Religion Theology And The Human Sciences:

Religion, Theology, and the Human Sciences Richard H. Roberts, 2010 Religion and the Human Sciences Daniel A. Helminiak, 1998-04-23 Proposes a new paradigm for interdisciplinary studies by applying the thought of Bernard Lonergan to define spirituality as the missing link between religion and theology Religion, Theology and the Human Sciences Richard H. Roberts, 2002 Religion Theology and the Human Sciences explores the religious consequences of the so called end of history and triumph of capitalism as they have impinged upon key institutions of social reproduction in recent times The book explores the imposition of managerial modernity upon successive sectors of society and shows why many people today feel themselves to be oppressed by systems of management that seem to leave them no option but to conform Richard Roberts seeks to challenge and outflank such seamless oppressive modernity through reconfiguration of the religious and spiritual field Religion and the Human Sciences Daniel A. Helminiak, 1998-01-01 Proposes a new paradigm for interdisciplinary studies by applying the thought of Bernard Lonergan to define spirituality as the missing link between religion and theology Theology as Interdisciplinary Inquiry Robin W. Lovin, Joshua Mauldin, 2017-03-12 Can a neuroscientist help a theologian interpret a medieval mystical text Can a historian of religion help an anthropologist understand the effects of social cooperation on human evolution Can a legal scholar and a theologian help each other think about how fear of God relates to respect for the law In this volume leading scholars in ethics theology and social science sum up three years of study and conversation regarding the value of interdisciplinary theological inquiry This is an essential and challenging collection for all who set out to think write teach and preach theologically in the contemporary world CONTRIBUTORS John P Burgess Peter Danchin Celia Deane Drummond Agust n Fuentes Andrea Hollingsworth Robin W Lovin Joshua Mauldin Friederike N ssel Mary Ellen O Connell Douglas F Ottati Stephen Pope Colleen Shantz Michael Spezio , Dedication and Inauguration of the Vanderbilt University. Nashville, Tennessee, Oct. 3rd-4th, 1875 Anonymous, 2024-03-13 Reprint of the original first published in 1875 Introduction to the Human Sciences Wilhelm Dilthey, 1988 As a contribution to the issue of the methodologies of the humanities and social sciences the Introduction works to address issues of the human sciences and their place in relations to natural sciences The Child in American Evangelicalism and the Problem of Affluence David A. Sims, 2009-06-01 This work presents an evangelical theology of the child nurtured in the context of American evangelicalism and affluence It employs an eclectic theological critical method to produce a theological anthropology of the affluent American evangelical child AAEC through interdisciplinary evangelical engagement of American history sociology and economics Sims articulates how affluence constitutes a significant impediment to evangelical nurture of the AAEC in the discipline and instruction of the Lord Thus the problem he addresses is nurture in evangelical affluence conceived as a theological anthropological problem Nurture in the cultural matrices of the evangelical affluence generated by technological consumer capitalism in the U S impedes spiritual and moral formation of the AAEC for discipleship in the way of the cross This impediment risks disciplinary formation of the AAEC for capitalist culture cultivates delusional belief that life consists in an abundance of possessions and hinders the practice of evangelical liberation of the poor on humanity's underside The result is the AAEC's spiritual moral lack in late modernity Chapter 1 introduces the problem of the AAEC Chapters 2 and 3 provide a diachronic lens for the theological anthropology of the AAEC through critical assessment of the theological anthropologies of the child in Jonathan Edwards Horace Bushnell and Lawrence Richards Chapters 4 and 5 constitute the synchronic perspective of the AAEC Chapter 4 presents an evangelical sociology of the AAEC drawing upon William Corsaro's theory of interpretive reproductions and chapter 5 constructs an evangelical theology of the AAEC through critical interaction with John Schneider's moral theology of affluence Chapter 6 Whither the AAEC concludes with a recapitulation of the work and a forecast of possible futures for the AAEC in the twenty first century

Being the Body of Christ in the Age of Management The Rev'd Lyndon Shakespeare, 2016-08-26 The church needs effective leaders We must be more missional Better organization is required Such sentiments are commonplace among Christians concerned with the health and sustainability of their local church as well as the church universal Over the past thirty years the desire for more efficiently run effectively led and organizationally sound churches has contributed to an approach to thinking about the church in terms uncritically assumed from the business and management sector This has given rise to treating the church as if it were just another social body in need of better organization The question is what happens when we apply the logic of management techniques to an organization that identifies as the body of Christ Drawing on organizational theory theological anthropology and sacramental theology this book navigates a path for Christians that avoids reducing the church to just another organization while providing a vision for the church as the social body where all are invited to connect and be made members of Christ and each other Such a vision provides an alternative to the social categorization that would define the church by its organizational character rather than its eschatological destiny

Enriching Ministry Michael Paterson, Jessica Rose, 2014-03-27 Enriching Ministry offers a more detailed and wide ranging overview of pastoral supervision and its relationship to other disciplines and fields of study It describes an approach to supervision which is theologically rich psychologically informed contextually sensitive and praxis based It is intended for those seeking support for their own ministries as well as for those who supervise in the areas of initial and continuing ministerial formation healthcare executive coaching spiritual direction The final chapters consider the professional development and training of supervisors This book is aimed at those in local ministry seeking training in supervision in the UK training incumbents team rectors superintendents etc healthcare chaplains who facilitate reflective practice or who offer in house supervision a requirement for UK based Band 6 jobs spiritual directors for whom there is not as yet any unified approach to training for pastoral supervision theological educators trying to meet the requirements of supervised placements Supervision Practitioners supervision training providers those in ministry seeking supervision bishops and church leaders

Religion and the Philosophy of Life Gavin Flood, 2019-02-14 Religion and the Philosophy of Life considers how religion as the source of civilization transforms the fundamental bio sociology of humans through language and the somatic exploration of religious ritual and prayer Gavin Flood offers an integrative account of the nature of the human based on what contemporary scientists tell us especially evolutionary science and social neuroscience as well as through the history of civilizations Part one contemplates fundamental questions and assumptions what the current state of knowledge is concerning life itself what the philosophical issues are in that understanding and how we can explain religion as the driving force of civilizations in the context of human development within an evolutionary perspective It also addresses the question of the emergence of religion and presents a related study of sacrifice as fundamental to religions views about life and its transformation Part two offers a reading of religions in three civilizational blocks India China and Europe the Middle East particularly as they came to formation in the medieval period It traces the history of how these civilizations have thematised

the idea of life itself Part three then takes up the idea of a life force in part three and traces the theme of the philosophy of life through to modern times On the one hand the book presents a narrative account of life itself through the history of civilizations and on the other presents an explanation of that narrative in terms of life
