Religious Ethnic Minority Politics In:

Ethnic Minorities, Political Competition, and Democracy Jan Rovny, 2024-09-24 Ethnic minorities make contemporary Europe increasingly diverse The wisdom in research on ethnicity is that it is a trouble maker disrupting programmatic politics prioritizing group identity over ideology polity over policy principle over compromise In this book Jan Rovny approaches ethnic politics as normal politics and investigates the ideological potential of ethnicity He shows that ethnic minorities often search for group preservation by championing liberal rights that would protect them from the tyranny of the majority This translates into broader ideological preferences and political behavior including the formation of liberal political poles which in turn configures political cleavages shapes party systems and informs the absorption of new political issues Ultimately the presence of ethnic minorities can be a force for liberal democracy Simultaneously ethnic liberalism is circumstantial as conditional factors cross pressure ethnic minority search for rights and liberties potentially attenuating ethnic liberalism and inducing exclusionary particularism This book combines the study of ethnic politics with research on electoral behavior and party competition while comparing minorities and majorities in eastern Europe The book analyzes existing and new data using mixed experimental quantitative and qualitative methods The empirical chapters in the book are organized into two parts one focusing on large N comparative analyses while the other presents three in depth case studies on interwar Czechoslovakia contemporary Slovakia and contemporary Estonia Transformations in Governance is a major academic book series from Oxford University Press It is designed to accommodate the impressive growth of research in comparative politics international relations public policy federalism and environmental and urban studies concerned with the dispersion of authority from central states to supranational institutions subnational governments and public private networks It brings together work that advances our understanding of the organization causes and consequences of multilevel and complex governance The series is selective containing annually a small number of books of exceptionally high quality by leading and emerging scholars The series is edited by Liesbet Hooghe and Gary Marks of the University of North Carolina Chapel Hill and Walter Mattli of the University of Oxford

The Politics of Religion in South and Southeast Asia

Ishtiaq Ahmed, 2011-05-04 The notion of a politics of religion refers to the increasing role that religion plays in the politics of the contemporary world This book presents comparative country case studies on the politics of religion in South and South Asia including India Pakistan and Indonesia The politics of religion calls into question the relevance of modernist notions of secularism and democracy with the emphasis instead on going back to indigenous roots in search of authentic ideologies and models of state and nation building Within the context of the individual countries chapters focus on the consequences that politics of religion has on inclusive nation building democracy and the rights of individuals minorities and women The book makes a contribution to both the theoretical and conceptual literature on the politics of religion as well as shed light on the implications and ramifications of the politics of religion on contemporary South Asian and South East Asian countries It is of interest to students and scholars of South and South East Asian Studies as well as Comparative Politics Religion and Politics in International Relations Timothy Fitzgerald, 2011-10-27 Scholars in International Relations concerned with religion and its relations to world politics are rhetorically constructing a powerful modern myth A component of this myth is that religion is inherently violent and irrational unless controlled by the secular state which is inherently rational and only reluctantly violent Timothy Fitzgerald discusses how in this modern myth religion appears as a force of nature which either assists or threatens the sacred secular order of things and how religion is portrayed as a kind of universal essence which takes many forms its recent most dangerous manifestation being Islamic terrorism This book illustrates that the essential distinction between irrational religion and rational secular politics appears as an unquestioned preconception on the basis of which policy is conducted countries invaded and wars fought Arguing that this rhetorical construction of religion provides the foundation for faith in the rationality of modern liberal capitalism Fitzgerald demonstrates how a historically contingent discourse has been transformed into a powerful set of global assumptions Ethnic Minorities and Politics in Post-Socialist Southeastern Europe Sabrina P. Ramet, Marko Valenta, 2016-09-22 Southeast European politics cannot be understood without taking ethnic minorities into account This book provides a comprehensive introduction to the politics of ethnic minorities examining both their political parties and issues of social distance migration and ethnic boundaries as well as issues related to citizenship and integration Coverage includes detailed analyses of Hungarian minority parties in Romania Albanian minority parties in Macedonia Serb minority parties in Croatia Bosniak minority parties in Serbia and various minority parties in Montenegro as well as the Movement for Rights and Freedoms a largely Turkish party in Bulgaria

