Renascence That stood behind each envious thrust Mine every greed mine every lust And all the while for every grief Each suffering I craved relief With individual desire Craved all in vain And felt fierce fire About a thousand people crawl Perished with each then mourned for all A man was starving in Capri He moved his eyes and looked at me I felt his gaze I heard his moan And knew his hunger as my own I saw at sea a great fog bank Between two ships that struck and sank A thousand screams the heavens smote And every scream tore through my throat About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Early Poems Edna St. Vincent Millay,2013-01-23 A treasure for Edna St Vincent Millay fans and anyone who loves poetry The collection includes the complete selection of poems from her first three books Renascence and Other Poems A Few Figs from Thistles and Second April
