Solidarities Atalia Omer, Joshua Lupo, 2022-12-15 The contributors to this original volume provide a new and nuanced approach to studying how discourses of religion shape public domains in sites of political contestation and broken solidarities Our public discourse is saturated with intractable debates about religion race gender and nationalism Examples range from Muslim women and headscarves to Palestine Israel and to global anti Black racism along with other pertinent issues We need fresh thinking to navigate the questions that these debates raise for social justice and solidarity across lines of difference In Religion and Broken Solidarities the contributors provide powerful reflections and wisdom to guide how we can approach these questions with deep ethical commitments intersectional sensibilities and intellectual rigor Religion and Broken Solidarities traces the role of religious discourse in unrealized moments of solidarity between marginalized groups who ostensibly share similar aims Religion the contributors contend cannot be separated from national racial gendered and other ways of belonging These modes of belonging make it difficult for different minoritized groups to see how their struggles might benefit from engagement with one another The four chapters which interpret historical and contemporary events with a sharp and critical lens examine accusations of antisemitism and anti Muslim racism in the Women s March in Washington DC the failure of feminists in Iran and Turkey to realize a common cause because of nationalist discourse concerning religiosity and secularity Black Catholics seeking to overcome the problems of modernity in the West and the disjunction between the Palestinian and Mizrahi cause in Palestine Israel Together these analyses show that overcoming constraints to solidarity requires alternative imaginaries to that of the modern nation state Contributors Atalia Omer Joshua Lupo Perin E Grel Juliane Hammer Ruth Carmi Brenna Moore and Melani McAlister      Windows XP Home Edition David Pogue, 2002
