Real Lives Real Times:

Real Life in Real Time Johanna Brewer, Bo Ruberg, Amanda L. L. Cullen, Christopher J. Persaud, 2023-08-22 The cultural ramifications of online live streaming including its effects on identity and power in digital spaces Some consider live streaming the broadcasting of video and or audio footage live online simply an internet fad or source of entertainment yet it is at the center of the digital mediation of our lives In this edited volume Johanna Brewer Bo Ruberg Amanda L L Cullen and Christopher J Persaud present a broad range of essays that explore the cultural implications of live streaming paying special attention to how it is shifting notions of identity and power in digital spaces The diverse set of international authors included represent a variety of perspectives from digital media studies to queer studies from human computer interaction to anthropology and more While important foundational work has been carried out by game studies scholars many other elements of streaming practices remain to be explored To deepen engagement with diversity and social justice the editors have included a variety of voices on such topics as access gender sexuality race disability harassment activism and the cultural implications of design aesthetics Live streaming affects a wide array of behaviors norms and patterns of communication But above all it lets participants observe and engage with real life as it unfolds in real time Ultimately these essays challenge us to look at both the possibilities for harm and the potential for radical change that live streaming presents

Real Life. Real God. Real Hope! Shelli Prindle, 2011-03 People are looking for hope and a way out of mundane living Genuine hope as opposed to wishful thinking is based on a real God who superintends all of life A Jesus view of reality is critical to grasping the hope we have in God a hope which enables us to victoriously approach each moment as it comes Real Life Real God Real Hope transparently deals with the difficult stuff of life and the answer found in Jesus Christ Shelli Prindle hits reality head on with solid biblical truth Her candor emotion and firm apologetic approach will lift the core of you to the height for which you were designed I know few people who have such an absolute passion for the Word of God who also have the ability to make its truth real and livable Jennifer Marsalese Children s Ministry Director Cornerstone Ministries Real Life Real God Real Hope offers the soul a refreshing drink into the reality and truth of God s Word and its intersection with everyday life Shelli Prindle insightfully uncovers the precious truths of scriptures while at the same time offers practical application for all who are on the journey of life and who daily look for hope Dr David Hegedus Associate Director Association of Christian Schools International As Founder and President of Hope and Passion Ministries Shelli Prindle is a dynamic voice for the intellectual credibility and implications of a Christian worldview for every sphere of life Shelli has been enthusiastically sharing God s Word with people of all ages since her youth for more than 25 years For over a decade she has applied biblical principles to Christian schooling as both a teacher and administrator Shelli is a popular and engaging seminar and conference speaker with recognized expertise in Christian leadership apologetics and education She resides in Irwin PA with her husband Jeff In Real Life Jon Mitchell, 2014-12-16 Technology can help us with some of our most difficult work It can also offer us endless distractions Can technology help us as individuals and communities in our most important task that of being a good person Jon Mitchell sets out to identify and explore the ways in which we can develop a more thoughtful relationship with technology Rather than only using our technological devices as a medium for connecting with the world he recommends we rethink our relationship with technology and see it as a resource that allows us to have a more intimate and personal relationship with ourselves and the world around us Mitchell offers concrete practices for streamlining and improving the way we use technology in our daily lives Writing in a relatable conversational easy to read style Mitchell draws on his years of experience as a tech journalist and mindfulness practitioner to propose a rethinking of both the design of technology and its use

Worst-Case Execution Time Aware Compilation Techniques for Real-Time Systems Paul Lokuciejewski, Peter Marwedel, 2010-09-24 For real time systems the worst case execution time WCET is the key objective to be considered Traditionally code for real time systems is generated without taking this objective into account and the WCET is computed only after code generation Worst Case Execution Time Aware Compilation Techniques for Real Time Systems presents the first comprehensive approach integrating WCET considerations into the code generation process Based on the proposed reconciliation between a compiler and a timing analyzer a wide range of novel optimization techniques is provided Among others the techniques cover source code and assembly level optimizations exploit machine learning techniques and address the design of modern systems that have to meet multiple objectives Using these optimizations the WCET of real time applications can be reduced by about 30% to 45% on the average This opens opportunities for decreasing clock speeds costs and energy consumption of embedded processors The proposed techniques can be used for all types real time systems including automotive and avionics IT systems
