Mohanty, 1993 These essays focus on the concept of time in the major religious traditions The theme of time so central to the religious point of view offers a focal point for fruitful interreligious dialogue Conceptualizing Religion Benson Saler, 1993 How might we transform a folk category in this case religion into an analytical category suitable for cross cultural research In addressing that question this book critically explores various approaches to the problem of conceptualizing religion for scholarly purposes particularly with respect to certain disciplinary interests of anthropologists. The author argues that the most plausible analytical strategy can be based on the idea of family resemblances especially as that idea has been used and developed in contemporary prototype theory. In the solution proposed religion is conceptualized as an affair of more or less rather than a matter of yes or no and no sharp line is drawn between religion and non religion The Oxford Handbook of Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer, 2011-08-25 This is a reference for understanding world religious societies in their contemporary global diversity Comprising 60 essays the volume focuses on communities rather than beliefs symbols or rites The contributors are leading scholars of world religions many of whom are also members of the communities they study Encyclopaedia of Islam Ian Richard Netton, 2013-12-19 This Encyclopedia covers the full range of Islamic thought It takes substantial note of contemporary trends across the Muslim world and the material on historical Islam has contemporary reference Global Religions Mark Juergensmeyer, 2003-03-20 Can Islam be located on a map Is Europe the center of the Christian world Is India a Hindu nation While decades ago these questions were often answered in the affirmative the truth has never been that simple Not only are adherents of particular faiths spread across the globe but there are many variations of a particular faith practiced side by side This has only become more true in recent years as the pace of globalization has guickened The essays collected here provide brief and accessible introductions to the major world religions in their global contexts The volume begins with an introduction to the globalization of religion by Mark Juergensmeyer and is followed by individual essays on Christianity Islam Judaism Hinduism Buddhism and local religious societies The book concludes with three essays reflecting on the global religious scene Taken together these essays provide a concise authoritative and highly readable introduction to the state of worldwide religion in the 21st century The Empire of the Great Mughals Annemarie Schimmel, 2004 Annemarie Schimmel has written extensively on India Islam and poetry In this comprehensive study she presents an overview of the cultural economic militaristic and artistic attributes of the great Mughal Empire from 1526 to 1857 The Origins and Evolution of the Moses Nativity Story Cohen, 2018-11-13 This book traces the development of the Moses nativity story from pre Biblical sources through its Biblical formulation and continues to trace its evolution in post Biblical literature from the Apocrypha Pseudepigrapha and Jewish Hellenistic writings through Rabbinic literature and up to Medieval Jewish exegesis Influence of the Moses nativity story is also detected in Christian writings hence this book also traces the evolution of the story in the New Testament and early Christian works This study uses a literary typological approach similar to that of the Gunkel Gressmann school and the method used by Loewenstamm However unlike these scholars and their disciples who focused primarily on the biblical stage this book gives equal attention to all stages of the evolution of the birth story pattern and while providing a detailed analysis of each work also focuses on continuity tracing the path along which the literary pattern of the Moses nativity story developed Partisans of Allah Ayesha Jalal, 2008-03-31 Drawing on historical legal and literary sources Jalal traces the intellectual itinerary of jihad through several centuries and across the territory connecting the Middle East with South Asia A History of Modern India, 1480-1950 Claude Markovits, 2004-09-24 Praise for the hardback edition an impressively scholarly and immensely detailed text a welcome and strongly recommended contribution to World History and India History collections Library Bookwatch Recommended Choice A History of Modern India provides a comprehensive chronological analysis of India s vibrant and diverse history As well as examining the evolution of the relationship between the society and the state in its various economic social cultural and political forms A History of Modern India analyses the major empires in modern India from the Moghuls 1580 1739 to the Raj 1818 1947 and discusses the economic social and intellectual dynansm that accompanied intervening periods of political fragmentation The book explores the difficulties confronting the rise of Indian nationalismand the consequent confrontation between religious communities what should have been the crowning victory of a pacifist anti colonial movement was instead brutally resolved with the violence of Partition in 1947 A History of Islamic Legal Theories Wael B. Hallag, 1997 Wael B Hallag has already established himself as one of the most eminent scholars in the field of Islamic law In this book first published in 1997 the author traces the history of Islamic legal theory from its early beginnings until the modern period Initially he focuses on the early formation of this theory analysing its central themes and examining the developments which gave rise to a variety of doctrines He concludes with a discussion of modern thinking about the theoretical foundations and methodology of Islamic law In organisation approach to the subject and critical apparatus the book will be an essential tool for the understanding of Islamic legal theory in particular and Islamic law in general This in combination with an accessibility of language and style will guarantee a readership among students and scholars and anyone interested in Islam and its evolution The Islamic Quarterly, 1997 Proceedings Eric J. Sharpe, Claas Jouco Bleeker, Geo Widengren, 1975 Changing Christian Paradiams and their Implications for Modern Thought Knox, 2018-11-13 Though the Bible and creeds have provided a compass for Christianity from earliest times the frameworks of thought within which they have been understood have constantly changed the contribution of Augustine to these changes being fundamental This book traces first these changes chronologically and shows how they have led to the separation of religion and science faith and reason supernatural and natural and so to current materialism but also to radical alterations to our understanding of God and his relationship to the world The second part shows in more detail how these changes have altered the significance of major features of Christian faith and led to serious incoherences And the third part shows not only how pre Augustinian and Biblical understandings cohere closely with modern science but that they have radical implications for our understanding of man his place in nature and survival of death for Jesus Christ and for the role of the Churches Islam in the World Today Werner Ende, Udo Steinbach, 2011-12-15 Considered the most authoritative single volume reference work on Islam in the contemporary world the German language
