Materiality in Modernist

Short Fiction Laura Oulanne, 2021-05-30 Materiality in Modernist Short Fiction provides a fresh approach to reading material things in modern fiction accounting for the interplay of the material and the cultural This volume investigates how Djuna Barnes Katherine Mansfield and Jean Rhys use the short story form to evoke the material world as both living and lived and how the spaces they create for challenging gendered social norms can also be nonanthropocentric spaces for encounters between the human and the nonhuman Using the unique knowledge created by literary works to spark new conversations between phenomenology cognitive studies and new materialisms complemented with a feminist perspective this book explores how literature can touch the basic experience of being in feeling and making sense of a material world that is itself alive and active From a sensitive reading of how three women used the material world to make their readers see feel and question the norms shaping our experience this volume draws a theory of reading affective materiality that illuminates modernism and the short story form but also reaches beyond them The Open Access version of this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives CC BY NC ND 4.0 license

New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare James Newlin, James W. Stone, 2023-07-14 It has been over two decades since the publication of the last major edited collection focused on psychoanalysis and early modern culture In Shakespeare studies the New Historicism and cognitive psychology have hindered a dynamic conversation engaging depth oriented models of the mind from taking place The essays in New Psychoanalytic Readings of Shakespeare Cool Reason and Seething Brains seek to redress this situation by engaging a broad spectrum of psychoanalytic theory and criticism from Freud to the present to read individual plays closely These essays show how psychoanalytic theory helps us to rethink the plays history of performance their treatment of gender sexuality and race their view of history and trauma and the ways in which they anticipate contemporary psychodynamic treatment Far from simply calling for a conventional return to Freud the essays collected here initiate an exciting conversation between Shakespeare studies and psychoanalysis in the hopes of radically transforming both disciplines It is time to listen once again to seething brains

T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and the Modern Sciences John P. Slattery, 2020-10-01 This handbook surveys the many relationships between scientific studies of the world around us and Christian concepts of the Divine from the ancient Greeks to modern ecotheology From Augustine to Hildegard of Bingen Genesis to Frederick Douglass and physics to sociology this volume opens the intersections of Christian theology and science to new concepts voices and futures The central goal of the handbook is to bring new perspectives to the foreground of Christian theological engagement with science and to highlight the many engagements today that are not often identified as science theology discussions The handbook thus includes several aspects not found in previous handbooks on the same topic significant representation from the three major branches of Christianity Orthodox Roman Catholic and Protestant multiple essays on areas of modern science not traditionally part of the theology and science dialogue such as discussions of race medicine and sociology a collection of essays on historical theologians approaches to nature and science T Catholic Protestant and Orthodox surveys of theology science scholarship in the 20th and 21st centuries and ten explorations in Christian theology today from Einsteinian physics to decolonial sociology The 24 chapters than span the volume offer the reader whether scholar student or layperson an essential resource for any future conversations around science and Christian theology Readings for a History of Anthropological Theory Paul A. Erickson,Liam Donat Murphy,2013-01-01 This comprehensive anthology offers over 40 readings that are critical to the understanding of anthropological theory and the development of anthropology as an academic discipline The fourth edition maintains a strong focus on the four field roots of the discipline in North America but has been reorganized with a new section on twenty first century theory including coverage of postcolonial and public anthropology New key terms and introductions accompany each reading and a revamped glossary makes the book more student friendly Used on its own or together with the overview text A History of Anthropological Theory Fourth Edition this anthology offers a flexible and unrivaled introduction to anthropological theory that reflects not only the history but also the changing nature of the discipline today For additional resources visit the Teaching Theory page at www.utpteachingculture.com
