Religion And The Making Of Society Essays In Social Theology:

Religion and the Making of Society Charles Davis, 1993-11-18 In this book a leading contemporary theologian provides an account and a critique of contemporary thinking on the function of religion in society The chief questions of the day are taken up expounded with lucidity and clarity and assessed for their contributions to social theory. The practical relevance of the theoretical analyses emerges especially in a critique of Michael Novak's attempt to make democratic capitalism an ideal and in an original attempt to ground religious hope in communicative rationality Foucault, Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue Henrique Pinto, 2020-11-25 Foucault Christianity and Interfaith Dialogue develops a new model for interfaith dialogue using the work of the French historian of ideas Michel Foucault The author argues that it is the injustice done to the Other by Roman Catholic Protestant and other centred and unitary models of religious pluralism that allows the introduction of Foucault's de centring of transcendence and human reason as an alternative model for understanding religious diversity and the role it ought to play in the constitution of the self and the making of society This Foucaultian approach provides a new direction for interfaith dialogue in the modern world and leads to an ethical rather than a nihilistic position while fostering a non unitary theology of religious pluralism and an open textured process of self transformation The author s original and imaginative application and expansion of Foucault's concept of the More from The Archaeology of Knowledge 1969 makes important and original contributions to academic work on Foucault and contemporary theology Blondel, Social Catholicism, and Action Française Peter J. Bernardi, 2009 This work casts light on contemporary arguments over social Catholicism and the believer's role in society by illuminating a similar dispute among French Catholics during the Modernist Crisis 1909 1914 Church, State, and Society in Malawi James Tengatenga, 2006 Missionary history in Africa asserts that political history on the continent cannot be understood without an in depth understanding of the workings of the missions missionary activities and ideologies were central to political consciousness The Anglican Church was involved in society education health and politics right from its first foray into Malawi This study considers the nature of the involvement of that Church in society and how it engaged with the State from its genesis in the colonial period through the post independence period to the new post Banda political dispensation in 1994 It illustrates how the Church was involved on both sides of the independence struggle and interrogates why it fell conspicuously silent thereafter The Oxford Handbook of Divine Revelation Balázs M. Mezei, Francesca Aran Murphy, Kenneth Oakes, 2021-06-08 The Oxford Handbook of Divine Revelation offers a systemic approach to the notion of revelation in its various theoretical contexts It provides in depth coverage of the theoretical and historical fields in which the notion of revelation is discussed It does not reflect the views of a certain school under the horizon of contemporary discussions it offers the broadest understanding of the notion Its main parts include biblical theological philosophical historical comparative and scientific cultural approaches The contributors discuss the most important contemporary questions in theology philosophy and science The Handbook offers a unique overview of the key problems of revelation an overview missing from scholarly literature Featuring contributions from leading scholars the collection opens up further possibilities of scholarly work and spiritual vistas concerning the notion and the fact of divine revelation The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence Mark Juergensmeyer, Margo Kitts, Michael K. Jerryson, 2015-11 Violence has always played a part in the religious imagination from symbols and myths to legendary battles from colossal wars to the theater of terrorism The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence surveys intersections between religion and violence throughout history and around the world The forty original essays in this volume include overviews of major religious traditions showing how violence is justified within the literary and theological foundations of the tradition how it is used symbolically and in ritual practice and how social acts of violence and warfare have been justified by religious ideas. The essays also examine patterns and themes relating to religious violence such as sacrifice and martyrdom which are explored in cross disciplinary or regional analyses and offer major analytic approaches from literary to social scientific studies The contributors to this volume innovative thinkers who are forging new directions in theory and analysis related to religion and violence provide novel insights into this important field of studies By mapping out the whole field of religion and violence The Oxford Handbook of Religion and Violence will prove an authoritative source for students and scholars for years to come The Bloomsbury Guide to Christian Spirituality Peter Tyler, Richard Woods, 2012-08-30 A scholarly yet accessible introduction to Christian Spirituality What is Christian Spirituality How does it relate to non Christian traditions Where does it arise from and where is it going These are some of the key questions addressed in this innovative new guide from Bloomsbury The Bloomsbury Guide to Christian Spirituality is written by foremost academics in their fields who distill their knowledge for a wide intelligent audience They do this with huge skill and attention to the needs of modern readers Appealing equally to those studying the tradition for religious formation or those wishing to acquaint themselves with this fascinating subject this guide is destined to become an essential text in the field

Christian Justice and Public Policy Duncan B. Forrester,1997-08-28 Disagreements about justice are not simply academic matters. They create problems for practice and for policy making In a morally fragmented society in which nobody knows what justice is issues such as wages policy punishment and poverty become particularly difficult to handle People striving to act justly are often uncertain how this might be done Secular theories such as those of Rowls Hayek Habermas and modern feminist theorists examined here give some guidance for problems of justice that arise on the ground but have serious limitations. This book argues that Christian theology although it can no longer claim to provide a comprehensive theory of justice can provide insights into justice theological fragments which give illumination challenge some aspects of the conventional wisdom and contribute to the building of just communities in which people may flourish in mutuality and hope

