Transforming Empire: The Ottomans from the Mediterranean to the Indian Ocean, 2024-09-23 This book places the Ottoman Empire within the global context and provides insight into the multifaceted transimperial and transnational connections that characterized it in different periods It focuses on the connections interactions exchanges networks and flows in and around the Ottoman Empire Contributions in the book reflect the evolving and dynamic nature of the Ottoman Empire from different angles Contributors are Ali Atabey Serpil Atamaz Lee Beaudoen Emine Evered Kyle Evered Richard Eaton Ziad Fahmy G ls m G rb z K ksar Onur nal Christine Isom Verhaaren Myrsini Manney Kalogera Claudia R mer Alexander Schweig G l en Baki Tezcan Fariba Zarinebaf

A History of the Modern Middle East William L. Cleveland, Martin Bunton, 2024-07-29 A History of the Modern Middle East examines the profound and often dramatic transformations of the region in the past two centuries from the Ottoman and Egyptian reforms through the challenge of Western imperialism to the impact of US foreign policies Built around a framework of political history while also carefully integrating social cultural and economic developments this expertly crafted account provides readers with the most comprehensive balanced and penetrating analysis of the modern Middle East The seventh edition has been substantially revised to reflect the significance of the 2011 Arab Uprisings as a major turning point in the modern history of the region A new chapter considers how regional powers especially in the Gulf are now asserting themselves more forcefully seeking to push their own interests while Russia and China contest America s position Including an annotated and updated bibliography that offers guidance to readers seeking more in depth information and incorporating an online companion website featuring quizzes timelines and instructor resources A History of the Modern Middle East remains the quintessential text for courses on Middle Eastern history

Mediterranean Encounters Fariba Zarinebaf, 2018-07-24 Mediterranean Encounters traces the layered history of Galata a Mediterranean and Black Sea port to the Ottoman conquest and its transformation into a hub of European trade and diplomacy as well as a pluralist society of the early modern period Framing the history of Ottoman European encounters within the institution of ahdnames commercial and diplomatic treaties this thoughtful book offers a critical perspective on the existing scholarship For too long the Ottoman empire has been defined as an absolutist military power driven by religious conviction culturally and politically apart from the rest of Europe and devoid of a commercial policy By taking a close look at Galata Fariba Zarinebaf provides a different approach based on a history of commerce coexistence competition and collaboration through the lens of Ottoman legal records diplomatic correspondence and petitions She shows that this port was just as cosmopolitan and pluralist as any large European port and argues that the Ottoman world was not peripheral to European modernity but very much part of it

Cities of the Mediterranean Meltem Toksoz, Biray Kolluoglu, 2014-08-25 The Eastern Mediterranean is one of the world's most vibrant and vital commercial centres and for centuries the region's cities and ports have been at the heart of East West trade Taking a full and comprehensive look at the region as a whole rather than isolating individual cities or distinct cultures Cities of the Mediterranean offers a fresh and original portrait of the entire region from the 16th century to the present In this ambitious inter disciplinary study the authors examine the relationships between the Eastern Mediterranean port cities and their hinterlands as well as inland and provincial cities from many different perspectives political economic international and ecological without prioritising either Ottoman Anatolia or the Ottoman Balkans or the Arab provinces in order to think of the Eastern Mediterranean world as a coherent whole Wide ranging in scope Cities of the Mediterranean explores diverse topics weaving together history sociology geography cartography politics and economics Early chapters examine the impact of the Little Ice Age the global economy's shift from the Mediterranean to Antwerp and Amsterdam early European perceptions of the Eastern Mediterranean 19th century harbour building practices and their impact on the cities and the connections between Alexandria Izmir and Thessalonica and their vast and diverse hinterlands The book also explores political radicalism in Turkey and elsewhere as well as the illegal trade networks that linked the Balkans and Adriatic with the Mediterranean and the introduction of new technologies that led to the faster transport of people goods and information Through its penetrating analysis of the various networks that connected the ports and towns of the Mediterranean and their inhabitants throughout the Ottoman period Cities of the Mediterranean presents the region as a unified and dynamic community and paves the way for a new understanding of the subject

Historical Dictionary of Turkey Metin Heper, Duygu Öztürk, Nur Bilge Criss, 2018-05-23 The fourth edition of Historical Dictionary of Turkey covers Ottoman Empire and the Republic of Turkey through a time span of more than six centuries It presents the basic characteristics of the two periods and traces the developments from an empire to a state nation from tradition to modernity from a sultanate to a republic and from modest country to a country that is already a regional power and further aspiring becoming a country to be reckoned with This is done through a chronology an introduction appendixes and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has over 900 cross referenced entries on important personalities politics economy foreign relations religion and culture This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about Turkey

Fashioning the Modern Middle East Reina Lewis, Yasmine Nachabe Taan, 2021-06-03 In the first book to address the critical role of the undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East these essays unveil contemporary struggles over nation gender modernity and post modernity Contributions from leading interdisciplinary scholars exploring gender representation photography dress and visual culture recount the role of the visible elite body in campaigns for gender and social emancipation dress histories concerning early nationalist women and men and legal frameworks used by those who seek to control the movement of gendered bodies The result is a rich picture of a historical period and cultural landscape which brings dress and visual culture back into historical narratives of the modern Middle East Recognising multiple modernities multiple imperialisms and diverse regional experiences of post colonialism Fashioning the Modern Middle East contains a range of theoretical frameworks invaluable to students of fashion studies Middle Eastern studies anthropology photography and gender Bringing forward new primary material and re investigating extant sources from new perspectives this is the essential introduction to the role of the dressed and undressed body in the formation of the modern Middle East Muqarnas, Volume 24 Gülru Necipoglu,2007-12-31

