Religious Identities and the Global South Felix Wilfred, 2021-01-04 This book offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary account of religious identities in the Global South Drawing on literature in various fields Felix Wilfred analyzes how religious identities intersect with the processes of globalization modernity and postmodernity He illustrates how the study of religion in the Global North often revolves around questions of secularism and fundamentalism whereas a neo Orientalist quality often attends study of religion in the Global South These approaches and theorizing fail to incorporate the experiences of lived religion in the South especially in Asia Historically the religions in the South have played a highly significant role in resistance to the domination by the colonial forces an important reason for the continued attachment of the peoples of the South to their religious universe This book puts the two regions and their scholarly norms in conversation with one another exploring the social political cultural and economic implications

Religion and Contemporary Politics Timothy J. Demy, Jeffrey M. Shaw Ph.D., 2019-09-19 With respect to the countries of the world this work addresses two basic questions How does religion affect politics in this country and How does politics affect religion in this country Although there are many books on the topics of religion and politics reference works that consider the two together are few with those that do exist primarily addressing theory rather than trends The present work does the latter contextualizing them within regional and national boundaries In so doing it recognizes the power of political and religious ideas and movements on individuals communities and nations making the work a valuable resource for several disciplines among them political science international relations religion and sociology The work focuses on the interplay of religion and politics in countries around the world with an emphasis on the post 2000s It is organized by global geographic regions including Africa Central and South America and the Middle East and presents countries alphabetically within those sections Each region has a brief overview of the political religious dynamics of the area so readers can compare and contrast the dynamics between and among countries in a region The work also includes an introduction sidebars and a bibliography

Rediscovering the Umma Ina Merdjanova, 2016 This book discusses the role of Islam in the political and social developments in the Balkans after the fall of communism It explores comparatively the transformations of Muslim identities under the influence of various national and transnational domestic and global factors

Faith- Based Diplomacy Trumping Realpolitik Douglas Johnston,2008-06-02 For most of the twentieth century the most critical concerns of national security have been balance of power politics and the global arms race The religious conflicts of this era and the motives behind them however demand a radical break with this tradition If the United States is to prevail in its long term contest with extremist Islam it will need to re examine old assumptions expand the scope of its thinking to include religion and other irrational factors and be willing to depart from past practice A purely military response in reaction to such attacks will simply not suffice What will be required is a long term strategy of cultural engagement backed by a deeper understanding of how others view the world and what is important to them In non Western cultures religion is a primary motivation for political actions Historically dismissed by Western policymakers as a divisive influence religion in fact has significant potential for overcoming the obstacles that lead to paralysis and stalemate The Incorporation of religion as part of the solution to such problems is as simple as it is profound It is long overdue This book looks at five intractable conflicts and explores the possibility of drawing on religion as a force for peace It builds upon the insights of Religion the Missing Dimension of Statecraft OUP 1994 which examined the role that religious or spiritual factors can play in preventing or resolving conflict while achieving social change based on justice and reconciliation The world class authors writing in this volume suggest how the peacemaking tenets of five major world religions can be strategically applied in ongoing conflicts in which those religions are involved Finally the commonalities and differences between these religions are examined with an eye toward further applications in peacemaking and conflict resolution

History and Popular Memory Paul A Cohen,2014-04-29 When people experience a traumatic event such as war or the threat of annihilation they often turn to history for stories that promise a positive outcome to their suffering During World War II the French took comfort in the story of Joan of Arc and her heroic efforts to rid France of foreign occupation To bring the Joan narrative more into line with current circumstances however popular retellings modified the original story so that what people believed took place in the past was often quite different from what actually occurred Paul A Cohen identifies this interplay between story and history as a worldwide phenomenon found in countries of radically different cultural religious and social character He focuses here on Serbia Israel China France the Soviet Union and Great Britain all of which experienced severe crises in the twentieth century and in response appropriated age old historical narratives that resonated with what was happening in the present to serve a unifying restorative purpose A central theme in the book is the distinction between popular memory and history Although vitally important to historians this distinction is routinely blurred in people s minds and the historian s truth often cannot compete with the power of a compelling story from the past even when it has been seriously distorted by myth or political manipulation Cohen concludes by suggesting that the patterns of interaction he probes given their near universality may well be rooted in certain human propensities that transcend cultural difference

