Logan, 2015-08-05 Excerpt from Reminiscences of a Soldier's Wife An Autobiography To tell my own story is to tell that of my famous husband General John A Logan Our marriage was a real partnership for thirty one happy years I shared his thoughts and plans no less when he was a senator than when he was a prosecuting attorney in southern Illinois We were working in the harmony of a common purpose whether I was in the kitchen improvising a meal for his friends when he was running for the legislature or entertaining in Washington after his fame was secure and his influence nation wide With him I witnessed the stirring events in which he was a leader on the borderland of the Confederacy where he raised his Union regiment We were together whenever possible during the war I travelled with him on his political campaigns after the war Thus I came to know not only the eminent soldiers and public men of his time but the men in the ranks who believed in him and followed him whether to Vicksburg and Atlanta or in his political battles Our tastes were the same likewise our ambitions for the best attainments in life We came of the same pioneering American stock We were reared among the same surroundings of the Middle West when it was the frontier About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works      Reminiscences of a Soldier's Wife Ellen McGowan Biddle, 2002 The wife of a U S Army officer offers her articulate and astute observations about life on the U S frontier From Macon Georgia to Fort Robinson Nebraska the author followed her husband throughout his career 14 photos

has a different issue in their life that makes him or her stronger Across America many women share the experience and circumstances of being a soldier s wife They share the experience of being lonely frustrated upset and depressed What is the general perception of a soldiers wife Overall the depth and understanding of what it takes to fulfill the role of a soldier s wife or military spouse is often discredited or overlooked Society has made the assumption that military families are well supported and that their households are equally sustained Many people may simply believe that being married to a US soldier is no different than being married to a US Citizen If that is your belief prepare to be enlightened Reminiscences
