Religions of the World, from Primitive Beliefs to Modern Faiths. General Editor: Geoffrey Parrinder. [1st U.S. Ed.] Edward Geoffrey Parrinder, 1971 Religion Dans L'histoire Michel Despland, Gérard Vallée, Canadian Corporation for Studies in Religion, 1992-03-03 The history of the concept of religion in Western tradition has intrigued scholars for years This important collection of eighteen essays brings further light to the ongoing debate Three of the invited participants W C Smith M Despland and E Feil has each previously written impressive books treating this subject the last two acknowledged the impact and continuing influence of Smith s work The Meaning and End of Religion An introduction and a recapitulation of Smith s contribution as a scholar set the stage for a retrospective look at the published literature Contributors then examine the transformation of words the classical religio to the modern religion particularities of religion in nineteenth century France Troeltsch s concept of religion the study of religion from an Asian point of view and the categorization of World Religions The concluding essays elaborate contemporary anthropological cross disciplinary semiological deconstructive and psychoanalytical methodological approaches to the concept and study of religion Exploring critically different aspects of the concept and study of religion these provocative essays typically reflect the methodological pluralism currently existing in the field of Religious Studies Of interest to scholars and students alike this collection also contains a complete bibliography of W C Smith s publications Theories of Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, Jonathan Miles-Watson, 2006 This book provides a comprehensive selection of readings that relate to and explore the definition of religion The texts come from a wide range of approaches unified both by the questions they are addressing and their broadly social scientific perspective The disciplines covered include anthropology phenomenology psychology and sociology The editors have also included some key texts relating to the feminist approach to and critique of religion The first section of the book includes some of the foundational texts such as materials by Marx Freud and Durkheim The remaining sections look at more recent discussions of the issues from the different disciplinary perspectives Each reading is introduced by a biographical sketch of the author The book also includes introductory discussions to each section that both raise the key issues developed in a particular discipline and address the disciplinary approaches from a more critical stance Theories of Religion A Reader is an invaluable critical resource accessible to a broad audience as well as students of theology and religious studies Edward Burnett Tylor, Religion and Culture Paul-François Tremlett, Graham Harvey, Liam T. Sutherland, 2017-09-21 Through revisiting and challenging what we think we know about the work of Edward Burnett Tylor a founding figure of anthropology this volume explores new connections and insights that link Tylor and his work to present concerns in new and important ways At the publication of Primitive Culture in 1871 Tylor was at the centre of anthropological research on religion and culture but today

Tylor's position in the anthropological canon is rarely acknowledged. Edward Burnett Tylor's Religion and Culture does not claim to present a definitive new Tylor. The old Tylor, the founder of British anthropology, the definer of religion, the intellectualist, the evolutionist, the liberal, the utilitarian, the avatar of white Protestant rationalism, the Tylor of the canon remains. Part I explores debates and contexts of Tylor's lifetime, while the chapters in Part II explore a series of new Tylors, including Tylor the ethnographer and Tylor the Spiritualist, re-writing the legacy of the founder of anthropology in the process. Edward Burnett Tylor's Religion and Culture is essential reading for anyone interested in the study of religion and the anthropology of religion.

Religion Seth Daniel Kunin, 2003. Over the course of the twentieth century, the way we understand the religious experience has been transformed. Various thinkers and intellectual approaches have shaped the ways in which scholars examine rituals, symbols, and belief systems. In Religious Truth Robert Cummings Neville, 2001-01-01. Explores religious truth in a range of world religions and discusses the issue and philosophical implications of comparison itself. The World's Religions: The Study of Religion, Traditional and New Religion Peter Clarke, Stewart Sutherland, 2002-11. Examines the primitive, traditional, non-mainstream religion, and also 20th-century sects such as the Moonies and Scientology. Looks at the nature of religion, the general philosophical issues. Written by international specialists.

Wilderness in Mythology and Religion Laura Feldt, 2012-10-01. Wilderness is one of the most abiding creations in the history of religions. It has a long and seminal history and is of contemporary relevance in wildlife preservation and climate discourses. Yet it has not previously been subject to scrutiny or theorising from a cross-cultural study of religions perspective. What are the specific relations between the world's religions and imagined and real wilderness areas? The wilderness is often understood as a domain void of humans, opposed to civilization, but the analyses in this book complicate and question the dualism of previous theoretical grids and offer new perspectives on the interesting multiplicity of the wilderness and religion nexus. This book thus addresses the need for cross cultural anthropological and history of religions analyses by offering in depth case studies of the use and functions of wilderness spaces in a diverse range of contexts including but not limited to ancient Greece early Christian asceticism Old Norse religion the shamanism Buddhism encounter in Mongolia contemporary paganism and wilderness spirituality in the US It advances research on religious spatialities cosmologies and ideas of wild nature and brings new understanding of the role of religion in human interaction with the world Comparative Religion Louis Henry Jordan,1905 The Reconstruction of Religion Charles Abram Ellwood,1922 A selected list of books in English suggested for collateral reading p 319 324
