual violence in the Hebrew Bible Utilising the tools of conceptual metaphor theory feminist criticism and classic textual analysis Brownsmith interrogates some of the most troubling biblical passages for women neither by redeeming them nor by condemning them but by showing how they are intrinsically shaped by the enduring metaphor of woman as food in the Hebrew Bible ancient Near East and beyond The volume explores three main case studies the Levite's concubine Judges 19 Tamar and Amnon 2 Sam 13 and the life and death of Jezebel primarily 1 Kings 21 and 2 Kings 9 All depict violence toward a woman as perpetrated by a man interwoven with culinary language that cues their metaphorical implications In these sensitive but critical readings of violent tales Brownsmith also draws on a broad range of interdisciplinary connections from Ricoeur to ancient Ugaritic epics to modern comic books Through this approach readers gain new insights into how the Bible shapes its narratives through conceptual metaphors and specifically how it makes meaning out of women s brutalized bodies Gendered Violence in Biblical Narrative The Devouring Metaphor is suitable for students and scholars working on gender and sexual violence in the Hebrew Bible and the ancient Near East more broadly as well as those working on conceptual metaphor theory and feminist criticism
