Gray,1928 Volume 6, Tome II: Kierkegaard and His German Contemporaries - Theology Jon Stewart,2017-03-02

This volume explores in detail Kierkegaard's various relations to his German contemporaries. Kierkegaard read German fluently and made extensive use of the writings of German speaking authors. Apart from his contemporary Danish sources the German sources were probably the most important in the development of his thought generally. This volume represents source work research dedicated to tracing Kierkegaard's readings and use of the various German speaking authors in the different fields in a way that is as clearly documented as possible. The volume has been divided into three tomes reflecting Kierkegaard's main areas of interest with regard to the German speaking sources namely philosophy, theology and a more loosely conceived category which has here been designated literature and aesthetics. This second tome of the present volume is dedicated to Kierkegaard's main theological influences. In theology the German and the Danish traditions had long been closely connected via their common source Luther. In Kierkegaard's time the main influence on theology was probably German philosophy and specifically Hegelianism. Most of the German theologians were in some way in a critical dialogue with this movement. Another important influence was Schleiermacher who visited Copenhagen in 1833 and was important for several Golden Age thinkers. From his student days Kierkegaard kept abreast of the German theological literature from which he drew much inspiration. Faith Comes by Hearing ,2009 Faith Comes by Hearing Christopher W.

Morgan,2009-10-06 WHAT ABOUT THOSE WHO HAVE NEVER HEARD The debate swirls and feelings run deep. What is the fate of the unevangelized? The traditional position that apart from an explicit faith in Jesus no one is saved seems to have fallen out of favor with many evangelicals. But the contributors to Faith Comes by Hearing demur. This book is a passionate but irenic response to the arguments of those who believe that the unevangelized can or might be saved apart from knowledge of Jesus Christ. Building on the insights of others, nine scholars introduce readers, even those with little background to the ongoing discussion. Key questions: Is general revelation sufficient? Are other religions salvific? Do holy pagans exist? Must faith be explicit? Is exclusivism unjust? are probed and answered from a biblical, theological and historical perspective. The Cumulative Book Index ,1928 A world list of books in the English language The Philosopher's Index ,1989 Vols for 1969 include a section of abstracts Catalogue of the Free Public Library of New Haven Free Public Library of New Haven,1889 Paley's works; consisting of Evidences of Christianity, Moral and political philosophy, Natural theology, and Horæ Paulinæ. Complete in one volume William Paley,1835 B.H. Roberts, Moral Geography, and the Making of a Modern Racist Clyde R. Forsberg Jr.,Phillip Gordon Mackintosh,2022-03-22 A transdisciplinary Mormon history: this book is a work of American religious history, theology, science history and cultural and historical geography. It deconstructs the race creationism, White supremacy and Christian imperialism of leading interwar Mormon theologian B. H. Roberts. Roberts hoped to introduce the front rank post-Darwinian scientific and philosophical postulates of his time: polygeny, preadamitism, electromagnetism, idealism, the multiverse, infinity and interstellar travel to an increasingly fundamentalist Mormon establishment Church authorities however including eventual prophet Joseph Fielding Smith Jr proscribed and rejected Roberts modernist manuscript The Truth The Way The Life An Elementary Treatise on Theology circa 1930 Paradoxically however Roberts thinking appeared uncited in Smith's 1954 theology Man His Origin and Destiny Here Smith accelerated Roberts racism toward African Americans while reviling science philosophy and free thought This book contextualizes all such fundamentalist Mormon thinking within today's struggle for social and environmental justice and especially the Black Lives Matter movement

Dictionary Of Modern American Philosophers John R. Shook, 2005-05-15 The Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers includes both academic and non academic philosophers and a large number of female and minority thinkers whose work has been neglected It includes those intellectuals involved in the development of psychology pedagogy sociology anthropology education theology political science and several other fields before these disciplines came to be considered distinct from philosophy in the late nineteenth century Each entry contains a short biography of the writer an exposition and analysis of his or her doctrines and ideas a bibliography of writings and suggestions for further reading While all the major post Civil War philosophers are present the most valuable feature of this dictionary is its coverage of a huge range of less well known writers including hundreds of presently obscure thinkers In many cases the Dictionary of Modern American Philosophers offers the first scholarly treatment of the life and work of certain writers This book will be an indispensable reference work for scholars working on almost any aspect of modern American thought

Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue John C. Cavadini, Donald Wallenfang, 2019-08-21 What does Jesus have to do with Buddha What does Muhammad have to do with Krishna One of the most important tasks for theology in the twenty first century is interreligious dialogue Given the rapid process of globalization and the surge of information via the Internet travel and library networking today interreligious dialogue has become a necessary element within Christian theology that no longer can be avoided Evangelization as Interreligious Dialogue features eleven essays plus an extensive introduction that exercise a live conversation between religious others Divided into four thematic sections 1 Catholic approaches to interreligious dialogue 2 dialogues between Judaism and Christianity 3 dialogues between Islam and Christianity and 4 dialogues between Hinduism Buddhism and Christianity this volume conducts a sustained theological reflection on the current state of interreligious dialogue by signaling its hopeful promises and unrelenting challenges The reader will be invited to encounter the religious other firsthand and put his or her most cherished theological assumptions to the test This book aims to provoke an expansion of horizons for theological imagination as it exposes the basic dialectic of identity and difference as played out in the interaction between diverse religious beliefs practices and experiences
