

In loving MEMORY OF MY SON

Those we love don't go away

THEY WALK BESIDE US EVERY DAY...

UNSEEN, UNHEARD,
but always near

Still loved, still missed

AND VERY DEAR

I miss you more than words can say...

Leo, 2011-10-27 The true nature of your being is the Gift from within your good soul your good spirit connecting with your good thoughts You will find that with this connection it will deny you nothing and gives you everything When the Gift within you that rests at the center of your being and connects with the Light from the Infinite Power of the universe little else matters When you discover to know of the true power that lies within nothing is impossible When the Gift of Light your spirit and soul connects with the Light of the Universe you will hear to believe there are no limits There is no obstacle too strong for you to overcome no disease your thought cannot delete no situation that cannot be changed no connecting relationship that cannot be found no desire that cannot be made to manifest and come true Know that the connecting powers are within you All things are possible when you see with the inner vision Wisdom is shared in the voice of vision The belief of knowing all is true awaits the eyes that see It teaches that while physically being bound to earth there is within us a spiritual power a power of self though which we are one connecting with the universe it teaches to have focus listen to the mind and we will find our happiness Making a connection the vision will come with the narration sharing the wisdom to perfection Every person on our earth has the gift Combined with knowledge and understanding the Whispered Words of Wisdom will lead you to more wisdom and you will then see what you could not see before From our Ancient Past certain words in phrases were written in code we say and use these phrases without knowing the true meaning behind them You Will find out When You open up your gift It Came To You just out of the blue You Were walking tall with your head up in the sky You Said it s right on the money Remember what comes to you in the Whispering Words of Wisdom you will hear the answers It is then to recognize the opportunities that become present

The Gift in the Economy and Society Stefan Kesting, Ioana Negru, Paolo Silvestri, 2020-12-28 Mainstream economics offers a perspective on the gift which is constructed around exchange axioms of self interest instrumental rationality and utility maximisation concepts that predominate within conventional forms of economic analysis Recognising the gift as an example of social practice underpinned by social institutions this book moves beyond this utilitarian approach to explore perspectives on the gift from social and institutional economics Through contributions from an international and interdisciplinary cast of authors the chapters explore key questions such as what is the relationship between social institutions on the one hand and gift exchange reciprocity on the other What are the social mechanisms that underpin gift and gift giving actions And finally what is the relationship between individuals societies gift giving and cooperation The answers to these questions and others serve to highlight the importance of the analysis of gift in economics and other social sciences The book also demonstrates the potential of the analysis of the gift to contribute to solving current problems for humanity at various levels of social aggregation This key text makes a significant contribution to the literature on the gift which will be of interest to readers of heterodox economics social anthropology philosophy of economics sociology and political philosophy

The End of Memory Miroslav Volf,2006 Can one forget atrocities Should one forgive abusers Ought we not hope for the final reconciliation of all the wronged and all wrongdoers alike even if it means spending eternity with perpetrators of evil We live in an age when it is generally accepted that past wrongs genocides terrorist attacks bald personal injustices should be constantly remembered But Miroslav Volf here proposes the radical idea that letting go of such memories after a certain point and under certain conditions may actually be the appropriate course of action While agreeing with the claim that to remember a wrongdoing is to struggle against it Volf notes that there are too many ways to remember wrongly perpetuating the evil committed rather than guarding against it In this way the just sword of memory often severs the very good it seeks to defend He argues that remembering rightly has implications not only for the individual but also for the wrongdoer and for the larger community Volfs personal stories of persecution offer a compelling backdrop for his search for theological resources to make memories a wellspring of healing rather than a source of deepening pain and animosity Controversial thoughtful and incisively reasoned The End of Memory begins a conversation hard to ignore The Gift of Administration Donald P. Senior, 2015-12-28 In his First Letter to the Corinthians Paul cites administrators as one of God's gifts to the Christian community 1 Cor 12:28 But many who serve in administrative service today have difficulty seeing how their everyday work is an expression of discipleship This book written by an experienced administrator and noted biblical scholar shows how the various functions of institutional administration are deeply rooted in the Scriptures and are a genuine expression of our call to discipleship Leadership mission statements and planning finances and fund raising personnel issues communications and public relations all of these seemingly secular activities serve to build up the Body of Christ and deserve to be recognized as authentic Christian ministry To see administrative service as a biblically rooted gift can help those involved in this way of life to find deeper and more satisfying spiritual meaning in what they do The Custodians of the Gift Guido Carlo Pigliascio, 2022-10-21 Emerging from more than two decades of research in the field and in the archives the essays collected here explore the multifaceted topic of the Fijian firewalking ceremony the vilavilairevo The collection examines the intersection of the intertwined topics of cultural property reproduction of tradition and change with issues of post colonial representation authenticity and ethnic identity The essays advance new insights on the tourist gaze and the safeguarding of intangible cultural heritage and pose serious questions regarding the role of digital and social media as tools for preserving cultural legacies and extending traditional cultural worlds into new domains Focusing on the response of the Sawau tribe of the island of Beqa to the commodification of the vilavilairevo as their iconic practice this essay collection ultimately illuminates how the Christian cultural dynamics and unprecedented dogmatic schism surrounding the vilavilairevo spectacle are reshaping local notions of heritage social sentiment and social capital The Surprising Gift of Doubt Marc A. The Gift of Truth Stephen David Ross,1997-04-24 Reexamines the good tracing the history of the idea of truth as an ethical movement and interpreting the good as nature s abundance giving beauty and truth as gifts

