Religious Giving And The Invention Of Karma In Theravada Buddhism:

Religious Giving and the Invention of Karma in Theravada Buddhism James Egge, 2013-12-16 Demonstrates that Buddhists appropriated the practice vocabulary and ideology of sacrifice from Vedic religion and discusses the relationship of this sacrificial discourse to ideas of karma in the Pali canon and in early Buddhism Proselytizing and the Limits of Religious Pluralism in Contemporary Asia Juliana Finucane, R. Michael Feener, 2013-10-21 This volume brings together a range of critical studies that explore diverse ways in which processes of globalization pose new challenges and offer new opportunities for religious groups to propagate their beliefs in contemporary Asian contexts Proselytizing tests the limits of religious pluralism as it is a practice that exists on the border of tolerance and intolerance The practice of proselytizing presupposes not only that people are freely choosing agents and that religion itself is an issue of individual preference At the same time however it also raises fraught questions about belonging to particular communities and heightens the moral stakes in involved in such choices In many contemporary Asian societies questions about the limits of acceptable proselytic behavior have taken on added urgency in the current era of globalization Recognizing this the studies brought together here serve to develop our understandings of current developments as it critically explores the complex ways in which contemporary contexts of religious pluralism in Asia both enable and are threatened by projects of proselytization

Epitome of the Pali Canon Chroniker Press Book, 2012-10-29 This book is an authorized reprint of Wikipedia articles pertaining to the Pali Canon the oldest collection of Buddhist scriptures Included are articles on Pali the Early Buddhist Schools and many suttas and other parts of the Vinaya Sutta and Abhidhamma Pitakas This book presents a comprehensive and in depth overview of the Pali Canon in a convenient collection Karma and Grace Neena Mahadev, 2023-10-31 Winner 2024 Clifford Geertz Prize in the Anthropology of Religion Society for the Anthropology of Religion Around the turn of the millennium Pentecostal churches began to pepper majority Buddhist Sri Lanka setting off a sense of alarm among Buddhists who saw Christianity as a neocolonial threat to the nation Rumors of foul play in the death of a Buddhist monk as well as allegations of proselytizing in the aftermath of the 2004 tsunami and during the final stages of civil war spurred nationalist anxieties moral panics and even episodes of violence by Buddhists against Christians suspected of facilitating unethical conversions Through vivid ethnography and keen observations of media events Karma and Grace illuminates disputes over religious freedom and pluralism amid the rise of charismatic Christianity in Sri Lanka Neena Mahadev explores the dueling efforts of Buddhist nationalists and Christian evangelists to reshape Sri Lanka's religious economic and political landscapes She considers theological and political impasses between Buddhism's vast timescales of karma and Christians' promises of the immediacy of their God's salvific grace While Christian missions spread the Good News subsets of Buddhists produced bad press sting operations and disparaging media to impede born again churches from taking root In gripping detail Mahadev recounts how modernist and traditionalist Theravada Buddhists Pentecostal newcomers long established

Christian denominations local deity and spirit cults and the innovations of mavericks intermingle in a multireligious public sphere Even amid trenchant conflicts Karma and Grace demonstrates that social proximity between rivals is also conducive to religious experimentation and the ambiguities of identity that allow Sri Lankans to live with difference

Kinnard, Jonathan S. Walters, 2012-02-01 Constituting Communities explores how community functions within Theravada Buddhist culture Although the dominant focus of Buddhist studies for the past century has been on doctrinal and philosophical issues this volume concentrates on discourses that produced them and why and how these discourses and practices shaped Theravada communities in South and Southeast Asia From a variety of perspectives including historical literary doctrinal and philosophical and social and anthropological the contributors explore the issues that have proven important and definitive for identifying what it has meant individually and socially to be Buddhist in this particular region The book focuses on textual discourse how communities are formed and maintained within pluralistic contexts and the formation of community both within and between the monastic and lay settings Female Agency in Manuscript Cultures Eike Grossmann, 2024-06-17 Manuscript cultures have frequently forgotten neglected or even erased women's contributions from memory Women's agency has also been a glaring blind spot in the scholarly pursuit of gender perspectives on the production of written artefacts This volume addresses these lacunae by highlighting manuscripts and inscriptions by and for women their active participation and enabling sponsorship and their role in the circulation and dissemination of written artefacts Seven papers present case studies from East Asian inscriptions to ancient cuneiform epigraphic Egyptian graffiti from late antiquity to individual specimen and large scale collections in medieval Europe focusing on how women participated in and contributed to those How did they assert their involvement their claims and their aspirations By what rationales and mechanisms were they excluded or their contribution marginalised How did they react to structures that discriminated against them eventually circumventing subverting and transforming them The present volume sheds light on new findings gives unique insights and discusses methodological considerations in the budding field of women s manuscript studies Asia's Heritage Trend Jongil Kim,Minjae Zoh,2023-09-20 Kim and Zoh bring together a team of contributors to analyse the role of heritage studies across Asia and its impact on Asia and its constituent countries Is there such a thing as Asian heritage Is it more helpful to understand Asia as a single unit or as a set of sub regions What can we learn about Asia s present through its archaeology and heritage Covering a wide range of countries including Afghanistan Cambodia China Korea Laos Myanmar Japan Taiwan Thailand and Vietnam the contributors to this book address these key questions In doing so they look at a number of critical issues such as UNESCO World Heritage status cultural propaganda cultural erasure and difficult heritage While addressing Asia s past they also observe key issues within present day Asia further providing conceptual and practical insights into the methods that are being applied to the study of Asia s heritage today A valuable resource for scholars and students of Asian history and culture archaeology heritage studies anthropology and religious studies

Sovereignty and the Sacred Robert A. Yelle,2018-11-26 Sovereignty and the Sacred challenges contemporary models of polity and economy through a two step engagement with the history of religions Beginning with the recognition of the convergence in the history of European political theology between the sacred and the sovereign as creating states of exception that is moments of rupture in the normative order that by transcending this order are capable of re founding or remaking it Robert A Yelle identifies our secular capitalist system as an attempt to exclude such moments by subordinating them to the calculability of laws and markets The second step marshals evidence from history and anthropology that helps us to recognize the contribution of such states of exception to ethical life as a means of release from the legal or economic order Yelle draws on evidence from the Hebrew Bible to English deism and from the Aztecs to ancient India to develop a theory of polity that finds a place and a purpose for those aspects of religion that are often marginalized and dismissed as irrational by Enlightenment liberalism and utilitarianism Developing this close analogy between two elemental domains of society Sovereignty and the Sacred offers a new theory of religion while suggesting alternative ways of organizing our political and economic life By rethinking the transcendent foundations and liberating potential of both religion and politics Yelle points to more hopeful and ethical modes of collective life based on egalitarianism and popular sovereignty Deliberately countering the narrowness of currently dominant economic political and legal theories he demonstrates the potential of a revived history of religions to contribute to a rethinking of the foundations of our political and social order

Dead But Not Lost Robert Goss,Dennis Klass,2005 The dead are still with us Contemporary therapists and counselors are coming to understand what s been known for millennia in most religions and in most cultures outside the Western milieu it s important to continue bonds between the living and the dead Taking these connections seriously Goss and Klass explore how bonds with the dead are created and maintained In doing so they unearth a fascinating new way to look at the origins and processes of religion itself Examining ties to dead family members teachers religious and political leaders across religious and secular traditions the authors offer novel ways of understanding grief and its role in creating meaning Whether for classes in comparative religion and death and dying or for bereavement counselors and other trying to make sense of grief this book helps us understand what it means to feel connected to those dead but not lost
