Religions In Dialogue From Theocracy To Democracy:

Religions in Dialogue Alan Race, Ingrid Shafer, 2017-11-30 This title was first published in 2002 Judaism Christianity and Islam as Abrahamic religions share much theological common ground and the momentum for dialogue between them at theological levels has greatly increased in recent decades This book explores the relationship between religion and the modern democratic state from the perspective of these three monotheistic traditions It investigates how the three religions in dialogue might overcome their historic antagonism as a prelude to working for the development of the global common good As part of the test of religious ideals some of the contributions bring theory down to earth by examining the role of religion in three democratic states with different histories Turkey Indonesia India and also in relation to a culture of human rights Drawing together leading Muslim Christian and Jewish authors from America Europe and Asia the book presents a rare collaboration of faiths and ideas to make a contribution to studies of inter religious dialogue and the changing role of religion in the democratic state

Religious Organizations and Democratization Tun-jen Cheng, Deborah A. Brown, 2015-03-26 Since the terrorist attacks on 9 11 the political roles of religious institutions and groups have captured international attention This book examines how religious institutions and organizations in various Asian countries are influencing democratic development and the shaping of government policies Religious Organizations and Democratization covers Taiwan Hong Kong Mainland China Korea Thailand the Philippines Malaysia Indonesia and Japan The chapters specifically address the engagement of Christian Buddhist Muslim and other religious organizations in the advancement and or hindrance of democratization in the region The contributors consider such questions as Why have some religious organizations played a decisive role in democratic transitions while others remained politically dormant and other still acted in conservative alliances to block democratic development Why did some religious organizations that once were active and instrumental to democratic change lose their political vitality as soon as civil liberties were successfully introduced And why did other religious organizations irrespective of their roles in the process of democratic transition emerge as key political forces in the civil society

Ways of Meeting and the Theology of Religions David Cheetham, 2016-02-24 Exploring the different points of view and tones of voice adopted in theology for the meeting of religions this book presents a contemporary philosophical and theological engagement with key issues of how different faiths might meet of comparative philosophy of religion of the use of aesthetics of inter religious ethics and issues relating to the self Providing a critical evaluation of contemporary liberal post liberal and conservative voices and an engagement with movements such as Radical Orthodoxy and Scriptural Reasoning to mention a few this book highlights the use of the creative imagination and explores new ideas for the meeting of religions

Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism David Pitman, 2016-02-17 Twentieth Century Christian Responses to Religious Pluralism begins with the recognition that the traditional three fold typology adopted by Christians in responding to other living world religions is no longer adequate and offers a much more sophisticated and developed approach This is accomplished with particular reference to ten key Twentieth Century theologians each of whom had significant influence in the field of inter religious studies both during their lifetime and beyond The author rejects the exclusivism and triumphalism of traditional Christian approaches and argues strongly and persuasively that the future for inter religious relationships lies in what he describes as classical pluralism and in an understanding of the importance of difference for inter faith dialogue Presenting an accessible introduction to the contemporary issues and challenges facing all those engaged in the further development of inter faith relationships dialogue and partnership between the world religions Pitman argues that the future of world peace and prosperity depends on the outcome John Hick's Religious Pluralism in Global Perspective Sharada Sugirtharajah,2023-01-01 This volume contains fresh scholarly contributions to mark the birth centenary of John Hick the internationally well known philosopher of religion whose works continue to have significant global relevance in today s religiously diverse and conflict ridden world His writings have reset the parameters of religious pluralism Up till now Hick s religious pluralism has been mainly seen in relation to the Western context where Christianity is the predominant religion This volume includes both Western and non Western engagement with his thinking in contexts such as Japan China Korea Nigeria and India where Christianity is a minority religion with little political power Its distinctiveness lies in widening the debate on religious pluralism by bringing Hick s pluralistic hypothesis into a constructive cross cultural and interreligious conversation with scholars of Hinduism Jainism Daoism Judaism Christianity Islam and African traditional religions In doing so this collection examines how Hick s philosophy of religious pluralism has been received appropriated and appraised by these scholars It has been appreciated and critiqued in equal measure and continues to impact on current thinking on religious pluralism This volume makes a significant contribution to the debate initiated by Hick My Journey as a Religious Pluralist Alan Race,2021-06-02 Christian theology of religions remains a central component of the Christian response to global religious diversity In the face of theological refusals to engage with issues of religious absolutism and new impressions from interreligious encounters this book seeks to inject fresh energy into a debate that has stalled in recent years The encounter between Christians and people of different religious persuasions raises questions of how to interpret Christian absolutism for a new and developing consciousness that values the experience of the religious other This book argues that interreligious dialogue interreligious ethical collaboration and comparative studies all point to a pluralist future where we are obliged to recognize the spiritual authenticity of the experience animating many religions Building friendly relations between faith communities is to be applauded but it is insufficient in the face of the many challenges confronting the global human community Whether we are speaking of cooperation in civil society peace in the world or the overarching ecological crisis encompassing the planet as a whole the acceptance of the diversity of religions as a positive religious value will strengthen the sense of global responsibility that is needed Shari'a As Discourse Lisbet Christoffersen,Jørgen S. Nielsen,2016-04-01 This volume exposes some of the various issues raised in relation to Muslim communities in Europe by putting the intellectual and legal traditions into dialogue It brings together a number of scholars of Shari a and Islamic law with counterparts from the parallel European disciplines of hermeneutics philosophy and jurisprudence to explore how the processes of theological legal thinking have been expressed and are being expressed in a more or less common intellectual framework It provides a valuable reference for all those interested in exploring how Muslims and non Muslims view Shari a law looking at ways the European legal systems can provide some form of accommodation with Muslim customs

