Space as Storyteller Laura Chiesa, 2016-07-15 Walter Benjamin

s Arcades Project suggests that space can become a storyteller if so plenty of fleeting stories can be read in the space of modernity where repetition and the unexpected cross pollinate In Space as Storyteller Laura Chiesa explores several stories across a wide range of time that narrate spatial jumps from Benjamin s tangential take on the cityscape the experimentalism of Futurist theatricality the multiple and potential atlases narrated by Italo Calvino and Georges Perec and the posturban thought and practice of Bernard Tschumi and Rem Koolhaas OMA Space as Storyteller diverts attention from isolated disciplines and historical or geographical contexts toward transdisciplinary encounters that mobilize the potential to invent new spaces of comparison a potential the author describes as architecturability

NATØ: Narrative Architecture in Postmodern London Claire Jamieson, 2017-01-20 Chronicling the last radical architectural group of the twentieth century NAT Narrative Architecture Today who emerged from the Architectural Association at the start of the 1980s this book explores the group s work which echoed a wider artistic and literary culture that drew on the specific political social and physical condition of 1980s London It traces NAT s identification with a particular stream of post punk postmodern expression a celebration of the abject an aesthetic of entropy and a do it yourself provisionality NAT has most often been documented in reference to Nigel Coates the instigator of NAT which has led to a one sided one dimensional record of NAT s place in architectural history This book sets out a more detailed contextual history of NAT told through photographs drawings and ephemera restoring a truer polyvocal narrative of the group s ethos and development

Interpreting Site Genevieve Baudoin, 2015-04-17 Interpreting Site explains the basic methods architects use to translate what you perceive to represent the complex conditions that physically and mentally construe a site helping to shape the ultimate design Within each of the four themes defining site experiencing site spatializing site and systematizing site theoretical conceptual and analytic methods and representational tools are introduced to give you a foundation to develop your own approach to the conditions of a site Author Genevieve S Baudoin examines longstanding representation methods in relation to emerging and experimental methods offering an idiosyncratic and provocative look at different approaches Four highly illustrated full colour case studies of key contemporary projects in Spain the United States the United Kingdom and Norway demonstrate how architects have used conditions discovered on a site in their final design

The Making of a Building Albena Yaneva, 2009 Drawing on rare ethnographical material of architects at work at the Office for Metropolitan Architecture of Rem Koolhaas in Rotterdam in the period 2001 2004 this text offers a novel account of the social and cognitive complexity of architecture in the making

Architecture and Capitalism Peggy Deamer, 2013-07-18 Architecture and Capitalism tells a story of the relationship between the economy and architectural design Eleven historians each discuss in brand new essays the time period they know best looking at cultural and economic issues which in light of current economic crises you will find have dealt with diverse but surprisingly familiar economic issues Told through case studies the narrative begins in the mid nineteenth century and ends with 2011 with introductions by Editor Peggy Deamer to pull the main themes together so that you can see how other architects in different times and in different countries have dealt with similar economic conditions By focussing on what previous architects experienced you have the opportunity to avoid repeating the past With new essays by Pier Vittorio Aureli Ellen Dunham Jones Keller Easterling Lauren Kogod Robert Hewison Joanna Merwood Salisbury Robin Schuldenfrei Deborah Gans Simon Sadler Nathan Rich and Micahel Sorkin Media Houses Staffan Ericson, Kristina Riepert, 2010 In much recent theory the media are described as ephemeral ubiquitous and de localized Yet the activity of modern media can be traced to spatial centers that are tangible enough some even monumental This book offers multidisciplinary and historical perspectives on the buildings of some of the world s major media institutions Paradoxically as material and aesthetic manifestations of mediated centers of power they provide sites to the siteless and solidity to the immaterial The authors analyse the ways that architectural form and organization reflect different eras media technologies ideologies and relations with the public in media houses from New York and Silicon Valley to London Moscow and Beijing
