Religious Thought And The Modern Psychologies A Critical Conversation In The Theology Of Culture:

Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies Don S. Browning, Terry D. Cooper, Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies has pioneered the broader and deeper critique of psychological theories and practice Informed by hermeneutical theory Browning s widely acclaimed work drew much needed attention to the ethical and metaphysical even religious assumptions that underlie present day psychology It has been deeply influential in many social sciences in addition to the fields of pastoral counseling and practical theology In this much needed second edition Browning and his new co author show how the field of social science has indeed grasped and appropriated the hermeneutical approach though with only slight appreciation of the religious dimensions of the social scientific endeavor Browning and Cooper provide a completely new first chapter newly situating the discussion and update the core chapters of the book They also add two new chapters carrying the dialogue on with three new psychotherapeutic theorists then with new evangelical writers on the relation of theology and psychology This new edition like its predecessor will set the stage for the religion psychology dialogue for years to come Religious Thought and the Modern Psychologies Don S. Browning, 1988 Towards

Cultural Psychology of Religion Jacob A. v. van Belzen, 2010-08-03 The aims pursued in this book are quite modest The text is not an introduction in the traditional sense to any psychological subdiscipline or field of application nor does it present anything essentially new Rather it shows work in progress as it attempts to contribute to an integration of two differently structured but already existing fields within psychology In order to explain this it is probably best to say a few words about how the book came into being and about what it hopes to achieve As a project the volume owes very much to others While lecturing in places ranging from South Africa to Canada and from California through European co tries to Korea colleagues have often urged me to come up with a volume on c tural psychology of religion For reasons that should become clear in the text I feel uncomfortable with such a demand To my understanding there exists no single cultural psychology of religion Rather there are ever expanding numbers of div gent types of psychologies some of which are applied to understanding religious aspects of human lives or to researching specific religious phenomena while others are not Within this heterogeneous field that is correctly or not still designated as psychology there are also many approaches that are sometimes referred to as cultural psychology or as culturally sensitive psychologies It would be wor while applying many of these to research on religious phenomena but at present not too many are in fact so applied Rethinking Media, Religion, and Culture Stewart M. Hoover, Knut Lundby, 1997-01-31 This book links the growing connections between media culture and religion into a coherent theoretical whole It examines amongst others the effect on cultural practices and the increasing autonomy and individualized practice of religion Faithful Companionship Chris R. Schlauch, By engaging the reader in a process which parallels the pastoral counseling method extending a conversation of revising and refining questions Schlauch illustrates the content of his thinking through his carefully crafted presentation maintaining that pastoral counseling is at its heart healing through faithful companioning Human Development Franco Imoda,1998 This book is a magisterial treatment of the wide spectrum of psychological aspects of growing in grace as a spiritual creature while also developing as a human being For the author being human is physical psychological and spiritual The integration of all three is for him a possibility both to be desired and worked toward not a paradox As a teacher of teachers Imoda has been committed to transmitting to his students a way to teach novices and laymen how growing in the love of God is a logical development from increasing the grasp of their emotional bases For teachers this book is a vade mecum which gives them a structure within which people can be encouraged to explore their emotional underpinnings so that they may grow out of their psychological and spiritual immaturity Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling George R. Ross,2011-03-14 Initially developed as a classroom resource Evaluating Models of Christian Counseling serves as a primary example of the complexities involved in integrating psychology theology and spirituality into the counseling process The would be counselor and the experienced professional are each introduced to a systematic evaluation model for determining how effectively a specific Christian Counseling Program incorporates psychological spiritual and theological constructs into their milieu After presenting a working definition of the counseling process and its relationship to psychology theology and spirituality an application of the evaluation model to four Christian Counseling programs is demonstrated Handbook for Spiritual Directors Julie M. Douglas,1998 Handbook of Spirituality for Ministers Robert J. Wicks,1995 An applied spirituality handbook that covers an array of topics relevant to professionals daily work in pastoral care Catholic Witness in Health Care John M. Travaline,Louise A. Mitchell,2017-09-15 Catholic health care is about ethics but also ethos not only what we shouldn t do but a vision for what we should do with love The issues it faces don t just concern academic bioethicists they concern every faithful Catholic doctor nurse practitioner and even patient Modern medical practitioners on the ground day in day out wrestling with medical moral matters witnessing what is happening in American medicine today while also striving to witness to their Catholic faith in living out their medical vocation these are the primary authors of this unique book and these are the readers it hopes to serve Catholic Witness in Health Care integrates the theoretical presentation of Catholic medical ethics with real life practice It begins with fundamental elements of Catholic care touching upon Scripture moral philosophy theology Christian anthropology and pastoral care The second part features Catholic clinicians illuminating authentic Catholic medical care in their various medical disciplines gynecology and reproductive medicine fertility pediatrics geriatrics critical care surgery rehabilitation psychology and pharmacy Part three offers unique perspectives concerning medical education research and practice with an eye toward creating a cultural shift to an authentically Catholic medical ethos Readers of this book will learn essential elements upon which the ethics of Catholic medical practice is founded and gain insights into practicing medicine and caring for others in an authentically Catholic way The Biblical Counseling Movement David Powlison,2010-02-12 Beginning in the late 1960s a biblical counseling movement sought to reclaim counseling for the church and provide a Christian alternative to mainstream psychiatry and psychotherapy The Biblical Counseling Movement History and Context is an informative and thought provoking account of that movement David Powlison's historical account

Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan, 2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology

Position and Responsibility Ilse Ahn, 2009-06-08 What is the moral criterion for those who hold power positions and authority in governments corporations and institutions Ahn answers this question by presenting the concept of the positional imperative The positional imperative is an executive moral norm for those who hold power positions in political and economic organizations By critically integrating the Neo Kantian reconstructionism of Jurgen Habermas with the Neo Augustinian reconstructionism of Reinhold Niebuhr through the method of co reconstruction Ahn identifies the positional imperative as an executive moral norm embedded in all power positions Act in such a way not only to abide by laws but also to come by the approvals of those affected by your positional actions By uncovering this executive moral norm Ahn argues that a position holder is not just a professional working for the system but a moral executive who is willing to take the responsibility of his or her positional actions

God in Christian Perspective George M. Newlands, 2008-07-17 In this book George Newlands seeks to work out a modern restatement of a Christian understanding of God Father Son and Spirit Evil on the scale experience in modern wars and the awareness of the variety of transcendent values in the pluralism of the contemporary world have tended to reinforce intellectual objections to traditional doctrines If the whole picture must remain partly obscure to us nevertheless we must continue to reflect on the character and activity of the God of the Christian faith and renew our attempts to describe and state beliefs In the first part of his study Professor Newlands considers the sources of a Christian understanding of God and analyses the substantive content of the doctrine of God as creator and reconciler of the cosmos as personal self differentiated transcendent being The second part reflects on christology and examines the social and ethical dimensions of the cost of discipleship Throughout Professor Newlands demonstrates the importance of thinking about God not in unreflecting slogans but with all our intellectual resources

African Contextual Realities Rodney L. Reed, 2018-08-14 Everyone who has eyes to see acknowledges the growing importance of the African church to the future of global Christianity But what does it mean for the church to take root in Africa How should the message of the gospel and the practice of Christianity be contextualized for Africa African Contextual Realities addresses many of the questions surrounding contextualization from a practical point of view and is the fruit of the 6th Annual Conference of the Africa Society of Evangelical Theology held in Nairobi in 2016 The book explores such questions as In what ways should the mission of God be universally recognizable in every cultural context In our efforts to contextualize how do we avoid compromising the very gospel we are to proclaim How can the African church wean itself away from dependency on the Western church How does Christianity speak into some of the cultural and social issues arising out of contemporary African settings issues like widow cleansing Christian Muslim relations and peace building All those who are interested to learn more about the contextualization of African Christianity will find this volume to be an important resource