Religion in Higher Education Sophie Gilliat-Ray,2019-07-16 This title was first published in 2000 The place of religion in universities and institutes of higher education has become increasingly topical and contested in recent years largely due to the growth of religious diversity on campus Issues such as shared worship spaces equal opportunities and the management of inter religious conflict concern university administrators and students alike Based on primary empirical research this book indicates the need for clear guidelines on these issues and provides the data to inform policy making Offering the first study of the practical and sociological implications of the multi faith campus this book provides a context for examining some of the dynamics of religious diversity in Britain more generally as well as providing a useful analysis for the wider international context Key themes covered include religion in institutions inter faith relations the changing roles of religious professionals The Public Forum and Christian Ethics Robert secularisation and resacralisation and religion youth and identity Gascoigne, 2001 This book addresses the question of the communication of Christian ethics in the public forum of liberal pluralist societies Drawing on debates in philosophy theology and sociological theory it relates the problem of communication to fundamental questions about the nature of liberal societies and the identity of Christian faith and the Christian community With particular emphasis on Kantian and neo Kantian ethics it explores the link between autonomy and community in liberal societies The theology of communio expressed in revealed Christian traditions can reconcile autonomy and community Any Christian attempt to communicate this vision must also reflect on Christianity's own identity especially the ways in which its own self consciousness grows in critical interaction with secularity In this light Christian ethical communication is both a witness to a distinctive identity founded in the revelation of the triune God and a vision of universal human solidarity which can reconcile autonomy and community The Globalisation of Charismatic Christianity Simon Coleman, 2000-10-02 This 2000 book analyses the revival of charismatic Protestant Christianity as an example of globalization Simon Coleman shows that along with many social movements these religious conservatives are negotiating their own interpretations of global and postmodern processes They are constructing an evangelical arena of action and meaning within the liminal chaotic space of the global The book examines globalization not only as a social process but also as an embodied practice involving forms of language and ritualized movement Charismatic Christianity is presented through its material culture art architecture and consumer products as well as its rhetoric and theology The book provides an account of the incorporation of electronic media such as television videos and the Internet into Christian worship Issues relating to the conduct of fieldwork in contexts of globalization are raised in an account which is also a major ethnography of a Faith ministry Popular Church and the Crisis of Modernity Manuel A. Vasquez,1998 This 1997 study explores one of the most dramatic current interactions between religion and politics the development of progressive Catholicism in Latin America In particular it examines economic social and religious obstacles to progressive theology in Brazil This popular church built a utopian vision of social emancipation drawing on Catholic social thought humanistic Marxism and existentialism It was a major democratizing force as Brazil emerged from dictatorship in the late 1970s In the 1980s however the popular appeal of progressive Catholicism came under threat Focusing on a Catholic community near Rio de Janeiro Manuel A V squez s incisive study shows how economic and political changes have affected religious practices and argues that the plight of progressive Catholicism in Brazil forms part of a wider crisis of modernity and of humanist discourses Islamic Tradition Florian Zemmin, 2018-07-23 What does it mean to be modern This study regards the concept of society as foundational to modern self understanding Identifying Arabic conceptualizations of society in the journal al Manar the mouthpiece of Islamic reformism the author shows how modernity was articulated from within an Islamic discursive tradition The fact that the classical term umma was a principal term used to conceptualize modern society suggests the convergence of discursive traditions in modernity rather than a mere diffusion of European concepts Revelation and the Word of God Paul Avis, 2024-05-02 A unique work of Fundamental Theology Revelation and the Word of God explores key issues of divine revelation as open questions They include Why is revelation so elusive Existential and philosophical problems of revelation in the context of apologetics The self revelation of God in mystery What does it mean to say as the Bible does that God speaks and acts How does revelation relate to the Bible history religious experience and the church The relational and personalist dimensions of revelation What the biblical Wisdom tradition contributes to our understanding of revelation The threefold form of the Word of God Jesus Christ the incarnate Word Logos and Wisdom Sophia of God the Scriptures that witness to him and the church's proclamation kerygma in preaching sacraments and other ways. The role of hermeneutics cultural constraints and imagination in the reception of revelation Critique including Feminist Theology of claimed revelation Is there revelation today How do developments in doctrine and practice relate to divine revelation The liturgy as a vehicle of the Word of God The Word in pastoral practice Jesus Christ as the crown and criterion of divine revelation according to the Fourth Gospel After Heaven Robert Wuthnow, 2023-04-28 The evolution of American spirituality over the past fifty years is the subject of Robert Wuthnow s engrossing new book Wuthnow uses in depth interviews and a broad range of resource materials to show how Americans from teenagers to senior citizens define their spiritual journeys His findings are a telling reflection of the changes in beliefs and lifestyles that have