Religious Education In A Time Of Rapid Change:

Global Perspectives on Catholic Religious Education in Schools Michael T. Buchanan, Adrian-Mario Gellert, 2019-03-01 This book shares global perspectives on Catholic religious education in schools chiefly focusing on educational and curriculum issues that take into account the theology and the pedagogy which support learning in connection with Catholic religious education Further it offers insights into the distinctive contribution that Catholic religious education makes to religious education and education in general across diverse schooling contexts Bringing together insights from leading scholars and experts on Catholic religious education around the globe the book offers an essential reference guide for all those involved in researching planning and designing curricula for Catholic religious education as well as developing related theories in the field

Special Religious Education in Australia and its Value to Contemporary Society Zehavit Gross, Suzanne D. Rutland, 2021-02-22 This book explores the advantages of and challenges concerning Special Religious Education SRE in multicultural Australia and argues for the need for General Religious Education GRE as well Through the lens of the most recent scholarship and drawing on an in depth qualitative study and specific case studies the book examines the current debate on the role of religious education within government schools It addresses key concepts of values education spirituality health and wellbeing and cultural and religious identity It analyses why it is important to retain SRE together with GRE as government policy It explores highly relevant controversial and contested issues regarding SRE including the 30% of Australia's population who declare themselves as having no religion and brings fresh insights to the table While secularization has increased in both the national and international spheres there has also been an increase in fundamentalism within religious beliefs Events such as the September 11 terror attacks and the more recent mass shootings by white supremacists and eco fascists in Christchurch New Zealand and Pittsburgh and San Diego in the USA are reminders that religion is still a major actor in the twenty first century This poses new challenges for the relationship between church and state and demonstrates the need to revisit the role of religious education within government schools While the importance of GRE is generally acknowledged SRE has increasingly come under attack by some researchers and teacher and parent bodies as being inappropriate and contradictory to the values of the postmodern world On the other hand the key stakeholders from all the faith traditions in Australia wish to retain the SRE classes in government schools The book addresses this burning issue and shows that it is relevant not only for Australia but also globally

Reasons for Living Marisa Crawford, Graham Rossiter, 2006-11-01 Reasons for Living begins by exploring the development and psychological function of meaning identity and spirituality in the lives of young people This exploration can contribute significantly to the professional background of those engaged in the education and care of youth in various contexts The book then focuses on what it means to educate young people in meaning identity and spirituality Implications are considered for three school contexts the spiritual and moral dimension to the general curriculum in public and independent schools religious education in religious schools and state based Religion Studies courses Reasons for Living makes a much needed contribution to the philosophy of education by discussing the links between education and young people s spiritual and moral development It also provides new insights and approaches to values education and religious education Areas of fundamental importance in Australian education have long been held back not only by the gap between theory and practice but also by the very complexities of young people s personal development in contemporary Western Culture Reasons for Living offers a constructive and practical way forward

The Future of Protestant Religious Education in an Age of Globalization Hyun-Sook Kim, Richard R. Osmer, Friedrich Schweitzer, 2018 Global developments have come to shape our lives economically culturally and even religiously Young people growing up in a global age have to be prepared for living in this age Economic and technological demands are important but there also is a need for personal and social orientations that go beyond them This book provides both insights into the Protestant tradition in education as well as its meaning for the future of the church for society and for individual persons It follows an innovative approach by combining perspectives from three different contexts Germany with its important Protestant starting points in the Reformation the United States as a country which has been strongly influenced by Protestantism and South Korea with its comparatively young Protestant tradition The book is based on a combination of international points of view on transnational cooperation on comparative insights and on making constant reference to a global horizon Its presentations and ideas not only address globalization as a driving force behind many future developments but also demonstrate an exercise of global educational thinking Hyun Sook Kim is professor of Christian Education at the College of Theology Yonsei University Korea

Steward of a Living Tradition John Sullivan, 2025-05-05 This book explores what is entailed in serving as a steward of the living tradition of the Christian faith in the world of education It examines tradition as a resource leadership education as a spiritual endeavor curriculum and Christian learning and the task of connecting tradition to culture John Sullivan engages with historical perspectives and contemporary professional and cultural realities in addressing intellectual and spiritual dimensions of Christian education and the endeavor to make tradition both accessible and meaningful to those for whom it is unfamiliar Themes pervading the book include fostering a critical appreciation for and a creative appropriation of the living tradition of Christianity fluency and flexibility in sharing that tradition vocation and vulnerability and a striving for interconnectedness and integration in teaching and learning at school and university