Conscience and Jung's Moral Vision David W. Robinson, 2005 David Robinson's new book is unique in that it provides an extended critical exposition of Jung's moral psychology and a comparative analysis of his theory of conscience in particular The author corrects this absence by providing a fresh and original reading of Jung In contrast to simplistic stereotypes he demonstrates that moral struggle with all of its relational behavioral and spiritual implications is at the heart of his psychology The concept of conscience serves as the locus of this apologetic for his contemporary significance Further this book offers a positive theory for identifying and describing the primary sources of contemporary moral nihilism namely reductive naturalism scientism and epistemological relativism perspectivalism The logic and root assumptions of these theoretical viewpoints are then engaged and qualified if not refuted through an extended comparative discussion of the theories of Freud and Nietzsche with those of Jung

Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho, 2024-09-02 In Undocumented Migration as a Theologizing Experience Eunil David Cho examines how Korean American undocumented young adults tell religious stories to cope with the violence of uncertainty and construct new meanings for themselves Based on in depth interviews guided by narrative inquiry the book follows the stories of ten Korean American DACA Deferred Action for Childhood Arrivals recipients who have found their lives in limbo While many experience narrative foreclosure believing My story is over Cho highlights how telling religious stories enables them to imagine and create new stories for themselves not as shunned outsiders but as beloved children of God

Ethics and Values in Psychotherapy Alan Tjeltveit, 2003-09-02 Ethics and Values in Psychotherapy is an examination of the role of the therapist as ethicist and the ways in which the ethical convictions of both therapist and client contribute to the practical process of psychotherapy As Psychotherapy strives to establish itself as a Profession practitioners are increasingly focusing on the issue of ethics as they attempt to agree on guidelines and standards for professional practice Alan Tjeltveit argues that any discussion of professional and ethical practice in psychotherapy is inadequate if carried out in ignorance of or in isolation from traditional ethical theories He applies this approach to issues such as the role of therapy in society the goals and outcomes of psychotherapy techniques and practices the existence and operation of values the intellectual and social context in which therapy takes place In the second part of the book he uses clinical examples and case studies to relate this theoretical discussion to clinical practice Ethics and Values in Psychotherapy will be welcomed by the growing number of experienced Psychotherapists and post graduate students who are interested in the increasingly contentious issue of professional ethics

Perfecting Grace Mark H. Mann, 2006-11-15 Mark Mann seeks to renew discussion of the doctrine of holiness in Christian theology by using the human sciences as a tool for theological reconstruction He identifies the anthropological presuppositions of the holiness tradition and explores the ways that those presuppositions have led to particular assertions regarding the nature of Christian holiness as that doctrine is affirmed by the holiness tradition He asks to what extent holiness is possible in this life How is holiness obtained and to what extent can people gain knowledge of having achieved holiness Mann uses the resources of the neurosciences the sociology of knowledge and psychology to help answer these questions and to provide constructive theological analysis of these questions

Transforming Wisdom Felicity Kelcourse, K. Brynolf Lyon, 2015-10-09 Transforming Wisdom offers an extensive multidisciplinary introduction to pastoral psychotherapy from some of the most respected practitioners in the field With special attention to theological perspectives on the practice of psychotherapy this collection of essays will be useful to students seeking an orientation to the art and science of pastoral psychotherapy as well as to seasoned professionals looking to refresh and renew their practice As the subtitle Pastoral Psychotherapy in Theological Perspective suggests this book is intended to represent the field of pastoral psychotherapy as a mental health discipline that maintains intentional dialogue with its theological roots Even as pastoral psychotherapy has developed from the ancient notion of the cure of souls to the current search for a psychology of happiness therapists grounded in faith communities seek a practice that is respectful of all persons mindful of the deep wisdom that emanates from the true self or soul While many contributors write from a psychoanalytic or psychodynamic perspective grounded in Christian theological idioms diverse theoretical perspectives including Emotionally Focused Couples Therapy Narrative Therapy Buddhist Mindfulness and Jungian understanding of individuation are represented
