The greatest adventure in life – knowing God – begins at the Cross of Christ and ends with a “Hallelujah!”

Religious Life As Adventure:

Religious Life as Adventure Albert DiIanni, 1994 Are religious congregations where God intended them to be when Vatican II invited them to change thirty some years ago This is the question explored in some detail by one who has been in a unique to study the matter from a global as well as an American point of view for an extended number of years What is the relationship of religion to religious life the effect of modernity on the structures of the consecrated state the practice of the three vows in a secular context the role of commitment prayer and leadership What about the need for vision And where are new vocations coming from Those looking for answers as well as analysis will find food for thought in this volume which is ultimately a manual of hope about religious life as adventure Back cover

Religious Life Loan Le, 2016-06-22 Following the Second Vatican Council when each Religious Institute was encouraged to research its charism some Institutes experienced a tension between their charism and their mission or even difficulty identifying what their charism was This book is a study of the theological understanding of charism and of mission in relation to Religious Life within the Catholic Church While this topic has featured in much Roman Catholic theological literature since Vatican II there appears to be a dearth of in depth studies This book addresses this apparent lacuna It draws particularly on the work of two major theologians Jean Marie Roger Tillard OP and Sandra Marie Schneiders IHM who have reflected at length on charism and mission in the period leading up to Vatican II and on the implementation of its documents with respect to Religious Life The very significant contributions of Tillard and Schneiders on the topic provide Religious as well as others who want to know and understand Religious Life with an interesting and motivating insight into charism and mission in Religious Life Within the Roman Catholic Church a Year of Consecrated Life has just drawn to a close and this book forms a background and a response to Pope Francis Apostolic Letter to all Consecrated People on the occasion of the Year of Consecrated Life November 2014 which invited Religious to reflect on these aspects that are essential to the life they have chosen to live