occurred throughout the United States in recent decades Wuthnow reconstructs the social and cultural reasons for an emphasis on a spirituality of dwelling houses of worship denominations neighborhoods during the 1950s Then in the 1960s a spirituality of seeking began to emerge leading individuals to go beyond established religious institutions In subsequent chapters Wuthnow examines attempts to reassert spiritual discipline encounters with the sacred such as angels and near death experiences and the development of the inner self His final chapter discusses a spirituality of practice an alternative for people who are uncomfortable within a single religious community and who want more than a spirituality of endless seeking The diversity of contemporary American spirituality comes through in the voices of the interviewees Christians Jews Buddhists Muslims Hindus and Native Americans are included as are followers of occult practices New Age religions and other eclectic groups Wuthnow also notes how politicized spirituality evangelical movements and resources such as Twelve Step programs and mental health therapy influence definitions of religious life today Wuthnow's landmark book The Restructuring of American Religion 1988 documented the changes in institutional religion in the United States now After Heaven explains the changes in personal spirituality that have come to shape our religious life Moreover it is a compelling and insightful guide to understanding American culture at century s end This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1999 The evolution of American spirituality over the past fifty years is the subject of Robert Wuthnow s engrossing new book Wuthnow uses in depth interviews and a broad range of resource materials to show how Americans from teenagers to senior citizens def Bound to Sin Alistair McFadyen, 2000-08-15 This book tests the explanatory and descriptive power of the doctrine of sin in relation to two concrete situations sexual abuse of children and the holocaust Taking seriously the explanatory power of secular discourses for analysing and regulating therapeutic action in relation to such situations the book asks whether the theological language of sin can offer further illumination by speaking of God and the world together Through its discussion of abuse and the holocaust an engagement with Augustine original sin and feminism a fresh and sometimes surprising perspective is offered both on the theology of sin and on the pathologies under consideration The understanding of sin that emerges is centred on joyful worship of the trinitarian God This essay is more systematic and more theological than most practical pastoral or applied theology and more practical and concrete than most systematic or constructive theology. It is a genuinely concrete systematic theology

Losing the Sacred Ritual and Liturgy David Torevell,2004-11-11 This book argues that the liturgical reforms initiated by the second Vatican Council may have seriously undermined contemporary Roman Catholic worship Drawing on important work by Durkheim Bauman Foucault Turner Duffy Flanagan and Pickstock David Torevell focuses on the most crucial element of Catholic worship the experience of the sacred and examines how it has been eroded since pre modern times largely due to the marginalisation of ritual expression and its consequences A devastating critique of the loss of the sacred in worship this striking interdisciplinary study is a call for revitalisation of Roman Catholic liturgy through a reform of the reform and the reclamation of the importance of the body in ritual expression Power, Gender and Christian Mysticism Grace Jantzen,1995-11-16 In the western Christian tradition the mystic was seen as having direct access to God and therefore great authority In this study Dr Jantzen discusses how men of power defined and controlled who should count as a mystic and thus who would have power women were pointedly excluded This makes her book of special interest to those in gender studies and medieval history Its main argument however is philosophical Because the mystical has gone through many social constructions the modern philosophical assumption that mysticism is essentially about intense subjective experiences is misguided This view is historically inaccurate and perpetuates the same gendered struggle for authority which characterises the history of western christendom This book is the first on the subject to take issues of gender seriously and to use these as a point of entry for a deconstructive approach to Christian mysticism Political Practices and International Order Stefan Heuser, Hans Günter Ulrich, 2007 International order is one of the most challenging issues in political ethics today and its place within the multifaceted fleld of politics is frequently debated. The diverse phenomena resulting from globalisation particularly in the wake of the end of the so called Cold War urge us to think about our world in terms of a single political entity Besides the existing international institutions however it is still open to question what this entity should be and what concrete political practices should correspond to it In the essays collected in this book political scientists sociologists philosophers theologians and policy advisors explore how political practices can be institutionally localised without necessarily becoming incorporated into structures of governance Political ethics as presented in this book seeks to address the particular practices of power justice and peace of citizens themselves and to assess their relevance for the shaping of international insti Christian Tradition Today Jeffrey C. K. Goh, 2000 This study critically examines the postliberal project with special reference to George Lindbeck the founding father of postliberalism In an age of profound cultural change is it feasible to locate the future of the Church and of the world on a consensus building hermeneutic that dwells in the particularity of the Christian Scripture as its exclusive home Seeing the theological task as a hermeneutical task founded upon the premise that truth is revealed in a dialectical way the author provides an intelligible framework for dialogue with the postliberal school of thought This dialogue he argues is ultimately determined by the overarching question of what it means to be Church Towards a critical synthesis of the ecclesiological impact of this dialogue the author offers a tightly argued and informative discussion on five pairs of key concepts tradition and authority Bible and de Christianization hermeneutics and revelation religion and experience doctrine and truth
