Religion Politics And Social Change In The Third World:

Religion, politics, and social change in the Third World : a sourcebook Donald Eugene Smith, 1974 Religion, Politics and Social Change in the Third World Donald Eugene Smith, 1971 Religious Resurgence and Politics in the Contemporary World Emile Sahliyah, 1990-08-14 This book examines the highly politicized religious groups and movements that have surfaced since the late 1970s in the United States Central America South Africa the Philippines India and the Middle East Sahliyah and others analyze this trend toward the politicization of religious conservatism and question a number of assumptions central to concepts of modernization For example it has been assumed by development theorists that the interrelated components of modernization would enhance the trend toward secularization of societies This book shows that in many societies today religious revivalism and fundamentalism seem to be direct products of modernization A global comparative approach is utilized to formulate general explanations for religious revivalism and its implications for modernization development and politics Politics and Society in the Developing World Mehran Kamrava, 2012-10-12 This book is a welcome new edition which completely updates and revises the very popular first edition Politics and Society in the Third World Mehran Kamrava has brought the book in line with the major changes in global politics and the politics and social issues of the developing world The book examines key issues such as democratisation civil society organisations and NGOs political society state collapse democratic bargains and transition consolidation and problems of legitimacy elections multi party politics industrial development dependency theory and globalisation the roles of the IMF and the World Bank the GATT and other multinational institutions urbanisation social change the increasing influence of western values capital and institutions urbanisation social change the increasing influence of western values capital and institutions political culture its role and impact in newly democratic developing countries revolution and gives more examples from Africa East Asia and rural societies An Introduction to Religion and Politics Jonathan Fox, 2013-05-07 An Introduction to Religion and Politics offers a comprehensive overview of the many theories of religion and politics and provides students with an accessible but in depth account of the most significant debates issues and methodologies Fox examines the ways in which religion influences politics analyses the current key issues and provides a state of the art account of religion and politics highlighting the diversity in state religion policies around the world Topics covered include Secularism and secularization Religious identity Religious worldviews beliefs doctrines and theologies Religious legitimacy Religious institutions and mobilization Rational and functional religion Religious fundamentalism Conflict violence and terror This work combines theoretical analysis with data on the religion policies of 177 governments showing that while most of the world's government support religion and many restrict it true neutrality on the issue of religion is extremely rare Religion is becoming an inescapable issue in politics This work will be essential reading for all students of religion and politics and will also be of great interest to those studying related subjects such as comparative politics international relations and war and conflict studies Understanding Third

World Politics Brian Clive Smith, 2003 Praise for the first edition this masterful and concise volume overviews the range of approaches social scientists have applied to explain events in the Third World Journal of Developing Areas Understanding Third World Politics is a comprehensive critical introduction to political development and comparative politics in the non Western world today Beginning with an assessment of the shared factors that seem to determine underdevelopment B C Smith introduces the major theories of development development theory modernization theory neo colonialism and dependency theory and examines the role and character of key political organizations political parties and the military in determining the fate of developing nations This new edition gives special attention to the problems and challenges faced by developing nations as they become democratic states by addressing questions of political legitimacy consensus building religion ethnicity and class

The Oxford Handbook of Secularism Phil Zuckerman, John R. Shook, 2017 The Oxford Handbook of Secularism offers a wide ranging examination of secularism on a global scale bringing together an international collection of views from prominent experts in a variety of fields This volume reflects the impressive level of academic attention now given to secularism across the humanities social sciences law and public policy and international relations Long reigning theories about the pace of secularization and ideal church state relations are here scrutinized by a new generation of scholars studying secularism with new questions better data and fresh perspectives

Kenya Shadrack W. Nasong'o, Godwin R. Murunga, 2013-07-18 The path towards democracy in Kenya has been long and often tortuous Though it has been trumpeted as a goal for decades democratic government has never been fully realised largely as a result of the authoritarian excesses of the Kenyatta Moi and Kibaki regimes This uniquely comprehensive study of Kenya's political trajectory shows how the struggle for democracy has been waged in civil society through opposition parties and amongst traditionally marginalised groups like women and the young It also considers the remaining impediments to democratisation in the form of a powerful police force and damaging structural adjustment policies Thus the authors argue democratisation in Kenya is a laborious and non linear process Kenyans recent electoral successes the book concludes have empowered them and reinvigorated the prospects for democracy heralding a more autonomous and peaceful twenty first century

