Emergence of Feminism in India, 1850-1920 Padma Anagol,2005 This pioneering and innovative study paces women in India at the height of colonial rule at the centre of analysis Drawing upon rare English and Marathi archival materials Padma Anagol makes a compelling case for the birth of Indian feminism before the coming of Gandhi by also illustrating how collective movements to improve the status of women in India were based upon a consciousness of the inequalities in gender relations

The Reluctant Debutante Becky Lower,2012-07-02 In 1855 New York Ginger Fitzpatrick has absolutely no interest in taking part in the newest rage in America the Cotillion Ball Instead Ginger would rather be rallying for women s rights at least until she meets her brother s best friend from St Louis a dark mysterious man named Joseph Lafontaine who ignites her passion and makes her question if love and marriage is such a ridiculous notion after all What she and the rest of New York s high society don t realize is that Joseph is half Ojibwa Indian and therefore totally unsuitable for marriage to a fine cultured young lady In this Edith Wharton meets Julia Quinn tale a young woman rebels against high society and opts for a life in which she creates her own set of rules Sensuality Level Sensual The World of Muslim Women in Colonial Bengal,

1876-1939 Sonia Amin,2021-10-11 This highly interesting book studies the cultural context of modernisation of middle class Muslim women in late 19th and 20th century Bengal Its frames of reference are the Bengal Awakening the Reform Movements Brahmo Hindi and Muslim and the Women s Question as articulated in material and ideological terms throughout the period Tracing the emergence of the modern Muslim gentlewomen the bhadramahil starting in 1876 when Nawab Faizunnesa Chaudhurani published her first book and ending with the foundation in 1939 of The Lady Brabourne College the book gives an excellent analysis of the rise of a Muslim woman s public sphere and broadens our knowledge of Bengali social history in the colonial period Debutante Karal Ann Marling,2004 The social debut and its offshoots the high school prom the sorority presentation beauty pageants continue to emphasize celebrity class and community But why does this peculiar tradition persist In Debutante Marling demystifies debdom and the long term American hankering after the trappings of royalty

Recasting Women Kumkum Sangari,Sudesh Vaid,1990 The political and social life of India in the last decade has given rise to a variety of questions concerning the nature and resilience of patriarchal systems in a transitional and post colonial society The contributors to this interdisciplinary volume recognize that every aspect of reality is gendered and that such a recognition involves a dismantling of the ideological presuppositions of the so called gender neutral ideologies as well as the boundaries of individual disciplines The Reluctant Debutante William Douglas Home,1957 Sultana's Dream and Selections from The Secluded Ones Rokeyā (Begama),Hanna Papanek,1988 Tells the story of a feminist utopia and discusses the Muslim custom of purdah the seclusion and segregation of women Words of Her Own Maroona Murmu,2019-11-05 Words of Her Own situates the experiences and articulations of emergent women writers in nineteenth century Bengal through an exploration of works authored by them Based on a spectrum of genres such as autobiographies novels and travelogues this book examines the sociocultural incentives that enabled the dawn of middle class Hindu and Brahmo women authors at that time Murmu explores the intersections of class caste gender language and religion in these works Reading these texts within a specific milieu Murmu sets out to rectify the essentialist conception of women s writings being a monolithic body of works that displays a firmly gendered form and content by offering rich insights into the complex world of subjectivities of women in colonial Bengal In attempting to do so this book opens up the possibility of reconfiguring mainstream history by questioning the scholarly conceptualization of patriarchy being omnipotent enough to shape the intricacies of gender relations resulting in the flattening of self fashioning by women writers The book contends that there were women authors who flouted the norms of literary aesthetics and tastes set by male literati thereby creating a literary tradition of their own in Bangla and becoming agents of history at the turn of the century Domesticity in Colonial India Judith E. Walsh,2004 By the 1880s Hindu domestic life and its most intimate relationships had become contested ground For urban middle class Indians the Hindu woman was at the center of a debate over colonial modernity and traditional home and family life This book sets this debate within the context of a nineteenth century world where bourgeois European ideas on the home had become part of a transnational hegemonic domestic discourse a global domesticity But Walsh s interest is more in hybridity than hegemony as she explores what women themselves learned when men sought to teach them through the Indian advice literature of the time As a younger generation of Indian nationalists and reformers attempted to undercut the authority of family elders and create a new patriarchy of more nuclear and exclusive relations with their wives elderly women in extended Hindu families learned that their authority in family life however contingent was coming to an end The Cotillion Ball Saga Becky Lower,2015-06-08 You ll fall in love with the spirited Fitzgerald family as they find romance in the turbulent world of pre Civil War America Raised to defy societal convention and follow their passions these men s and women s rebellious hearts meet their matches in these delightful novels The Reluctant Debutante Ginger Fitzpatrick would rather be rallying for women s rights than attending the Cotillion Ball until she sets her eye on Joseph Lafontaine a half Ojibwa Indian New York society considers totally unsuitable for marriage to a fine cultured young lady The Abolitionist s Secret Heather Fitzpatrick falls for young army lieutenant David Whitman who is tracking the runaway slave she rescued a few nights earlier Can their attraction survive the coming divide between North and South Banking on Temperance At age 23 Basil Fitzpatrick is the owner of the St Louis branch of the family banking business with his pick of the ladies but it s impoverished spitfire Temperance Jones daughter of a circuit riding preacher who catches his eye She s determined to get to Oregon does he have the courage to follow Sensuality Level Sensual Transitions to Democracy Kathryn Stoner,Michael McFaul,2013-04-15

