Twentieth Century Poetry Peter Robinson, 2005 Peter Robinson s third book of literary criticism presents a sequence of chapters exploring ways that selves and situations interact and become imaginatively identified with each other in poems Readings of works by Ezra Pound Basil Bunting Louis MacNeice W S Graham Elizabeth Bishop Allen Curnow Charles Tomlinson Mairi MacInnes Tom Raworth and Roy Fisher share an interest in how poems can be both attached to and detached from the culture society and conditions in which they were written These studies draw out and underline both the ubiquity and elusiveness of the self in the situation of the text The poems studied here are also discussed as focal points for relations between readerly and writerly selves and their situations in and over time

What Are Poets For? Gerald L Bruns, 2012-06 Conceptions and practices of poetry change not only from time to time and from place to place but also from poet to poet This has never been more the case than in recent years Gerald Bruns s magisterial What Are Poets For explores typographical experiments that distribute letters randomly across a printed page sound tracks made of vocal and buccal noises and holographic poems that recompose themselves as one travels through their digital space Bruns surveys one word poems found texts and book length assemblies of disconnected phrases he even includes descriptions of poems that no one could possibly write but which are no less interesting or no less poetic for all of that The purpose of the book is to illuminate this strange poetic landscape spotlighting and describing such oddities as they appear anomalies that most contemporary poetry criticism ignores Naturally this breadth raises numerous philosophical questions that Bruns also addresses for example whether poetry should be responsible semantically ethically politically to anything outside itself whether it can be reduced to categories distinctions and the rule of identity and whether a particular poem can seem odd or strange when everything is an anomaly Perhaps our task is simply to learn like anthropologists how to inhabit such an anarchic world The poets taken up for study are among the most important and innovative in the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries John Ashbery Charles Bernstein Paul Celan Kenneth Goldsmith Lyn Hejinian Susan Howe Karen Mac Cormack Steve McCaffery John Matthias J H Prynne and Tom Raworth What Are Poets For is nothing less than a lucid detailed study of some of the most intractable writings in contemporary poetry

The Material of Poetry Gerald L. Bruns, 2005 Poetry is philosophically interesting writes Gerald L Bruns when it is innovative not just in its practices but before everything else in its poetics that is in its concepts or theories of itself In The Material of Poetry Bruns considers the possibility that anything under certain conditions may be made to count as a poem By spelling out such enabling conditions he gives us an engaging overview of some of the kinds of contemporary poetry that challenge our notions of what language is sound poetry visual or concrete poetry and found poetry Poetry's sense and meaning can hide in the spaces in which it is written and read says Bruns and so he urges us to become anthropologists to go afield in poetry's social historical and cultural settings From that perspective Bruns draws on works by such varied poets as Gertrude Stein Ezra Pound Steve McCaffery and Francis Ponge to argue for three seemingly competing points First poetry is made of language but is not a use of it That is poetry is made of words but not of what we use words to produce concepts narratives expressions of feeling and so on Second as the nine sound poems on the CD included with the book demonstrate poetry is not necessarily made of words but is rooted in and in fact already fully formed by sounds the human body can produce Finally poetry belongs to the world alongside ordinary things it cannot be confined to some aesthetic neutral or disengaged dimension of human culture Poetry without frontiers unmoored from expectations and sometimes even written in imaginary languages Bruns shows us why for the sake of all poetry we should embrace its anarchic vitalizing ways

Poetry and Public Language Tony Lopez, Anthony Caleshu, 2007 A collection of essays based on the conference of the same name held at the University of Plymouth in April 2007 Contributors are Lyn Hejinian Barrett Watten Andrea Brady Allen Fisher Robert Hampson Richard Kerridge Peter Middleton William Rowe Robert Sheppard H I ne Aji Andrew Browne Matt Chambers Brendan Cooper Ian Davidson Carrie Etter Kit Fryatt Piers Hugill Michael Kindellan Greg Lainsbury Catherine Martin Will Montgomery Eva Mueller Zettelman Susan Nurmi Schomers Christopher Orchard Robin Peel Kathy Ann Tan Philip Terry and Scott Thurston between the British and Irish poetic traditions and pulling together competing tendencies and positions Written by critics from Britain Ireland and the United States Includes suggestions for further reading and a chronology detailing the most important writers volumes and events Phenomenal Reading Brian M. Reed, 2012-04-04 This book examines individually and collectively poets widely recognized as formal and linguistic innovators Why do their words appear in unconventional orders What end do these arrangements serve Why are they striking Brian Reed focuses on poetic form as a persistent puzzle utilizing historical fact and the views of other critics to clarify how particular literary works are constructed and how those constructions lead to specific effects Back cover Theory into Poetry , 2022-05-20 At the beginning of the 21st century there is still no generally accepted comprehensive definition of the lyric or differentiated modern toolkit for its analysis The reception of poetry is largely characterised either by an empathetic identification of critics with the lyric persona or by exclusive interest in formal patterning The present volume seeks to remedy this deficit All the contributors theorise the lyric to overcome the impasse of an impressionistic and narrowly formalistic critical debate on the genre Their papers focus on a variety of different questions the problem of establishing a framework for definition and classification the search for dynamic and potent critical approaches investigations of poetry s cultural performance and its fundamental relevance for the construction of group cohesion The essays collected in this volume offer a consciously polyphonic range of theories and interpretations suggesting to the reader a variety of theoretical frameworks and practical illustrations of how a discussion of poetry may be firmly grounded in modern literary theory Minutes of the Charles Olson Society , 2003 Poetica , 2005

Writing Into the Future Alan Golding, 2022-09-13 The dial The little review and the dialogics of the modernist new The new American poetry revisited again New newer and the newest American poetries Poetry anthologies and the idea of the mainstream Serial form in George Oppen and Robert Creeley Place space and new syntax in Oppen s Seascape needle s eye Macro micro material Rachel Blau DuPlessis s Drafts and the post objectivist serial poem Drafts and fragments Rachel Blau DuPlessis s counter Poudian project Drawings with words Susan Howe s visual feminist poetics Authority marginality England and Ireland in the work of Susan Howe Bruce Andrews writing and poetry What about all this writing Williams and alternative poetics Language writing digital poetics and transitional materialities Reading poetry Peter Barry, 2016-05-16 Witty direct and articulate Peter Barry illustrates the key elements of poetry at work covering many different kinds of verse from traditional forms to innovative versions of the art such as concrete poetry minimalism and word free poems The emphasis is on meanings rather than words looking beyond technical devices like alliteration and assonance so that poems are understood as dynamic structures creating specific ends and effects The three sections cover progressively expanding areas Reading the lines deals with such basics as imagery diction and metre Reading between the lines concerns broader matters such as poetry and context and the reading of sequences of poems while Reading beyond the lines looks at theorised readings and the textual genesis of poems from manuscript to print Reading poetry is for students lecturers and teachers
