Remembering Fred Sington Ronald Weathers, 1999 I Remember Paul "Bear" Bryant Al Browning, 2001 Paul Bear Bryant was arguably the greatest football coach in the history of college football Beloved by fans of the Alabama Crimson Tide by the time he retired from coaching following the 1982 season his teams had won 323 games a feat unmatched by any coach in college football history Before arriving in Tuscaloosa he had coached at Maryland Kentucky and Texas A his teams at Alabama won six national championships and thirteen Southeastern Conference titles On July 17 1981 Coach Bryant sat in his office at Memorial Coliseum reminiscing with sports columnist Al Browning of the Tuscaloosa News Contemplating the twilight of his career he calmly said They ll forget me as soon as I croak and am buried When Browning objected Coach smiled slightly and said No that s the way it is Life moves on and people find interest in other things While Bryant s memory may have faded slightly he certainly has not been forgotten and I Remember Paul Bear Bryant is a glowing testimony to the love that those who knew him best continue to have for him to this day Here dozens of his contemporaries former players childhood friends family competitors opponents and his boys offer in their own words their favorite memories of this man they loved so much They recall ordinary moments as well as extraordinary ones they recall moments of joyful victory and bitter defeat they recall memories of the gridiron discipline he dished out and the thoughtful helpful guidance he offered to his players even long after they had graduated and gone on to their own careers While Bryant has moved on from this life he has not been forgotten and the personal memories included in I Remember Paul Bear Bryant proves it beyond doubt
