The Oxford History of Western Art

Martin Kemp, 2000 The Oxford History of Western Art is the new authority on the development of visual culture in the West over the last 2700 years from the classical period to the end of the twentieth century OHWA is an innovative and challenging reappraisal of how the history of art can be presented and understood None of the currently available general histories of art offers the wealth of perspectives and cross media references of this book Through a carefully devised modular structure readers are given insights not only into how and why works of art were created but also how works in different media relate to each other across time Here uniquely is not the simple linear story of art but a rich series of stories told from varying viewpoints The founding principle of the book has been to use carefully selected groupings of pictures to give readers a sense of the visual texture of the various periods and episodes covered The 167 illustration groups supported by explanatory text and picture captions create a sequence of visual tours not merely a procession of individually great works viewed in isolation but juxtapositions of significant images that powerfully convey a sense of the visual environments in which works of art need to be viewed in order to be understood and appreciated The aim throughout has been to make the shape and nature of these

visual presentations a stimulating and rewarding experience allowing readers to become active participants in the process of interpretation and synthesis Another key feature of the narrative is the re definition of traditional period boundaries Rather than relying on conventional labels such as Medieval Renaissance Baroque etc five major phases of significant historical change are established that unlock longer and more meaningful continuities The art of classical antiquity from c 600 BC to the fall of Rome in AD 410 The establishment of visual culture in Europe from 410 to 1527 the sack of papal Rome European visual regimes from 1527 to 1770 The era of revolutions 1770 to 1914 Modernism and after 1914 to 2000 This new framework shows how the major religious and secular functions of art have been forged sustained transformed revived and revolutionized over the ages how the institutions of Church and State have consistently aspired to make art in their own image and how the rise of art history itself has come to provide the dominant conceptual framework within which artists create patrons patronize collectors collect galleries exhibit dealers deal and art historians write The text has been written by a team of 50 specialist authors working under the direction of Professor Martin Kemp one of the UK's most distinguished art historians Whilst bringing their own expertise and vision to their sections each author was also asked to relate their text to a number of unifying themes and issues including written evidence physical contexts patronage viewing and reception techniques gender and racial issues centres and peripheries media and condition the notion of art and current presentations Though the coverage of topics focuses on European notions of art and their transplantation and transformation in North America space is also given to cross fertilizations with other traditions including the art of Latin America the Soviet Union India Africa and Afro Caribbean Australia and Canada Professor Kemp and his team similarly deal generously with the applied arts and reproductive media such as photography and prints The result is a vibrant vigorous and revolutionary account of Western art serving both as an inspirational introduction for the general reader and an authoritative source of reference and guidance for students

Portraiture Richard Brilliant, 2013-05-15 This is the first general and theoretical study devoted entirely to portraiture Drawing on a broad range of images from Antiquity to the twentieth century which includes paintings sculptures prints cartoons postage stamps medals documents and photographs Richard Brilliant investigates the genre as a particular phenomenon in Western art that is especially sensitive to changes in the perceived nature of the individual in society The author's argument on behalf of portraiture and he draws on examples by such artists as Botticelli Rembrandt Matisse Warhol and Hockney does not comprise a mere survey of the genre nor is it a straightforward history of its reception Instead Brilliant presents a thematic and cogent analysis of the connections between the subject matter of portraits and the beholder's response the response he or she makes to the image itself and to the person it represents Portraiture s extraordinary longevity and resilience as a genre is a testament to the power of this imaginative transaction between the subject the artist and the beholder     A Brief Guide to the National Gallery of Art National Gallery of Art (U.S.),1971     Art Market Research Tom McNulty,2013-12-27 This book is for art market researchers at all levels A brief overview of the global art market and its major stakeholders precedes an analysis of the various sales venues auction commercial gallery etc Library research skills are reviewed and advanced methods are explored in a chapter devoted to basic market research Because the monetary value of artwork cannot be established without reference to the aesthetic qualities and art historical significance of our subject works two substantial chapters detail the processes involved in researching and documenting the fine and decorative arts respectively and provide annotated bibliographies Methods for assigning values for art objects are explored and sources of price data both in print and online are identified and described in detail In recent years art historical scholarship increasingly has addressed issues related to the history of art and its markets a chapter on resources for the historian of the art market offers a wide range of sources Finally provenance and art law are discussed with particular reference to their relevance to dealers collectors artists and other art market stakeholders     Exhibiting the Past Frederik Herman,Sjaak Braster,María del Mar del Pozo Andrés,2022-12-19 With respect to public issues history matters With the worldwide interest for historical issues related with gender religion race nation and identity public history is becoming the strongest branch of academic history This volume brings together the contributions from historians of education about their engagement with public history ranging from musealisation and alternative ways of exhibiting to new ways of storytelling     Author Portraits in Early English Printed Books, 1474-1535 Julie Ann Smith,1983     The International Studio ,1907     Piero di Cosimo Dennis Geronimus,Michael Kwakkelstein,2019-03-25 The study of Piero di Cosimo belongs no less to the history of the imagination than to the history of art As was true for Giorgio Vasari five centuries ago Piero s intensely personal visual language remains a moving target for modern scholars Yet as surprising and strange as his pictorial solutions appear we have never known as much about Piero as we do today Freed from the powerful spell of Vasari s biography cum cautionary tale the Piero that emerges is not solely a conjurer of the uncanny but a sensitive observer of the emotions the natural and manmade worlds humans and beasts surfaces and coloristic effects phenomena material and ephemeral The conference from which the thirteen essays in this volume spring provided a forum for international scholars to continue the ongoing conversation and to ask new questions The latter address Piero s relationship to his artistic contemporaries north and south of the Alps the master s Marian imagery his intellectual engagement with classical traditions the dual themes of naturalism and exoticism and the latest technical findings Topics of investigation thus range as broadly as Piero s own versatile production uniting diverse fields and methods traversing regional boundaries and often venturing far beyond Florence s city walls into the wild Contributors are Ianthi Assimakopoulou Marina Belozerskaya Jean Cadogan Elena Capretti Alessandra