Religion and Politics in Post-Socialist Central and Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet,2014-01-31 Since the crash of communism in Central and

Southeastern Europe in 1989 almost everything in the region has changed from politics to economics to popular culture to religion There have been new challenges to confront and new dilemmas This volume examines the political engagement of religious associations in the post socialist countries of Central and Southeastern Europe with a focus on disputes about property restitution revelations about the collaboration of clergy with the communist era secret police intolerance and controversies about the inclusion of religious instruction in the schools Each of the countries in the region is analyzed with research grounded in on site interviews as well as extensive use of literature in local and Western languages

Nation-Building and Identity in the Post-Soviet Space Rico Isaacs, Abel Polese, 2016-04-14 Nation building as a process is never complete and issues related to identity nation state and regime building are recurrent in the post Soviet region This comparative inter disciplinary volume explores how nation building tools emerged and evolved over the last twenty years Featuring in depth case studies from countries throughout the post Soviet space it compares various aspects of nation building and identity formation projects Approaching the issue from a variety of disciplines and geographical areas contributors illustrate chapter by chapter how different state and non state actors utilise traditional instruments of nation construction in new ways while also developing non traditional tools and strategies to provide a contemporary account of how nation formation efforts evolve and diverge

The Oxford Handbook of European Islam Jocelyne Cesari, 2015 For centuries Muslim countries and Europe have engaged one another through theological dialogues diplomatic missions political rivalries and power struggles In the last thirty years due in large part to globalization and migration from Islamic countries to the West what was previously an engagement across national and cultural boundaries has increasingly become an internalized encounter within Europe itself Questions of the Hijab in schools freedom of expression in the wake of the Danish Cartoon crisis and the role of Shari a have come to the forefront of contemporary European discourse The Oxford Handbook of European Islam is the first collection to present a comprehensive approach to the multiple and changing ways Islam has been studied across European countries Parts one to three address the state of knowledge of Islam and Muslims within a selection of European countries while presenting a critical view of the most up to date data specific to each country These chapters analyze the immigration cycles and policies related to the presence of Muslims tackling issues such as discrimination post colonial identity adaptation and assimilation The thematic chapters in parts four and five examine secularism radicalization Shari a Hijab and Islamophobia with the goal of synthesizing different national discussion into a more comparative theoretical framework The Handbook attempts to balance cutting edge assessment with the knowledge that the content itself will eventually be superseded by events Featuring eighteen newly commissioned essays by noted scholars in the field this volume will provide an excellent resource for students and scholars interested in European Studies immigration Islamic studies and the sociology of religion

Interpreting Emotions in Russia and Eastern Europe Mark D. Steinberg, Valeria Sobol, 2011-06-01 Bringing together important new work by an international and interdisciplinary group of leading scholars Interpreting Emotions in Russia and Eastern Europe approaches emotions as a phenomenon complexly intertwined with society culture politics and history The stories in this book involve sensitive aristocrats committed revolutionaries aggressive nationalists political leaders female victims of sexual violence perpetrators and victims of Stalinist terror citizens in the former Yugoslavia in the wake of war workers in post socialist Romania Balkan Romani Gypsy musicians and veterans of the Afghan and Chechen wars These essays explore emotional perception and expression not only as private inward feeling but also as a way of interpreting and judging a troubled world acting in it and perhaps changing it Essential reading for those interested in new perspectives on the study of Russia and Eastern Europe past and present this volume will appeal to scholars across the social sciences and humanities who are seeking new and deeper approaches to understanding human experience thought and feeling Nordic, Central, and Southeastern Europe 2022-2023 Wayne C.

Bieber, Armina Galijaš, 2016-05-13 Countries rarely disappear off the map In the 20th century only a few countries shared this fate with Yugoslavia The dissolution of Yugoslavia led to the largest war in Europe since 1945 massive human rights violations and over 100 000 victims Debating the End of Yugoslavia is less an attempt to re write the dissolution of Yugoslavia or to provide a different narrative than to take stock and reflect on the scholarship to date New sources and data offer fresh avenues of research avoiding the passion of the moment that often characterized research published during the wars and provide contemporary perspectives on the dissolution The book outlines the state of the debate rather than focusing on controversies alone and maps how different scholarly communities have reflected on the dissolution of the country what arguments remain open in scholarly discourse and highlights new innovative paths to study the period Nordic, Central,