Inspiring Faith in Schools Marius Felderhof, 2016-05-23 Inspiring Faith in Schools addresses the privileging of secularism that appears to affect RE in countries influenced by modern western thought The authors argue that a more engaging form of RE would emerge if religious life were to inhabit centre stage Currently religious faith is made to hover in the wings awaiting the call to face the inquisitorial challenge of the modern day enquirer The consequent relationship between pupil and the Divine as the purpose of study is then already intrinsically irreligious as indicated in the Book of Job by putting God in the dock whereas it is the pupil who should be cross examining his or her life What are the ways of exciting and engaging the young so that they begin to entertain the possibility of religious life as a genuine option for themselves Leading scholars in philosophy and theology from the UK Australia Canada and the USA come together to address these questions together with RE experts Marius Felderhof writes an Afterword summing up the challenges faced by such a re visioning of RE Whatever Happened to Religious Education? Penny

Public Sphere reveals through an analysis of theory and practice that religious education is resting on historic and persistent assumptions about both religion and education Drawing on work from Arendt and Weil new ideas emerge regarding religious education s constituent elements education and religion It offers a new and timely proposal for religious education and argues for a broader understanding of religion bringing a fresh contribution to current discussions regarding the relationship between religion and education in the public sphere Some practical considerations emerging from theory developing through the earlier parts of the book are presented in the final section including the teacher s role and what should guide religious education curriculum At a time when there is raised interest in the role of religion in the public sphere internationally this book aims to contribute something new both theoretically and practically to discussions regarding the role of religion in education is and relevant to educational contexts worldwide This book will be vital reading for academics and researchers in the fields of religion and religious studies education philosophy of education and religious education and will also be of great interest to teachers and policy makers working in the field of religious education in the public sphere Basics of Religious Education Martin Rothgangel,Thomas Schlag,Friedrich Schweitzer,Gottfried Adam,Rainer Lachmann,2014-05-14 This volume offers an introduction to all questions of teaching Religious Education as a school subject and as an academic discipline related to this subject The chapters cover most of the aspects that religion teachers have to face in their work as well as the theoretical background necessary for this task The volume is a textbook for students and teachers of religious education be it in school or in an academic context who are looking for reliable information on this field The book has proven its usefulness in German speaking countries This volume is the English translation of the German Compendium of Religious Education edited by Gottfried Adam and Rainer Lachmann The present English version is based on the 2012 edition which aims for a most current representation of the field The background of the book is Protestant but its outlook is clearly ecumenical and questions of interreligious education are considered in many of the chapters The compendium continues to be widely used in Germany Austria and Switzerland as an introduction to the field and as a handbook for students who are preparing for their final exams The English edition makes this compendium available to students and colleagues in other countries

Kindness Wars Noel A. Cazenave,2023-09-15 Kindness Wars rescues our understanding of kindness from the clutches of an intellectually and morally myopic popular psychology and returns it to the stage of big ideas in keeping with the important Enlightenment era debates about human nature and possibilities Cazenave conceptualizes kindness not just as a benevolent feeling a caring thought or a generous action but as a worldview a theory or an ideology that explains who we are and justifies how we treat others Here kindness wars refer to the millennia old kindness theory and ideological conflicts over what kind of societies humans can and should have The book s title denotes the two types of kindness wars it analyzes conflict over 1 whether to be kind or not i e the conflicts between kindness and other societal values and ideologies and 2 what it means to be kind i e the wars within kindness over different ideas as to what it means to be kind and to whom Using a conflict theoretical perspective Kindness Wars examines the history of the kindness concept its many struggles with opposing notions of our true nature and possibilities and what the lessons of that history and those battles offer us toward the development of a large robust and politically engaged conceptualization of kindness ICIIS 2019 JM Muslimin, Kusmana Kusmana, Yusuf Durachman, Husni Teja Sukmana, Dewi Khairani, 2020-05-04 The event to provide a scientific forum that will appeal to them individual scholars practitioners policy makers especially post graduate students to present their experiences research findings sharing ideas and experiences For the nature of the object being discussed is interdisciplinary the Post Graduate School SPS of Syarif Hidayatullah State Islamic University Jakarta is called to organize International Colloquium on Interdisciplinary Studies 2019 ICIIS 2019 with the theme Moslem Societies and Social Transformation In 2019 this event has been held in 7 9 November 2019 in the Post Graduate School of Syarif Hidayattullah State Islamic University Jakarta It is the conjunction with the 3rd International Conference on Quran and Hadith Studies ICONQUHAS2019 The event is jointly organized and hosted by Postgraduate School Faculty of Theology Ushuluddin of Syarif Hidayattullah State Islamic University Jakarta Paramadina University and Islamic University of Jakarta The conference papers from any kind of stakeholders and interdisciplinary studies related with Religion and Social Related Studies Each contributed paper was refereed before being accepted for publication The double blind peer reviewed was used in the paper selection The
