Robinson, 2022-05-13 Christianity is a way of life centered on the person, life, teaching, death, and resurrection of Jesus the Christ. As a religious way of life, Christianity is multifaceted, involving numerous beliefs and practices. This book explores many of the varied facets of the Christian faith, including its foundations in the story of Israel, the person of Jesus, the early Christian community, and the sacred text called the Bible. In turn, Robinson's book examines Christianity's core doctrines, ethical norms, and worship practices, rounding out the study by considering four key contemporary challenges faced by Christian believers: namely, the problem of evil, the relationship of Christianity to other religions and to science, and the role of women in church and society. Among the strengths of this book is that it addresses these multiple features of Christianity in a single volume; it is aptly titled Christianity: A Brief Survey.      A Student's Guide to AS Religious Studies for the AQA Specification Kate Brown, Ting Morris,      Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics Paul S. Chung, 2013-10-23 Hermeneutical Theology and the Imperative of Public Ethics is a groundbreaking attempt to present constructive missional theology in an integrative and interdisciplinary framework as it provocatively utilizes and contextualizes Reformation theology and hermeneutics concerning ethical theology embedded within the wider horizon of World Christianity. Mission as constructive theology is explored and refined in an hermeneutical and interdisciplinary fashion underlying a new horizon of postcolonial theology and mission in light of God's act of speech. Missional church founded upon God's grace of justification and Christ's diakonia of reconciliation becomes ethically oriented public church as it is engaged in the multireligious diversity of people's lives and lifeworld in the postcolonial context of World Christianity.      Studying Religion Russell T. McCutcheon, 2014-12-05 Widely used as a primer, a text, and a provocation to critical thinking, Studying Religion aims to develop students' skills.