the World Eric Lewis Beverley,2015-06-01 This examination of the formally autonomous state of Hyderabad in a global comparative framework challenges the idea of the dominant British Raj as the sole sovereign power in the late colonial period Beverley argues that Hyderabad's position as a subordinate yet sovereign minor state was not just a legal formality but that in exercising the right to internal self government and acting as a conduit for the regeneration of transnational Muslim intellectual and political networks Hyderabad was indicative of the fragmentation of sovereignty between multiple political entities amidst empires By exploring connections with the Muslim world beyond South Asia law and policy administration along frontiers with the colonial state and urban planning in expanding Hyderabad City Beverley presents Hyderabad as a locus for experimentation in global and regional forms of political modernity This book recasts the political geography of late imperialism and historicises Muslim political modernity in South Asia and beyond Women Composers' Creative Conditions Before and During the Turkish Republic Nejla Melike Atalay, 2021-10-14 This research is focused on three Istanbulite composers Leyla Han mefendi Nazife Aral G ran and Y ksel Koptagel who lived and produced in consecutive and overlapping periods from the Tanzimat Era of the Ottoman Empire to the Turkish Republic of the 1980s It explores the composers productive and creative conditions through the socio political environments of their times their familial and educational backgrounds and the social spaces in which they lived and worked The institutionalisation of Western music and the education thereof occupy a significant place in understanding the composers relationships with Western music the bonds they established with polyphonic music and the development of their musical personalities as a consequence of their education resultant from the opportunities provided by such developments This study conjointly examines herstory and music historiography by employing alternative materials and creating its own narrative Ordinary Jerusalem, 1840-1940

Angelos Dalachanis, Vincent Lemire, 2018-08-13 In Ordinary Jerusalem Angelos Dalachanis Vincent Lemire and thirty five scholars depict the ordinary history of an extraordinary global city in the late Ottoman and Mandate periods Utilizing largely unknown archives they revisit the holy city of three religions which has often been defined solely as an eternal battlefield and studied exclusively through the prism of geopolitics and religion At the core of their analysis are topics and issues developed by the European Research Council funded project Opening Jerusalem Archives For a Connected History of Citadinit in the Holy City 1840 1940 Drawn from the French vocabulary of geography and urban sociology the concept of citadinit describes the dynamic identity relationship a city s inhabitants develop with each other and with their urban environment

Empires of Vision Martin Jay, Sumathi Ramaswamy, 2014-03-14

Empires of Vision brings together pieces by some of the most influential scholars working at the intersection of visual culture studies and the history of European imperialism The essays and excerpts focus on the paintings maps geographical surveys postcards photographs and other media that comprise the visual milieu of colonization struggles for decolonization and the lingering effects of empire Taken together they demonstrate that an appreciation of the role of visual experience is necessary for understanding the functioning of hegemonic imperial power and the ways that the colonized subjects spoke and looked back at their imperial rulers Empires of Vision also makes a vital point about the complexity of image culture in the modern world We must comprehend how regimes of visuality emerged globally not only in the metropole but also in relation to the putative margins of a world that increasingly came to question the very distinction between center and periphery

Cities of Light Sandy Isenstadt, Margaret Maile Petty, Dietrich Neumann, 2014-12-17

Cities of Light is the first global overview of modern urban illumination a development that allows human wakefulness to colonize the night doubling the hours available for purposeful and industrious activities Urban lighting is undergoing a revolution due to recent developments in lighting technology and increased focus on sustainability and human scaled environments Cities of Light is expansive in coverage spanning two centuries and touching on developments on six continents without diluting its central focus on architectural and urban lighting Covering history geography theory and speculation in urban lighting readers will have numerous points of entry into the book finding it easy to navigate for a quick reference and or a coherent narrative if read straight through With chapters written by respected scholars and highly regarded contemporary practitioners this book will delight students and practitioners of architectural and urban history area and cultural studies and lighting design professionals and the institutional and municipal authorities they serve At a moment when the entire world is being reshaped by new lighting technologies and new design attitudes the longer history of urban lighting remains fragmentary Cities of Light aims to provide a global framework for historical studies of urban lighting and to offer a new perspective on the fast moving developments of lighting today

Historic Cities of the Islamic World Clifford Edmund Bosworth, 2007-01-01

This book contains articles on historic cities of the Islamic world ranging from West Africa to Malaysia which over the centuries have been centres of culture and learning and of economic and commercial life and which have contributed much to the consolidation of Islam as a faith and as a social and political institution The articles have been taken from the second edition of the Encyclopaedia of Islam completed in 2004 but in many cases expanded and rewritten All have been updated to include fresh historical information with note of contemporary social developments and population statistics The book thus delineates the urban background of Islam as it has evolved up to the present day highlighting the role of such great cities as Cairo Istanbul Baghdad and Delhi in Islamic history and also brings them together in a rich panorama illustrating one of mankind's greatest achievements the living organism of the city

Who Ran the Cities? Ralf Roth, 2017-03-02

The question of who actually ran cities in the eighteenth nineteenth and twentieth centuries has been increasingly debated in recent years As well as trying to understand the distribution of political power and the rise of broad political participation urban historians have questioned how and whether elites retained influence in municipal government The essays in this collection provide a detailed examination of the relationship between urban elites and the exercise of power bringing together economic social and cultural history with the political history of power resources and decision making The volume challenges common perceptions of a monolithic urban elite by looking at specific case studies Collectively these essays provide a more sophisticated view of the exercise of urban power as the negotiation of various elite groups defined by their economic social political or cultural privilege To contribute to this complex account of the history of cities elites and their influence the collection applies a range of methodological approaches to studying European and American cities as well as the wider world