Religious Pluralism and the Modern World S. Sugirtharajah,2011-12-13 A fascinating collection of essays by leading scholars in the field engage with the idea of religious pluralism mooted by John Hick to offer incisive insights on religious pluralism and related themes and to address practical aspects such as interreligious spirituality and worship in a multi faith context Conviction and Conflict Michael Nazir-Ali,2006-04-26 Bishop Michael Nazir Ali as an authority on the r le of religion in conflict and peace making Here he gets to the roots of such conflict Democratic Citizenship Education in Non-Western Contexts Serhiy Kovalchuk,Anatoli Rapoport,2020-06-09 This book examines the issues of theorizing citizenship education research in non Western societies that have embarked on democratic development after the fall of authoritarianism and colonialism Despite a proliferation of studies on citizenship and citizenship education in non Western contexts there has been limited theorization of this research and little discussion of the applicability to such contexts of Western theoretical frameworks This volume addresses these issues through empirical case studies of citizenship conceptions practices and education in South and West Africa Latin America Central Europe and the Middle East The contributors to the volume call into question the uncritical application of Western theoretical frameworks to non Western societies and advocate for the development and wider application of new paradigms rooted in local processes and indigenous knowledge to better understand and theorize citizenship and citizenship education in such societies This volume will be of interest to scholars researchers and practitioners working in the field of comparative and international citizenship education

It was originally published as a special issue of Compare: A Journal of Comparative and International Education In Response to the Religious Other Marianne Moyaert, 2014-09-24 In the vast collection of his writings the French philosopher Paul Ricoeur only sporadically raised the issue of interreligious dialogue In this book comparative theologian Marianne Moyaert argues that Ricoeur's hermeneutical philosophy offers valuable signposts for a better understanding of the complexities related to interreligious dialogue By revisiting the key insights of Ricoeur's wider oeuvre from the perspective of interfaith dialogue Moyaert elaborates a Ricoeurian interreligious hermeneutic In Response to the Religious Other provides a coherent interreligious reading of Ricoeur's philosophy of religion his hermeneutical anthropology his ethical hermeneutics Moyaert shows that Ricoeur makes an exceptionally rewarding conversation partner for anyone wishing to explore the complex issues associated with interreligious dialogue This book is essential for studies of hermeneutics ethics religious philosophy global cooperation and hospitality comparative theology and religious identity Forgiveness, Peacemaking, and Reconciliation David K. Ngaruiya, Rodney L. Reed, 2020-12-31 In this fifth volume from the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology contributors explore forgiveness peacemaking and reconciliation as necessary prerequisites for human flourishing Ranging from biblical studies and church history to medical ethics and public theology this collection offers a rich diversity of voices and perspectives as each author reflects on God's heart for conflict alleviation within the contexts of their own communities nations histories and academic disciplines Taken together these contributions offer profound insight into both the particularities and generalities of God's transformative healing work in the world and how we the church are called to partner with that work in Africa and beyond Islam and Politics in Bangladesh Mubashar Hasan, 2020-01-27 This book conceptualizes the politics of Bangladesh through an Islamic concept called ummah or the global brotherhood of Muslims It demonstrates that against the backdrop of geopolitics capitalism and free flow of ideas localization of this global religious concept at individual level institutional level major party platforms and state has cemented the current political condition in Bangladesh in which religiosity religious intolerance Islamization and extremism take place By exploring the effects of ummah in Bangladeshi politics this book shows how major political parties have mainstreamed political Islam in the country The book rejects the long standing scholarly claim of religious secular distinction in Bangladeshi politics and argues that with most Muslim dominated states there are no major secular parties in Bangladesh There are only Islamic parties which are more or less Islamic The purely rational domain of politics in Bangladesh is long lost and political Islam sets the framework for politics in the country The reason behind this logic of Bangladeshi politics is formed contained and expanded by ummah Religious Minorities, Islam and the Law Al Khanif, 2020-09-03 This book examines the legal conundrum of reconciling international human rights law in a Muslim majority country and identifies a trajectory for negotiating the protection of religious minorities within Islam The work explores the history of religious minorities within Islam in Indonesia which contains the world's largest Muslim population as well as the present day ways by which the government may address issues through reconciling international human rights law and Islamic law Given the context of multiple sets of religious norms in Indonesia this is a complicated endeavour In addition to amending and enacting human rights norms the government is also negotiating with the long history of Islamisation in Indonesia Particularly relevant is the practice of customary law which puts the rights of community over individualism This practice directly affects the rights of religious minorities within Islam Readers especially those conducting research will also be provided with information and references which are relevant to the field of human rights especially in relation to religious minorities and international law The book will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers in the fields of International Human Rights Law Law and Religion and Islamic Studies

European Muslims, Civility and Public Life Paul Weller, Ihsan Yilmaz, 2012-02-16 Assessment of the influence and impact of the Islamic scholar and activist Fethullah G len and those who are inspired by him on contemporary Islam Faith and Human Rights Richard Amesbury, G. M. Newlands, This book argues that the idea of human rights is not exclusively religious but that its realization in practice requires urgent action on the part of people of all faiths and of none Acknowledging the ambiguous moral legacy of their own tradition Christianity the authors draw on christological themes to draft blueprints for a culturally sensitive theology of human rights Communicative Freedom Willem Fourie, 2012 Freedom is modernity s most important promise but also its most controversial promise No other concept has led to so many expectations disappointments changes and destruction This book examines German theologian and ethicist Wolfgang Huber s concept of communicative freedom which is proposed as a contribution to the debate on freedom within modernity It is argued that communicative freedom integrates radically different understandings of freedom into one comprehensive concept This concept allows for a constructive and critical affirmation of modernity Series Theology in the Public Square Theologie in der Öffentlichkeit Vol 3 Jesus Christ and the Religions Hans Waldenfels, 2009
