This volume focuses on naval leadership and ethics with respect to the individual leader and how his or her values and actions affect military cohesion mission success and the profession of arms Moving beyond the right and wrong of personal ethics to examine the broader field of professional military ethics this carefully selected collection of relevant materials from the Naval Institute s vast collection of articles recognizes the range of experience perspectives and opinions that are found in the sea services and argues that diversity does not preclude acceptance of common core values and standards of performance within any unit Included are articles by Adm Arleigh Burke and Vice Adm James B Stockdale that speak from long personal experience regarding the topics of integrity and moral courage Arms and the University Donald Alexander Downs, Ilia Murtazashvili, 2012-02-27 The gap between the U S military and society has widened in recent years posing problems for the constitutional order The gap is especially acute in major universities Arms and the University probes various dimensions of the tense relationship between the military and the university Developing and applying a theory of civic and liberal education this book shows how some military presence on campus can contribute to the diversity of ideas and the education of all students Sailors, Statesmen and the Implementation of Naval Strategy Agustin Guimerá, Richard Harding, Agustín Guimerá Ravina, 2024 Explores the varied relationship between political leaders and naval experts from the 16th to 21st centuries The shaping of national defence strategies is particularly difficult in the case of navies Few political leaders have naval experience in contrast to the case of armies where political leaders and army commanders have often shared similar social and professional backgrounds Bringing together historical examples from Britain the United States Spain and France the book provides insights into this key relationship The authors highlight factors which have made for successful relationships between political leaders and naval experts showing how changing circumstances have affected the dialogue and underlines the importance of good exchange of knowledge expertise and understanding for successful policy making and strategic outcomes Sea power continues to be crucial in the present world s increasingly unstable geopolitical situation the mutual exchange of expertise between naval experts and political leaders is as important as ever and the risk of political sea blindness remains high This book s historical examples provide good guidance on how to manage the relationship between political leaders and naval experts well Naval War College Review , 1982 Annual Catalog ... University of Idaho, 1952 Naval War College Review Naval War College (U.S.), 1982 Awakening Warrior Timothy L. Challans, 2010-03-10 2007 CHOICE Outstanding Academic Title Awakening Warrior argues for a revolution in the ethics of warfare for the American War Machine those political and military institutions that engage the world with physical force Timothy L Challans focuses on the systemic institutional level of morality rather than bemoaning the moral shortcomings of individuals He asks What are the limits of individual moral agency What kind of responsibility do individuals have when considering institutional moral error How is it that neutral or benign moral actions performed by individuals can have such catastrophic morally negative effects from a systemic perspective Drawing upon and extending the ethical theories of Kant Dewey and Rawls Challans makes the case for an original set of moral principles to guide ethical action on the battlefield Challans s call for reformation combined with a demand for a new set of moral principles to govern the ethical behavior on the battlefield is certain to garner the attention and ire of many readers and military leaders Parameters This is an important book that needs to be read and taken seriously If it is it could be as revolutionary as its subtitle suggests CHOICE
