Collective Remembering Ludmila Isurin, 2017-06-06 This interdisciplinary study explores collective memory as it is presented by official producers such as textbooks and media and reflected by consumers group members Focusing on a case study of Russians and Russian immigrants to the USA and their memories of seminal events in the twentieth century Russian collective past Isurin shows how autobiographical memory contributes to the formation of collective memory and also examines how the memory of the shared past is reconstructed by those who stayed with the group and those who left By bringing together historical anthropological and psychological approaches Collective Remembering provides a new theoretical framework for memory studies that incorporates both content analysis of texts and empirical data from human participants thus demonstrating that methodologies from the humanities and the social sciences can complement each other to create a better understanding of how memory works in the world and in the mind

History, Memory, and Trans-European Identity Aline Sierp, 2014-06-20 This book questions the presupposition voiced by many historians and political scientists that political experiences in Europe continue to be interpreted in terms of national history and that a European community of remembrance still does not exist By tracing the evolution of specific memory cultures in two successor countries of the Fascist Nazi regime Italy and Germany and the impact of structural changes upon them the book investigates wider democratic processes particularly concerning the conservation and transmission of values and the definition of identity on different levels It argues that the creation of a transnational European memory culture does not necessarily imply the erasure of national and local forms of remembrance It rather means the creation of a further supranational arena where diverging memories can find their expression and can be dealt with in a different way Through the triangulation of agents of memory construction constraints and opportunities and actual portrayals of the past this volume explores the difficulties faced by a multinational entity like the EU in reaching some kind of consensus on such a sensitive subject as history

Alice in Shandehland Monda Halpern, 2015-06-15 By 1931 Ben and Alice Edelson had been married for two decades and had seven children but for years Alice had been having an affair with the married Jack Horwitz On the night of 24 November Ben Alice and Jack met at Edelson Jewellers to settle the thing Words flew a brawl erupted and Jack was shot and killed The tragedy marked the start of a sensational legal case that captured Ottawa headlines with the prominent jeweller facing the gallows Through a detailed examination of newspaper coverage interviews with family and community members and evocative archival photographs Monda Halpern's Alice in Shandehland reconstructs a long silenced murder case in Depression era Canada Halpern contends that despite his crime Ben Edelson was the object of far less contempt than his adulterous wife whose shandeh Yiddish for shame or disgrace seemed indefensible While Alice endured the censure of both the Jewish community and the courtroom Ben's middle class respectability and the betrayal he suffered earned him favoured standing and ultimately legal exoneration Revealing the tensions around ethnicity sexuality gender and class Alice in Shandehland explores the divergent reputations of Ben and Alice Edelson within a growing but insular and tenuous Jewish community and within a dominant culture that embraced male success and valour during the emasculating 1930s Don't Forget to Call Home Aaron L. Starr, 2023-09-07 At a hundred years old Holocaust survivor Wolf Gruca turned to his grandson Rabbi Aaron Starr and asked Where was God Don't Forget to Call Home is a grandson's attempt to respond to a weeping grandfather and it's a clergyman's effort to help the modern person deepen a relationship with the Divine With warmth and wisdom Rabbi Starr sets out to answer the question Where is God and what does God want of us Perhaps God is no longer the Law Giver or Judge the Warrior or even the Miracle Maker Perhaps God is an Empty Nester Parent expecting us to live with gratitude obligation joy and hope Perhaps like a loving parent whose children are now grown up God desires us to act like adults by emulating our Heavenly Parent Perhaps too God and Grandpa are reminding us Don't forget to call home
