Rendezvous With Reality:

Virgin Mary and the Neutrino Isabelle Stengers, 2023-09-22 In Virgin Mary and the Neutrino first published in French in 2006 and here appearing in English for the first time Isabelle Stengers experiments with the possibility of addressing modern practices not as a block but through their divergence from each other Drawing on thinkers ranging from John Dewey to Gilles Deleuze she develops what she calls an ecology of practices into a capacious and heterogeneous perspective that is inclusive of cultural and political forces but not reducible to them Stengers first advocates for an approach to sciences that would emphasize the way each should be situated by the kind of relationships demanded by what it attempts to address This approach turns away from the disabling scientific nonscientific binary like the opposition between the neutrino and the Virgin Mary An ecology of practices instead stimulates an appetite for thinking reality not as an arbiter but as what we can relate to through the generation of diverging concerns and obligations

Pat Schroeder Joan A. Lowy, 2003-10-30 This is the first biography of Pat Schroeder outspoken Colorado Democrat elected to Congress in 1972 beloved by the left and despised by the right

To Face Down Dixie James O. Heath, 2017-12-14 In an era during which the United States Supreme Court handed down some of its most important decisions including Brown v Board of Education 1954 Baker v Carr 1962 and Miranda v Arizona 1966 three senators from South Carolina Olin Johnston Strom Thurmond and Ernest Fritz Hollings waged war on the court s progressive agenda by targeting the federal judicial nominations process To Face Down Dixie explores these senators role in some of the most contentious confirmation battles in recent history including those of Thurgood Marshall Abe Fortas and Clement Haynsworth In scrutinizing Supreme Court nominees and attempting to restrict the power of the nine justices of the court these senators defied not only the leadership of the Democratic Party but also the Senate traditions of hierarchy and seniority Along with South Carolina s conservative segregationist political establishment which maintained ironclad control over the state s legislature Johnston Thurmond and Hollings effectively drowned out the many moderate voices in South Carolina that remained critical of their obstructionism thus advancing their own conservative credentials and boosting their chances of reelection To Face Down Dixie examines for the first time the central role that South Carolina played in turning Supreme Court nomination hearings into confrontational and political public events James O Heath argues that the state s war on the court concealed its antipathy to civil rights by using the confirmation process to challenge the court s function as the final arbiter of policy on questions relating to law and order obscenity communist subversion and school prayer Heath s study illustrates that while South Carolina s history of massive resistance is less prominent than that of other states its politicians acted as persistent antagonists in the complex and dramatic debates in the U S Senate during the era of civil rights

Reality Show Howard Kurtz,2007-10-09 Dan Rather Tom Brokaw Peter Jennings They were on a first name basis with the country for a generation leading viewers through moments of triumph and tragedy But now that a new generation has succeeded them the once glittering job of network anchor seems unmistakably tarnished In an age of instantaneous Internet news cable echo chambers and iPod downloads who really needs the evening news And by extension who needs Katie Couric Brian Williams and Charlie Gibson But the anchors still have a megaphone capable of cutting through the media static Their coverage of Iraq helped turn the country against that bloody war and they are now playing a leading role in chronicling the collapse of George Bush's presidency and the 2008 race to succeed him Yet even as the anchors fight for ratings supremacy the mega corporations they work for have handed them a bigger challenge saving an American institution In this freewheeling intimate account of life atop the media pyramid award winning bestselling author Howard Kurtz takes us inside the newsrooms and executive suites of CBS NBC and ABC capturing the deadline judgments image making jealousies and gossip of this high pressure business Whether it is Couric trying to regain her morning magic while coping with tabloid stories about her boyfriends Williams reporting from New Orleans and Baghdad while worrying about his ailing father or Gibson weighing whether to follow his wife into retirement while grappling with having to report the explicit details of sex scandals Kurtz brings to life the daily battles that define their lives The narrative reflects an extraordinary degree of access to such corporate chieftains as Jeff Zucker and Les Moonves star correspondents and the anchors themselves Their goal create an on screen persona that people will tune in to and trust Yet they are faced with a graying shrinking audience as younger viewers flock to Jon Stewart whose influence on the real newscasts is palpable Here is the untold story of what these journalistic celebrities think of their bosses cable competitors bloggers and each other

Unfavorable Reality ROY S. SMITH JR.,2004-04-13 The United States is always dealing with foreign powers and all of us fear the possible overthrow of our way of life Our government and our people fear enemies from outside the country Until Sept 11 we were not worried about what can come from within Now from inside and outside this country comes a reality that can only be considered unfavorable Our freedom and our way of life is over so it seems until the strength and backbone of our country comes to the rescue Only one family with the wish to survive and live free can save the United States of America and the freedom that comes with it