Religious and Ethnic Minority Politics in South Asia Dharendra K. Vajpeyi, Yogendra K. Malik, 1989 Religious Politics in Turkey Ceren Lord, 2018-11-08 Presents an account of the rise of Erdogan's AKP showing how the politicisation of religion has roots in the period of early nation building in Turkey Religion as a Political Resource Miriam Schader, 2017-01-02 Miriam Schader shows that migrants can use religion as a resource for political involvement in their new country of residence but under certain circumstances only The author analyses the role religious networks and symbols play for the politicization and participation of Muslim and Christian migrants from sub Saharan Africa in Berlin and Paris Against the widely held belief that Islam is a political religion in itself this study demonstrates that Christian migrants draw on their religion for political action more easily than their Muslim counterparts It also highlights that it is not religion in general which helps migrants get politically active but particular forms of religious organisations and particular theological elements

Language, Religion and Politics in North India Paul R. Brass, 2005 This book is recognized as a classic study both of the politics of language and religion in India and of ethnic and nationalist movements in general It received overwhelmingly favorable reviews across disciplinary and international boundaries at first publication characterized as a masterly conceptual analysis of language religion ethnic groups and nationhood a monumental work of interest to all political scientists one that should be required reading for any politically concerned person in the United Kingdom from a TLS review a work whose value and importance can scarcely be overstated with no competitor in the same class The Political Representation of Immigrants and Minorities Karen Bird, Thomas Saalfeld, Andreas M. Wüst, 2010-10-06 In 2005 almost 700 000 immigrants acquired the citizenship of a member state of the European Union over 600 000 became US citizens nearly 100 000 became Australians and approximately 200 000 Canadians 2005 was not an exceptional year During the past decades many advanced liberal democracies have become more ethnically diverse societies This book breaks new ground in the analysis of the political representation of immigrants and visible minorities both theoretically and empirically It examines the upward trend in migrant and minority representation and demonstrates that there remain crucial differences across liberal democracies in the timing of these developments in channels of access for minority representatives in the policy focus and outcomes of minority representation in the nature of the connections between minority representatives and minority communities and in the nature of their relationships with constituents at large Part I analyses immigrants and visible minorities as voters who must be the starting point of any analysis of political representation Part II deals with the stage of candidate selection within political parties a crucial and under researched stage in the process of political representation Part III deals with immigrants and members of visible minorities once elected to parliament and includes analyses of the Canadian Parliament the German Bundestag MPs in the United Kingdom and Members of the United States Congress The book will of interest to students and scholars of migration and ethnicity studies and political science especially those with an interest in political representation democratic institutions voting behaviour party organisation legislative behaviour and comparative politics Political Parties of Eastern Europe: A Guide to Politics in the Post-communist Era Janusz Bugajski, 2020-09-10 This comprehensive one volume guide to politics in Eastern Europe provides a wealth of information on the region The author outlines the emergent political spectrum of parties and coalitions which are described in the 20 country chapters that make up the heart of the book Parties are classified across the political spectrum and discussed individually in terms of programs leadership and political activity Tables at the end of each country chapter present basic political data and electoral results A concluding essay evaluates democratic development in the region State, Religion and Muslims Melek Saral, Şerif Onur Bahçecik, 2020-03-02 State Religion and Muslims Between Discrimination and Protection at the Legislative Executive and Judicial Levels brings together academics from different disciplines and offers an in depth analysis of discrimination in specific areas of life which affects Muslims in Western countries The volume undertakes a comprehensive examination of the discriminatory practices across 12 countries while situating them in their institutional frameworks Exploring critical aspects of discrimination against Muslims in areas such as education employment exercise of religion state relations with religious communities as well as hate crime and hate speech the volume shows the prevalence of individual structural and institutional discrimination against Muslims living in Western countries Contributors are Amina Easat Daas Andrea Pin Beesan Sarrouh