Vatican II: A Gift & a Task Jacob Kavunkal,Et Al., Giving Beyond the Gift Elliot R. Wolfson,2014-02-03 This book explores the co dependency of monotheism and idolatry by examining the thought of several prominent twentieth century Jewish philosophers Cohen Buber Rosenzweig and Levinas While all of these thinkers were keenly aware of the pitfalls of scriptural theism to differing degrees they each succumbed to the temptation to personify transcendence even as they tried either to circumvent or to restrain it by apophatically purging kataphatic descriptions of the deity Derrida and Wyschogrod by contrast carried the project of denegation one step further embarking on a path that culminated in the aporetic suspension of belief and the consequent removal of all images from God a move that seriously compromises the viability of devotional piety The inquiry into apophasis transcendence and immanence in these Jewish thinkers is symptomatic of a larger question Recent attempts to harness the apophatic tradition to construct a viable postmodern negative theology a religion without religion are not radical enough Not only are these philosophies of transcendence guilty of a turn to theology that defies the phenomenological presupposition of an immanent phenomenality but they fall short on their own terms inasmuch as they persist in employing metaphorical language that personalizes transcendence and thereby runs the risk of undermining the irreducible alterity and invisibility attributed to the transcendent other The logic of apophasis if permitted to run its course fully would exceed the need to posit some form of transcendence that is not ultimately a facet of immanence Apophatic theologies accordingly must be supplanted by a more far reaching apophasis that surpasses the theolatrous impulse lying coiled at the crux of theism an apophasis of apophasis based on accepting an absolute nothingness to be distinguished from the nothingness of an absolute that does not signify the unknowable One but rather the manifold that is the pleromatic abyss at being s core Hence the much celebrated metaphor of the gift must give way to the more neutral and less theologically charged notion of an unconditional givenness in which the distinction between giver and given collapses To think givenness in its most elemental phenomenological sense is to allow the apparent to appear as given without presuming a causal agency that would turn that given into a gift few minutes Recognizing the Gift Daniel A. Rober, 2016-06-01 Recognizing the Gift puts twentieth century Catholic theological conversations on nature and grace particularly those of Henri de Lubac and Karl Rahner into dialogue with Continental philosophy notably the thought of Jean Luc Marion and Paul Ricoeur It argues that a renewed theology of nature and grace must build on the accomplishments of the recent past while acknowledging that an engagement with the political is unavoidable for theology Ultimately the aim is to revive and broaden discussion of nature and grace by drawing together the insights of contemporary theologians and Continental philosophers Too often these areas of inquiry remain quite separate in part due to differing priorities This work tries to open that conversation in part by critically pointing out in dialogue with Ricoeur the need in Marion s work for an acknowledgment of recognition reciprocity and the political It thus argues for a theology of nature and grace in terms of recognition of the gift drawing out the reciprocal and political nature of gift and givenness in opposition to those including Marion who would seek to avoid politics and reciprocity as a proper avenue of inquiry for theology More Than a Gift Jeannine Poole, 2010-07-14 More Than a Gift is about using the power of emotion to celebrate the Christmas season For years Jeannine Poole applied the latest brain research to enhance and institute the most advanced classrooms in schools In the book she describes how to use these powerful revelations to make the family Christmas meaningful and memorable She magically unites the brain and the heart with creativity usefulness and emotions Within the pages of More Than a Gift are examples of celebrations to promote a more joyous and fulfilling Christmas
