men      The Religion of Man Rabindranath Tagore,1981      Religion and Man Leif Guiteau,2014-06-13 Have you ever questioned religion What makes your faith the correct one Perhaps another belief system has it right instead The fact is many people know little about their own faith let alone other faiths Religion and Man Our Story offers an illuminating peek inside major world religions and how they developed From primitive tribal beliefs to modern organized religion the history of man s search for answers is as diverse and varied as the many faiths that have existed Why did belief systems develop in the first place And what prompted their evolution through time Religion and Man Our Story provides answers to these common questions with this easy to read primer on comparative religious thought Appropriate for everyone from the casual reader to the aspiring theologian the book begins by examining the creation of our universe through to the dawn of mankind It goes on to explain in simple terms how religious thought evolved into the array of belief systems we know today The confusion      Man's Religions John Boyer Noss,1956      Religions and Religions Panikkar, Raimon ,2015-05-31

SOCIOLOGY OF RELIGIONS MIR MOHAMMAD IBRAHIM,2008-04-17 Considerable number of books and research articles have been published on the concept of religion and comparative religion But rarely has any religious scholar elaborated the contribution of different religions from sociological point of view This well researched and erudite study discusses the concept of religion with special reference to Dr Ali Shariati an eminent sociologist and Muslim scholar of Iran He brought forth the unique dimensions of the comparative study of religions The text provides a complete sociological background of various religions and stresses their contributions In addition different Islamic ideals and thoughts which need to be understood in modernist s religious perspective are discussed For example the concepts of Imamat Ijtihad Enjoining good and forbidding evil and Hajj are dealt from a sociological viewpoint Finally even the less known dimensions of Islamic ideologies are explained The book is intended for the postgraduate students of Islamic Studies Research scholars and postgraduate students of philosophy may also find the book useful In addition any reader who is interested in sociology of religion and in particular the ideology and other aspects of Islam will benefit from this book      Religions and the Cruel

Europe János Wildmann,2012-10 The European religious landscape is changing fundamentally Are we experiencing a decline revival recycling or transformation of religion Moreover will Europe become a museum of religions or a laboratory of new religious experiences A group of experts from different disciplines and nationalities meeting in Pecs Hungary the European Capital of Culture 2010 examines in detail the contrasting developments around the religious lives of individuals communities institutions emerging from processes of secularisation relativisation and privatisation believing without belonging What emerges is a picture of very contrasting mega trends with positive and negative aspects characterised for example by a sharp decline in traditional situations as well as the emergence of new situations rich of flurries which are featured mostly under the so called creative minorities On which heritage of ultimate values does the EU and its member states want to base the cohesion of the new society while respecting cultural diversities and religious pluralism What happens in the world of religions cannot be side lined if we are looking for an appropriate response Important indications can be provided by the way in which the heads of religious institutions as well as communities and individuals live in possible dialogue in a European society that is increasingly multicultural multi ethnic and multi religious The analysis of on going experiences in Europe shows that a truly constructive dialogue can give a vital contribution to the strengthening of social cohesion and democracy But what are the real terms in this confrontation In other words what is tolerable And what is acceptable European experts who have worked with a multidisciplinary and systemic approach of the analysis of these phenomena attended the initiatives of the European Research Group R I P E Religious Innovation and Pluralism in 21st Century Europe which was founded in 2006 by P

The Catholic Doctrine of Non-Christian Religions Miikka Ruokanen, 2016-05-18 In the Second Vatican Council 1962-65 the Catholic Church for the first time recognized non Christian religions as entities which the Church should respect and with which Christians should enter into dialogue There are however conflicting views in Catholic interpretations of Conciliar theology to what extent did the Council see other religions as means to salvation The author offers The Catholic Doctrine of non Christian Religions according to the Second Vatican Council as the first comprehensive and analytic piece of research on Conciliar teaching concerning the nature of other faiths His study is based on the original Latin and covers Conciliar and pre conciliar documents with special focus on the Declaration on the relation of the Church to Non Christian religions Nostra aetate In his detailed and careful analysis Ruokanen demonstrates that Vaticanum Secundum understood non Christian religions as naturally good entities part of human culture Religions express in many ways and to varying degrees the natural cognition of God and of natural moral law Except for Judaism they do not however possess the status of being considered channels of divine revelation or salvific grace The seeds of truth present in other faiths must be purified and perfected by the fullness of grace and truth given in Christ and entrusted to the Church

argues that the renewed rise of religion is harmful to women's human rights. The book seeks to rekindle the criticism of religion as the founding ideology of patriarchy. Focusing on the three monotheistic religions: Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, this book examines common anti-women attitudes such as male headship, impurity of women, the need to control women's bodies, and their modern manifestations in multicultural Western states. It points to the incorporation of religious law into legal systems, faith schools, and campaigns led by Christian and Islamic organisations against women's rights at the U.N. and explains how religious rights threaten to subvert women's rights. Including highly topical chapters on the burka and the covering of women and polygamy, this text questions the ideology of multiculturalism which shields religion from criticism by demanding respect for culture and faith whilst ignoring the harm that women suffer from religion. Man's Dominion is an incisive and polemic text that will be of interest to students of gender studies, religion, and politics.