Global Rebellion Mark Juergensmeyer, 2008 This is an indispensable book in helping us understand the new world disorder that seems to be overtaking us Juergensmeyer points out that much of the world neither understands nor finds attractive the idea of a secular state He helps us see that religious nationalism is a fact of life that will be with us for a long time to come Deconstructing any simple notion of fundamentalism he shows us how it is possible to live with religious nationalism constructively without demonizing it That is a major achievement Robert Bellah coauthor of Habits of the Heart For years Mark Juergensmeyer has served as a kind of Cassandra figure warning us all about the rise of religious violence the global reach of religious nationalism and the challenges posed by new religious identities to the secular nation state Now that the world is finally listening Juergensmeyer remains our best guide in unraveling the complex interplay between religion and politics in the modern world Global Rebellion once again demonstrates why Juergensmeyer is the foremost authority on the global sociology of religion This is an awe inspiring work by arguably the most important thinker on the subject Reza Aslan author of No god but God The Origins Evolution and Future of Islam

Identity Politics in the Middle East Meir Hatina,2007-03-30 The role of Islam in the state has become one of the most contentious issues in modern Middle Eastern society It holds a central position in every public debate over constitution law and civil rights as well as over the very essence of cultural identity Here Meir Hatina sheds light on the issue of Islam in the state through the prism of Egypt during the twentieth century He traces the continuity of Egyptian liberalism from its emergence during the first half of the century through its repression following the July 1952 revolution to the rise of secular liberalists such as Faraj Fuda in post revolutionary Egypt Identity Politics reveals the assertive nature of the Islamic struggle the desire to remake the state by fostering a close affinity between faith and power worship and politics which holds contemporary resonance for all Middle Eastern states

History and Politics In Post-Colonial India Michael Gottlob,2011-05-30 The writing of history in India has been fraught with controversies From the storm over textbooks in the 1970s and the furore over the Babri Masjid in the 1990s to the flaring up of religious sentiments over beef eating and the Ram Sethu this book provides a synoptic view of teaching and writing of history in post colonial India Michael Gottlob explores historical research and teaching as important components contributing to the development of a national identity and ideas of citizenship in post colonial India He shows how the urge to decolonize and recover the self has given rise to several approaches that attempt to reclaim Indian history from its colonial past The book discusses diverse areas like methodological research and public use of history cultural identity and diversity nationalism and communalism and social movements and deconstructs their far reaching implications in contemporary India It also examines the role of women Dalits and Adivasis to understand their position in the multicultural reality of India

Political Identity in South Asia David Taylor,Malcolm Yapp,2024-02-29 First published in 1979 Political Identity in South Asia deals with the relationship between language religion and political identity Political identity is a broader concept than that of nationalism which it embraces and the contributors are concerned with a wide range of political phenomena in South Asia Primary attention is paid to linguistic and religious factors in the making of political identities and the formulation of new political demands but the operation of these factors is seen as being conditioned and in some cases determined by grander political and economic forces Within this framework three papers are particularly concerned with Muslims in South Asia and three with southern India where language has played an important part Two papers are studies of Bangladesh and Sri Lanka and one is concerned with tribal populations in India The volume is completed by two more general essays on the subject of political identity This book will be of interest to students of sociology history South Asian studies and ethnic studies

The Mirage Jamal Sanad Al- Suwaidi,2020-11-17 The book examines this phenomenon from multiple research angles intellectual political ideological cultural and social exploring political religious thought in its various manifestations and explaining the intellectual and organizational disparities between relevant groups The book tracks the history of this phenomenon tracing it to its peak in the early 2010s revealing the intellectual and ideological characteristics of these groups for interested researchers decision makers and the public in an effort to deconstruct the various obstacles they pose to civilizational progress and development in Arab and Muslim countries Every chapter reflects the author s conviction that political religious groups represent neither the true face of Islam nor its moderate values and that yielding to the claims of these groups is a serious affront to religion and its essential values of moderation and tolerance The Mirage also employs an insightful research vision in its approach to political religious groups and their various practices and manifestations It tracks their historical evolution and studies particular examples from their inception up until the recent failure of the Muslim Brotherhood inspired governments that took power in certain Arab and Muslim countries identifying the causes of their failure exposing the fallacy of an 80 year legacy of pretentious slogans that attracted such veneration among these groups and their sympathizers not least among the Muslim Brotherhood itself Readers will recognize that various elements of current realities in Arab and Muslim countries show similarities with the backwardness of certain aspects of the European Middle Ages particularly in terms of the ideologies and practices of political religious groups in the Arab and Muslim worlds in the modern era and specifically their intellectual and political structures the relationship between religion and politics the role of clergy as well as the prevailing philosophies in Europe and the Arab and Muslim worlds This gives rise to several questions are the Arab and Muslim worlds today fighting a similar battle to that experienced by the Europeans around five centuries ago Does this mean that five centuries separate European and Islamic civilizations And if so is there any way to overcome such a schism Are backwardness and modernity inevitably sequential whereby one becomes a prerequisite to the other Why is modernity viewed as the antithesis of religiosity an implicit rejection of religion and its teachings Why do some groups in the Arab and Muslim societies think that talk about religion ends where talk about progress and development begins Why have referential concepts disappeared and given way to destructive ideas like those espoused by political religious groups
