Brewer, 2021-09-21 Interreligious dialogue that strives for both hospitality and honest discussion of difference Is it possible to have both Is it possible for religious traditions to engage one another in a spirit of humility while also working together toward mutual descriptions of God and the world This is the goal of this book to find points at which each of the religious traditions are vulnerable and open enough to listen to each other and to help each other toward a shared description of reality If you share these concerns concerns for interfaith dialogue as well as for deeply held notions of conviction and truth then the invitation is open for mutual constructive engagement Passing Over and Returning Paul O. Ingram, 2013-10-23 In Passing Over and Returning Paul O Ingram describes his particular dialogue with the world s religions illustrated by his experience of passing over into Hinduism Buddhism Daoism and Confucianism Judaism and Islam and by his return to his home as a Lutheran Christian While religious diversity is not new neither are the questions posed by religious diversity What is new is that more and more people are actively engaged with the world s religions because more and more people are willing to be informed by insights found in religious traditions other than their own This is particularly true among progressive Christians But openness does not necessarily mean rejecting one's own tradition even though persons sometimes convert to another tradition or combine their original religious identity with the identity of another tradition Whether one returns to the home of one's own faith tradition after passing over or assumes a dual religious identity or converts to another tradition all persons engaged in interreligious dialogue undergo processes of creative transformation

African Traditional Religion Encounters Christianity John Chitakure, 2017-11-07 Right from the beginning of humankind God has never deprived a people of his grace and revelation In fact God uses people's environment and culture to communicate his will There is no single religion that can claim to have the exclusive possession of God's revelation for God is too immense to be confined within one faith Hence it was erroneous blasphemous and misleading for some of the early Christian missionaries to Africa to claim that they had brought God to Africa a mentality that implied the non-existence of God in Africa before their arrival Of course God was already in Africa but the missionaries either failed to discern his presence or just disregarded the traces of his existence This book explores the religious beliefs practices and values of the indigenous people of Africa at the time of the early missionaries' arrival with particular reference to the Shona people of Zimbabwe It also evaluates the extent of the missionaries' successes and challenges in converting Africans to Christianity It finally surveys how African Christians have remained attached to the indigenous religious beliefs that used to provide answers to their existential questions

Christian Encounters with Iran Sasan Tavassoli, 2011-04-30 The interface between the current Shi'ite landscape and Christian thinking is of the greatest significance for the shifting political and religious dynamics of the Middle East Sasan Tavassoli here examines Iranian Shi'ite thinkers encounters with Christian thought since the Islamic revolution of 1979 and provides insight into the cultural and intellectual climate surrounding Christian Muslim dialogue in contemporary Iran The literature on Christianity in Iran reveals a wide range of approaches and attitudes and Tavassoli demonstrates that traditional polemics are giving way to a more descriptive and subjective understanding of Christian thought He also studies Muslim Christian dialogue and research conducted and supported by governmental as well as non governmental organizations and offers a close examination with interviews of the work of three prominent liberal religious intellectuals Abdol Karim Soroush Mostafa Malekian and Mojtaba Shabestari Placing contemporary Shi'ite thought in the broad historical context of pre and post revolution Iran Tavassoli relates concrete religious cultural and socio political realities to the themes and orientations in the latest phase of the Shi'ite Islam Christianity encounter and offers fresh insight into the dynamism of contemporary Islam and the religious complexities of the Muslim world

Faith as Remembering Paul O. Ingram, 2017-11-06 Memories seldom happen in straight lines with chronological precision but occur most often in spirals Paul Ingram's essays collected in Faith as Remembering were created from memories These memories often in unpredictable ways pushed him to new insights about the nature of Christian faith insights often not desired always unexpected and always toward new directions of theological reflection Theologians all too often write with an unintentional and sometimes intentional universalism Ingram does not intend to write this way These essays reflect his memories and are the sources of the theological conclusions he draws as a historian of religions who now finds himself a practicing process theologian As a process theologian Ingram does not even argue that the conclusions drawn here will be ones he will affirm in the future All human knowledge is incomplete and there are always new surprises for anyone practicing the art of theological reflection But Ingram's hope is that the essays gathered together in Faith as Remembering will inspire readers to engage their memories as the foundation for drawing their own unique conclusions

The Process of Buddhist-Christian Dialogue Paul O Ingram, 2011-09-29 While process philosophers and theologians have written numerous essays on Buddhist Christian dialogue few have sought to expand the current Buddhist Christian dialogue into a trilogy by bringing the natural sciences into the discussion as a third partner This was the topic of Paul O Ingram's previous book Buddhist Christian Dialogue in an

Age of Science The thesis of the present work is that Buddhist Christian dialogue in all three of its forms conceptual social engagement and interior are interdependent processes of creative transformation Ingram appropriates the categories of Whitehead s process metaphysics as a means of clarifying how dialogue is now mutually and creatively transforming both Buddhism and Christianity Drawing also on the work of theologian John Hicks and philosopher of science Imre Lakatos Ingram develops an understanding of Buddhist Christian dialogue in the context of a religious pluralism that is both open and dynamic and methodologically rigorous Wide ranging and full of insight The Process of Buddhist Christian Dialogue will be invaluable to scholars and students of comparative religion
