the resulting expressions of ecological visions in what he terms religious ecotopias idealized environmentally friendly re imaginings of nature and humanity and correspondingly religion which seek to influence environmental attitudes

Religion as We Know It: An Origin Story Jack Miles, 2019-11-12 A brief beautiful invitation to the study of religion from a Pulitzer Prize winner How did our forebears begin to think about religion as a distinct domain separate from other activities that were once inseparable from it Starting at the birth of Christianity a religion inextricably bound to Western thought Jack Miles reveals how the West's common sense understanding of religion emerged and then changed as insular Europe discovered the rest of the world In a moving postscript he shows how this very story continues today in the hearts of individual religious or irreligious men and women

Scripturalizing the Human Vincent L. Wimbush, 2015-07-16

Scripturalizing the Human is a transdisciplinary collection of essays that reconceptualizes and models scriptural studies as a critical comparative set of practices with broad ramifications for scholars of religion and biblical studies This critical historical and ethnographic project is focused on scriptures scripturalization scripturalizing as shorthand for the psycho cultural and socio political work we make language do for and to us Each essay focuses on an instance of or situation involving such work engaging with the Bible Book of Mormon Bhagavata Purana and other sacred texts artifacts and practices in order to explore historical and ongoing constructions of the human Contributors use the category of scriptures understood not simply as texts but as freighted shorthand for the dynamics and ultimate politics of language as tools for self illumination and self analysis The significance of the collection lies in the window it opens to the rich and complex view of the highs and lows of human un making as it establishes the connections between a seemingly basic and apolitical religious category and a set of larger social cultural phenomena and dynamics
