Evaluating Interreligious Peacebuilding and Dialogue Mohammed Abu-Nimer, Renáta Katalin Nelson, 2021-09-20 In the emerging fields of religious and interreligious peacebuilding the question of monitoring and evaluation is a challenging yet necessary process The need to develop comprehensive yet fitting evaluation models for religious and interreligious peacebuilding is not only important for donor interests but also critical as a means of documenting and learning for peacebuilders themselves

Theories and best practices in monitoring and evaluation have become prevalent in many fields yet the amount of literature on evaluating intercultural and especially religious and interreligious projects remains scant in comparison This volume offers a unique contribution that not only looks at several of the challenges and implications faced by religious and interreligious peacebuilders but also provides concrete examples of new models and tools for monitoring and evaluating religious and interreligious peacebuilding projects In doing so this volume serves as a tool and point of reference for individuals and organizations developing and implementing interreligious dialogue and peacebuilding projects in fact they re enforce them by encouraging a false sense of separation The Problem with Interreligious Dialogue Plurality Conflict and Elitism in Hindu Christian Muslim Relations provides an innovative approach to a central issue confronting Religious Studies combining both theory and ethnography Religious Diversity and Interreligious Dialogue Anna Körs,Wolfram Weisse,Jean-Paul Willaime,2020-04-07 This edited volume offers solutions on the challenges of religious pluralisation from a European perspective It gives special attention to interreligious dialogue and interfaith relations as specific means of dealing with plurality In particular the contributors describe innovative scientific approaches and broad political and social scopes of action for addressing the diversity of beliefs practices and traditions In total more than 25 essays bring together interdisciplinary and international research perspectives The papers cover a wide thematic range They highlight how religious pluralisation effects such fields as theology politics civil society education and communication media The contributors not only illustrate academic debates about religious diversity but they also look at the political and social scope for dealing with such Coverage spans numerous countries and beliefs from Buddhism to Judaism This book features presentations from the Herrenhausen Conference on Religious Pluralisation A Challenge for Modern Societies held in Hanover Germany October 2016 This insightful collection will benefit students and researchers with an interest in religion and laicism interreligious dialogue governance of religious diversity and religion in the public sphere Pathways for Inter-Religious Dialogue in the Twenty-First Century Vladimir Latinovic, Gerard Mannion, Peter C. Challenges of Interreligious Dialogue Edmund Emeka Ezegbobelu, 2009 Originally presented as the author's thesis doctoral Univ Frankfurt Main 2009

Dialogue as an Imperative to Ecumenical and Interreligious Problems in Nigeria Casimir Chimezie Obi, 2015-08-06 The Church is the Sacrament of Communion with God and unity among all men Cf Vatican II doc L G 1 Christ prayed for this unity amongst his adherents in accordance with the unity between him and God the Father Cf Jn 17 21 This unity will be a sign by which the outside world is to believe in him hence calling on the Church to rise up to this demand Efforts were made by the Church to respond to this demand but it was at the Second Vatican Council that the search for unity became an imperative With this Council the Church acknowledged the possibility of Salvation for the members of other Christian traditions and people of other religions The Church has done a lot to promote this unity through the teachings of the Magisterium and the activities of the recent Popes It is then important to study the situation of Nigeria where this call of the Vatican II has received scant response both in ecumenical and interreligious relations Having done pastoral work in places with interdenominational and interreligious rivalry in Nigeria I became concerned and worried The present religious crises in Nigeria has escalated to an issue of grave concern with the Boko Haram insurgency My motivation is to demonstrate the teaching of the Church regarding interdenominational and interreligious dialogue within Nigeria There has been no sustained effort to build bridges of religious unity in the country This research will demonstrate the necessity of ecumenical dialogue as a prelude to interreligious dialogue in Nigeria On the global level the need for various religions to foster relationships has become an imperative Two important bodies CAN and NIREC will be studied in this book The work aims at demonstrating the involvement of the Nigerian Christians and Muslims in ecumenical and interreligious dialogue Essentially concerned with the Catholic view of ecumenical and interreligious dialogue its application to the Nigerian situation No in depth study of the religions involved It is rather the fact of their existence the role dialogue will play with them to solve religious problems in Nigeria Though ATR was considered in this work but the issue of dialogue will only involve Nigerian Muslims Christians The research wishes to provoke further study on dialogue between ATR and any of the other two religions Two issues involved the reality importance of the Catholic teachings on ecumenical interreligious dialogue and their application to the Nigerian situation Key methods involved in this work are literary research and analysis through theological historical critical descriptive analytical expository approaches Pope Francis and Interreligious Dialogue Harold Kasimow, Alan Race, 2018-10-29 This book engages thinkers from different religious and humanist traditions in response to Pope Francis s pronouncements on interreligious dialogue The contributors write from the perspectives of Judaism Christianity Islam Hinduism Sikhism Buddhism and Humanism Each author elaborates on how the pope s openness to dialogue and invitation to practical collaboration on global concerns represents a significant achievement as the world faces an uncertain future The theological tension within the Catholic double commitment to evangelization on the one hand and dialogue on the other remains unresolved for most writers but this does not prevent them from praising the strong invitation to dialogue especially with the focus on justice peace and ecological sustainability Faith-based Diplomacy and Interfaith Dialogue Scott Blakemore, 2019-05-27 Scholars are seeking to identify how to constructively integrate faith into diplomacy Proponents of faith based diplomacy recognise that incorporating faith into peacemaking activities assists in managing identity based conflict and religiously motivated violence in the contemporary international system A promising strategy within the scope of faith based diplomacy is interfaith dialogue The study and practice of interfaith dialogue has been reinvigorated since the advent of 9 11 and yet the link between interfaith dialogue and diplomacy remains underdeveloped The cases of Indonesia and the United States present lessons on how states can effectively use interfaith dialogue to achieve policy objectives while recognising that some policies are detrimental to achieving diplomatic goals This paper seeks to provide some framework for bringing interfaith dialogue into the scope of diplomacy by illuminating how faith based diplomacy and interfaith dialogue can be innovative diplomatic perspectives useful in addressing contemporary global issues Human Rights and Religion in Educational Contexts Manfred L. Pirner, Johannes Lähnemann, Heiner Bielefeldt, 2016-07-15 What is the role of religion s in a human rights culture and in human rights education How do human rights and religion relate in the context of public education And what can religious education at public schools contribute to human rights education These are the core questions addressed by this book Stimulating deliberations illuminating analyses and promising conceptual perspectives are offered by renowned experts from ten countries and diverse academic disciplines
