Religion Is A Personal Matter

John Morreall, Tamara Sonn

Religion Is A Personal Matter:

Religion is a Personal Matter Philip A. Verhalen, 1990 This book investigates the religious role of the individual person in a community setting as it provides a review of the chief issues of Western religion that an introductory text would address Most Westerners with a Judeo Christian background do not readily distinguish theological inquiry from religious phenomena To meet this need the author reviews the chief disciplines related to the scientific study of religion under the central question How is a person religious both as an individual and as a member of a community The author surveys the current history of ideas related to religious phenomena in the areas of philosophy sociology psychology and Western theology The

Collected Works of Edward M. Matthews Liberal Catholic Church, International, Edward M. Matthews, 1993 50 Great Myths About Religions John Morreall, Tamara Sonn, 2014-04-03 50 Great Myths about Religions is an intriguing informative and often humorous introduction to some of the long standing myths that surround religious belief This engaging book will get its readers thinking about how and why certain myths have arisen and their continuing influence on our personal and collective view of religion Offers a lively informative and thought provoking introduction to some of the common misbeliefs surrounding religions Discusses myths about religious belief in general as well as specific ideas that surround Judaism Christianity Islam atheism and agnosticism Covers a wide range of myths from ancient legends such as the Bible forbidding pork being eaten because it causes illness to modern urban fables such as Barack Obama being a Muslim Unpacks each myth in turn explaining why it arose how it spread and why the beliefs that stem from it are questionable Includes a fascinating discussion about human nature and the main characteristics that predispose us to create and circulate myths to begin with Underpinned by a wide knowledge of academic research it is written by two respected religion scholars and experienced authors Teenagers' Perspectives on the Role of Religion in their Lives, Schools and Societies. A European Quantitative Study Pille Valk, Gerdien Bertram-Troost, Markus Friederici, Céline Béraud, 2009 Religion is on the European agenda again The secularisation paradigm has lost its explanatory power and the newly coined term post secularism is used to describe the realisation that in the current social transformation religion cannot be ignored any longer The quantitative study presented in this book is part of the research effort by the REDCo project REDCo is the abbreviation for Religion in Education A contribution to Dialogue or a Factor of Conflict in Transforming Societies of European Countries The project brought together nine research teams from eight European countries England Estonia France Germany The Netherlands Norway Russia and Spain The research involved interdisciplinary cooperation between specialists in the different academic fields of education religious education sociology political science anthropology psychology theology and religious studies The book offers valuable interpretations and inspirations on the question how the students in the 14 16 year age group in Europe see the irrelevance of religions for dialogue and conflict in their daily lives in the school environment and in society as a whole The young respondents of the quantitative study are clearly aware that the diversity of religious and non religious worldviews

is the reality of the European contexts they have to manage within Most of them are convinced that religion must be addressed in schools as it is too important as factor in social life and for the coexistence of people from different cultural and religious backgrounds throughout Europe to be ignored Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society Wim Hofstee,A. van der Kooij,2013-09-12 The volume Religion beyond its Private Role in Modern Society aims at contributing to the debate on the distinction between public and private spheres with regard to the role of religion in modern societies This issue which is inherent to many conceptions regarding social order modernity freedom of conscience and the changing role and function of religion is discussed not only from a social scientific but also from a historical and philosophical point of view The articles dwell on several aspects of the role of religion in different societies in modern times and the overall theme is explored from the perspective of various religious traditions and groups both institutional and non institutional It turns out that the distinction made is difficult to maintain Contributors include Bart Labuschagne Linda Woodhead Niek Brunsveld Dick Douwes Mohammed Ghaly Heleen Murre van den Berg David Novak Alexandros Sakellariou Matthew Tennant Bruno Verbeek Ernestine G E van der Wall William Arfman Stef Aupers Jeroen Boekhoven Meerten B ter Borg and Kees de Groot

Caleb Clanton,2008-01-01 This book addresses heated debate among political thinkers concerned with the role of religious reasoning in the deliberation and justification of public policy and voting The author critically examines various arguments drawn from mainstream liberal political theory political theology and American pragmatism and offers a unique proposal for thinking through this issue An Informed Faith R. J. Rushdoony,2017-07-11 Our faith should be an informed one because the God who created all things speaks to every sphere of life and all facts should be studied in light of the revelation of God in Scripture This is the foundation of Christian dominion

For R J Rushdoony true government was the self government of the Christian life in terms of God s law so he wrote his position papers to better equip Christians to apply their faith to all of life His objective was not to empower the state or the organized church but rather to call every person and institution to God s Word which often put him at odds with both church and state This three volume collection of his position papers 1979 2000 are organized topically and are featured for the first time with an extensive index which will make this material far more accessible to the studious reader This beautiful three volume collection of hardback books topically organizes ALL of Rushdoony s position papers not only the 115 originally published in Roots of Reconstruction but also 118 later essays including six recently discovered unpublished papers A Collection of Lectures on Theosophy and Archaic Religions, Delivered in India and Ceylon Henry Steel Olcott,1883

Religion, State and the United Nations Anne Stensvold,2016-07-22 This volume approaches the UN as a laboratory of religio political value politics Over the last two decades religion has acquired increasing influence in international politics and religious violence and terrorism has attracted much scholarly attention But there is another parallel development which has gone largely unnoticed namely the increasing political impact of peaceful religious actors With several religious actors in one place and interacting under the same conditions the UN is as a multi religious society writ small The contributors to this book analyse the most influential religious actors at the UN including The Roman Catholic Church The Organisation of Islamic Countries the Russian Orthodox Church Mapping the peaceful political engagements of religious actors who they are and how they collaborate with each other whether on an ad hoc basis or by forming more permanent networks throwing light at the modus operandi of religious actors at the UN their strategies and motivations The chapters are closely interrelated through the shared focus on the UN and common theoretical perspectives and pursue two intertwined aspects of religious value politics namely the whys and hows of cross religious cooperation on the one hand and the interaction between religious actors and states on the other Drawing together a broad range of experts on religious actors this work will be of great interest to students and scholars of Religion and Politics International Relations and the UN Memoirs József
