The Origin of Religions B. K. Karkra, 2012 THE BOOK The book is an open eyed journey through the mystic world of faith It is an intellectually stimulating account of the birth of religions As animal for definite have no religions and intelligence is the dividing line between man and animal it should be amply clear that religions have risen out the thinking faculty of man These are about God and His creation alright but not from God though human brain itself is a gift from God The book traces the story of religions from the earliest times and tries to reach to the core of all major belief systems of the world Towards the end it draws a sort of balance sheet of the religions to form an idea what good and bad these have done to the mankind An effort has also been made to have a peep into their future The History of Religions Ugo Bianchi,1975 The Encyclopedia of World Religions Robert S. Ellwood,2008 Contains nearly 600 brief entries on the world s religious traditions Religions and Development Emma Tomalin,2013-07-03 Religion has been excluded from development studies for decades Religious traditions have contributed greatly towards development work yet major international players have tended to ignore its role Recent years have shown a noticeable shift in development policy practice and research to recognize religion as a relevant factor This text provides a comprehensive insight into different approaches towards the understanding the relationships between religions and development studies policy and practice It guides readers through current debates presenting explaining and critically evaluating a broad range of literature and locating it within a theoretical context The text explores the role of religion within development from positive contributions such as the important role that many faith based organizations play in education or health care to more complicated and contested notions of impact such as religiously inspired violence or gender inequality The book begins with three background chapters outlining the relevance of religions for development studies policy and practice and introducing the reader to the study of development and of religions Following these the focus then shifts to examine a number of thematic areas including religion gender and development and the implications of the rise of religion for mainstream development studies policy and practice in the 21st century Each chapter contains a range of features to assist undergraduate learning including learning objectives for each chapter discussion of key concepts summaries discussion questions further reading and websites The book also contains over sixty boxed case studies to provide further definition explanation and examples of the interactions between religions and development globally This innovative text presents religions as something that can both obstruct and aid development encouraging readers to engage critically with the multiple ways that religion impacts on both the conceptualization of development as well the resulting project interventions This will be of interest to undergraduate postgraduate students and scholars interested in religious studies development studies and the broader study of societies and cultures Living with Religious Diversity Sonia Sikka,Bindu Puri,Lori G. Beaman,2015-08-11 Looking beyond exclusively state oriented solutions to the management of religious diversity this book explores ways of fostering respectful non violent and welcoming social relations among religious communities It examines the question of how to balance religious diversity individual rights and freedoms with a common national identity and moral consensus The essays discuss the interface between state and civil society in secular countries and look at case studies from the the West and India They study themes such as religious education religious diversity pluralism inter religious relations and exchanges dalits and religion and issues arising from the lived experience of religious diversity in various countries The volume asserts that if religious violence crosses borders so do ideas about how to live together peacefully theological reflection on pluralism and lived practices of friendship across the boundaries of religious identity groupings Bringing together interdisciplinary scholarship from across the world the book will interest scholars and students of philosophy religious studies political science sociology and history Live Religious Issues of the Day Carroll Kendrick,1890 Religion and Societies Carlo Caldarola,2011-06-01 The series Religion and Society RS contributes to the exploration of religions as social systems both in Western and non Western societies in particular it examines religions in their differentiation from and intersection with other cultural systems such as art economy law and politics Due attention is given to paradigmatic case or comparative studies that exhibit a clear theoretical orientation with the empirical and historical data of religion and such aspects of religion as ritual the religious imagination constructions of tradition iconography or media In addition the formation of religious communities their construction of identity and their relation to society and the wider public are key issues of this series Death in World Religions Terje Oestigaard,2004

The Heartbeat of Indigenous Africa R. Sambuli Mosha, 2002-12-24 Empowered by findings and insights from the wit and wisdom of the indigenous Chaga educational system Dr Mosha contends that an authentic educational program in Tanzania and elsewhere should be holistic in its unrelenting quest to educate the entire person body mind and spirit He provides a comprehensive description of the indigenous schooling process and its underlying fundamental virtues and then proposes that modern education should give equal emphasis to both the spiritual development of students as well as to their intellectual growth in knowledge science and technology Dr Mosha argues that for its own advantage and survival education has to prioritize moral consciousness and responsibility in its students in order to attain academic excellence Without a consistent moral living and moral action by all who teach and learn education eventually plunges into hopeless mediocrity It becomes the proverbial salt which loses its saltiness This book provides several unique contributions to the academy First it illustrates how the Chaga people of N Tanzania cherish everyday experience and every here and now situation as teachable moments teaching moments and learning moments It is also uniquely rich in its description of stories riddles proverbs and rituals as powerful tools of holistic education Thirdly the book breaks ground by comprehensively articulating specific indigenous virtues such as reverence self control silence and thoughtfulness courage diligence in work and communality This book therefor makes a unique contribution in the areas of Indigenous Knowledge Spirituality Education African American Studies African Studies Religious Studies Anthropology et cetera The author s stories personal experiences and thick descriptions are so fundamental that every reader will rediscover in this book similar experiences in his her own life