Camille Vallier Dieter Schiendlauer Eva Brems Ineke van der Valk Ksenija abec Maja Pucelj Mario Peucker Mosa Sayed Nesa Zimmermann Niels Valdemar Vinding and Safa ben Saad Politics and Religion in the United Kingdom Steve Bruce, 2013-07-03 This important new volume seeks to provide significant contribution to our understanding of religion and politics demonstrating through comparisons with other countries the unusually complex nature of the interaction of religion and politics in the United Kingdom Bruce provides a detailed and comprehensive analysis of the field covering key topics including Religion and Violence in Northern Ireland A UK US comparison of the relationship between the church and the nation state Links between Protestantism and the rise of modern democracy The relationship between Methodism and Socialism The impact that ethnic minority status and religious values have on political alignment This work will be of great interest to students and scholars of religion politics and religious sociology Handbook of Religion and Society David Yamane, 2016-07-15 The Handbook of Religion and Society is the most comprehensive and up to date treatment of a vital force in the world today It is an indispensable resource for scholars students policy makers and other professionals seeking to understand the role of religion in society This includes both the social forces that shape religion and the social consequences of religion This handbook captures the breadth and depth of contemporary work in the field and shows readers important future directions for scholarship Among the emerging topics covered in the handbook are biological functioning organizational innovation digital religion spirituality atheism and transnationalism The relationship of religion to other significant social institutions like work and entrepreneurship science and sport is also analyzed Specific attention is paid where appropriate to international issues as well as to race class sexuality and gender differences This handbook includes 27 chapters by a distinguished diverse and international collection of experts organized into 6 major sections religion and social institutions religious organization family life course and individual change difference and inequality political and legal processes and globalization and transnationalism Violence, Elections, and Party Politics Mary Beth Altier, Susanne Martin, Leonard B. Weinberg, 2016-03-16 As the United States and the countries of Western Europe have sought to promote democratic rule in those parts of the world that have not enjoyed the blessings of liberty they have failed to consider an important factor Competitive elections the sine qua non of democratic government often gives rise to serious bouts of political violence mob riots inter party fighting and internal wars The essays collected in this volume evaluate the relationship between terrorist activity and electoral politics Do democratic elections themselves undermine the development and stability of the democratic institutions the United States and its allies seek to promote Under what conditions are democratic elections effective at bringing terrorist organizations into the political process thereby quelling violence When and how might terrorist organizations use democratic elections to foment violence This book was published as a special issue of Terrorism and Political Violence Library of Congress Subject Headings Library of Congress, Library of Congress. Support Office,2009 Ethnicity, Religion and Class in Israeli Society Eliezer Ben-Rafael,Stephen Sharot,1991-02-21 This book is the first major sociological analysis of the characteristics and interrelationships of ethnicity religion and socio economic class in Israeli society Although much has been written about the various distinctions between Sephardi and Ashkenazi Jews this volume argues for a more sophisticated approach than the rather crude divisions that have formed the basis of most works on the subject The authors include categories largely overlooked in sociological studies on Israel such as middle class Israelis from Asia and Africa and working class Israelis from Europe The data acquired from this rich ethnic mix leads to the analysis of a wide range of theoretical issues that casts fresh light on social cleavages within Israel in particular and society in general Minorities in European Cities S. Body-Gendrot,M. Martiniello,2016-04-30 Minorities in European Cities examines the issues pertaining to the dynamics of social integration and social exclusion of immigrant minorities at the neighbourhood level The book looks at the question of the participation and exclusion of migrants in the field of economics The study focuses on social relations at the neighbourhood level and their impact on the exclusion inclusion process as well as forms of political exclusion of migrant origin population in the local politics and policy making processes Finally Minorities in European Cities examines the ways in which conceptions of law and order and security as well as the local institutional praxis they engender effect exclusion inclusion opportunities Religion and Human Security in Africa Ezra Chitando,Joram Tarusarira,2019-01-23 Across diverse countries and contexts in Africa religion has direct implications for human security While some individuals and groups seek to manipulate and control through the deployment of religion religious belief is also a common facet of those working towards peace and reconciliation Despite the strategic importance of religion to human security in Africa there are few contemporary publications that explore this issue on an international scale This volume redresses that imbalance by examining religion s impact on human security across Africa Written by an international team of contributors this book looks in detail at the intersection of religion and security in a variety of African contexts Case studies from a diverse set of countries including Nigeria Ghana South Africa Burkina Faso and more are used to illustrate wider trends across the continent Acknowledging that religion can be used to incite violence as well as encourage peace the chapters employ an interdisciplinary exploration of the ethics sociology and politics around these issues This is much needed volume on religion s capacity to effect human security It will therefore be of significant interest to any scholar of religious studies African studies political science the sociology of religion and anthropology as well as peace conflict and reconciliation studies Religion, Equalities, and Inequalities Dawn Llewellyn,Sonya Sharma,2016-07-22 Presenting cutting edge research on how religion can confront and obscure social inequalities in everyday life Religion Equalities and Inequalities argues that when religion is left out of social scientific analyses it can result in incomplete analyses that conceal pathways to social inclusion and exclusion Bringing together an international and interdisciplinary group of contributors who operate at the vanguard of theoretical and empirical work on how social structures of power institutions and bodies can generate equalities and inequalities in religion the collection shows how religion can enable and challenge the inequities that affect people s everyday lives Academics and students of religious studies sociology politics and social policy will all find this book offers useful insights into the relationship between religion and contemporary culture
