

Good Morning

*Friends,
remember
life is short,*

*Grudges are a waste of time, laugh when you can,
apologize when you should, let go of what you can't change. Love deeply and forgive quickly.
God bless you!*

Remember The Morning:

Father and Son Marcos Giralt Torrente, 2014-09-09 This is a story about two people but I m the only one telling it Many authors have wrestled with the death of a father in their writing but few have grappled with the subject as fiercely or as powerfully as the brilliant Spanish writer Marcos Giralt Torrente does in Father and Son the mesmerizing and discomfiting memoir that won him Spain s highest literary award the Spanish National Book Award Giralt Torrente is best known for his fiction but it is in this often savage memoir that he demonstrates the full measure of his gifts In the months following his father s death from cancer Giralt Torrente could not write until he began to write about his father In many ways they were strangers to each other after his parents relationship ended when he was quite young Giralt Torrente s father remained in contact with him but held himself at a distance Silences began to linger prompted by Giralt Torrente s anger at his father s lies and absences and perpetuated by their inability to speak about the sources of the conflicts between them But despite their differences they had a strong bond and in the months leading up to his father s death from cancer they groped toward reconciliation Here the author commits to exploring it all sparing neither his father nor himself conscious of their flaws but also understanding of them Weaving together history and personal narrative Giralt Torrente crafts a startlingly honest account of a complex relationship and an indelible portrait of both father and son Beautifully translated by Natasha Wimmer the award winning translator of Roberto Bola o and as lyrical and clear eyed on mourning as Joan Didion s The Year of Magical Thinking Father and Son is an uncommonly gripping memoir by an uncommonly talented writer Library Service, 1917

The Muse is Music Meta DuEwa Jones, 2011 This wide ranging ambitiously interdisciplinary study traces jazz s influence on African American poetry from the Harlem Renaissance to contemporary spoken word poetry Examining established poets such as Langston Hughes Ntozake Shange and Nathaniel Mackey as well as a generation of up and coming contemporary writers and performers Meta DuEwa Jones highlights the intersections of race gender and sexuality within the jazz tradition and its representation in poetry Applying prosodic analysis to emphasize the musicality of African American poetic performance she examines the gendered meanings evident in collaborative performances and in the criticism images and sounds circulating within jazz cultures Jones also considers poets who participated in contemporary venues for black writing such as the Dark Room Collective and the Cave Canem Foundation including Harryette Mullen Elizabeth Alexander and Carl Phillips Incorporating a finely honed discussion of the Black Arts Movement the poetry jazz fusion of the late 1950s and slam and spoken word performance milieus such as Def Poetry Jam she focuses on jazz and hip hop influenced performance artists including Tracie Morris Saul Williams and Jessica Care Moore Through attention to cadence rhythm and structure The Muse is Music fills a gap in literary scholarship by attending to issues of gender in jazz and poetry and by analyzing recordings of poets both with and without musical accompaniment Applying the methodology of textual close reading to a critical close listening of American poetry s resonant soundscape Jones s analyses include exploring the formal innovation and queer performance of Langston Hughes's recorded collaboration with jazz musicians delineating the relationship between punctuation and performance in the post soul John Coltrane poem and closely examining jazz improvisation and hip hop stylization An elaborate articulation of the connections between jazz poetry and spoken word and gender The Muse Is Music offers valuable criticism of specific texts and performances and a convincing argument about the shape of jazz and African American poetic performance in the contemporary era