Fifteen case studies by scholars and practitioners demonstrate the synergy between domestic and international influences that can precipitate democratic transitions As demonstrated by current events in Tunisia and Egypt oppressive regimes are rarely immune to their citizens desire for democratic government Of course desire is always tempered by reality therefore how democratic demands are made manifest is a critical source of study for both political scientists and foreign policy makers What issues and consequences surround the fall of a government what type of regime replaces it and to what extent are these efforts successful Kathryn Stoner and Michael McFaul have created an accessible book of fifteen case studies from around the world that will help students understand these complex issues Their model builds upon Guillermo O Donnell Philippe C Schmitter and Laurence Whitehead s classic work Transitions from Authoritarian Rule using a rubric of four identifying factors that can be applied to each case study making comparison relatively easy Transitions to Democracy yields strong comparisons and insights For instance the study reveals that efforts led by the elite and involving the military are generally unsuccessful whereas mass mobilization civic groups and new media have become significant factors in supporting and sustaining democratic actors This collection of writings by scholars and practitioners is organized into three parts successful transitions incremental transitions and failed transitions Extensive primary research and a rubric that can be applied to burgeoning democracies offer readers valuable tools and information The Naga Queen Vicky

Thomas,2011-11-30 In 1937 Ursula Bower visited Nagaland at the invitation of a friend and on a dispensary tour encountered the Naga people She was so taken was with their striking dignity tribal pride and unique culture that she arranged to live among them to write an anthropological study But she became more than an observer living alone among them Ursula was integrated into their village life becoming their figurehead when in 1944 the Japanese invaded the jungles of Nagaland from Burma The Nagas turned to her for leadership and with the support of General Slim her Naga guides were armed and trained to patrol and repel the Japanese incursions The Nagas courage and loyalty were duly recognised and after the conflict Ursula with Naga support went on to run a jungle training school for the RAF Later with her husband Tim Betts as Political Officer she worked among the volatile tribes of the remote Apa Tani Valley bordering Tibet Following the Independence of India in 1947 Ursula returned to her highland roots but to her death in 1988 her experiences among the Naga people shaped and directed her life Democratisation in the European Neighbourhood Michael Emerson,2005 Approaches democratization of the European neighbourhood from two sides first exploring developments in the states themselves and then examining what the European Union has been doing to promote the process The Brief, Madcap Life of Kay Kendall Eve
